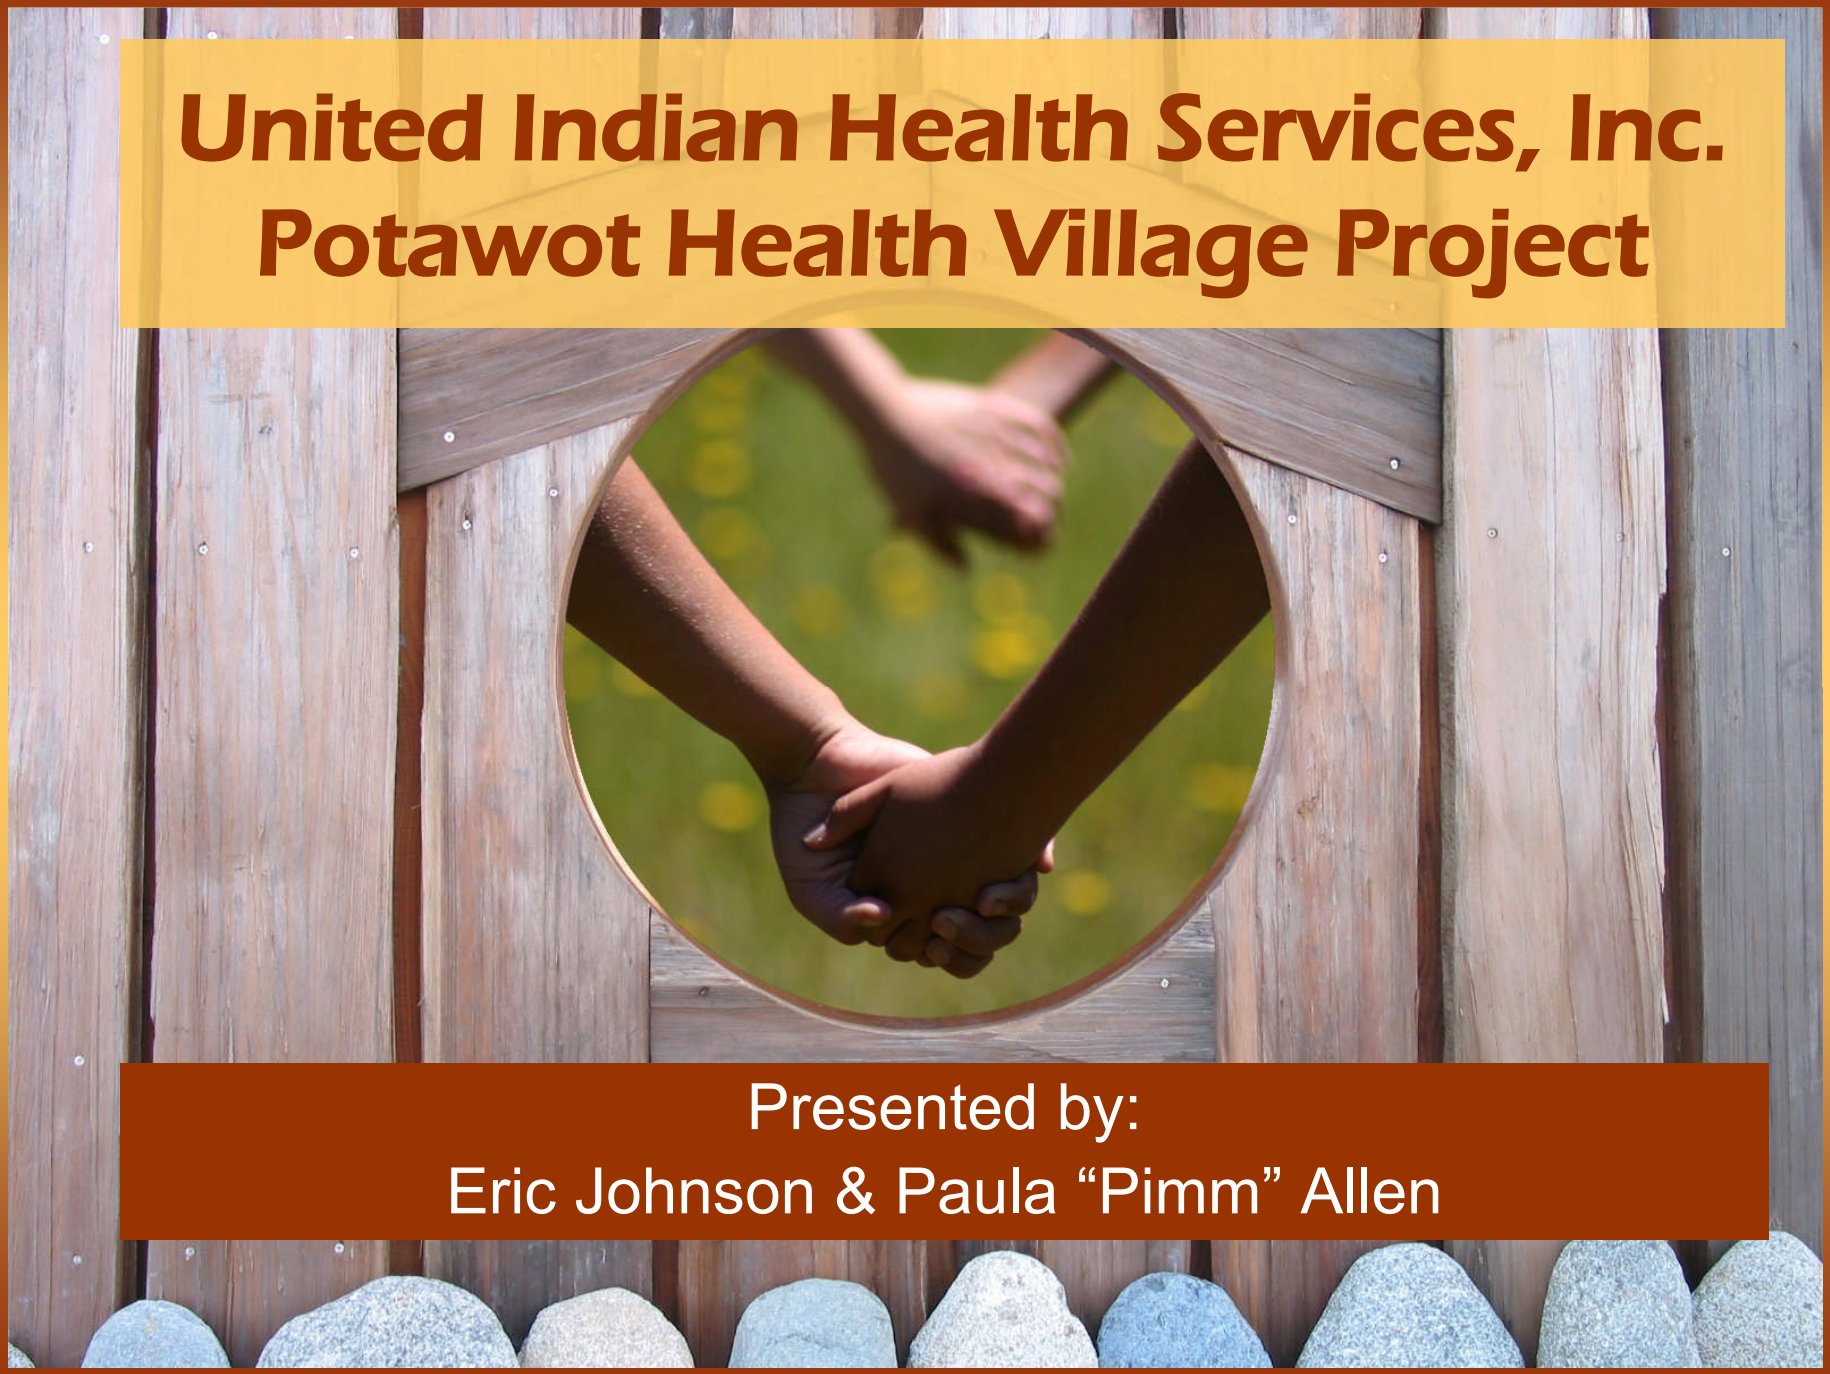
United Indian Health Services, Inc.
Potawot Health Village Project



Presented by:
Eric Johnson & Paula “Pimm” Allen

Health of the Environment = Health of the People

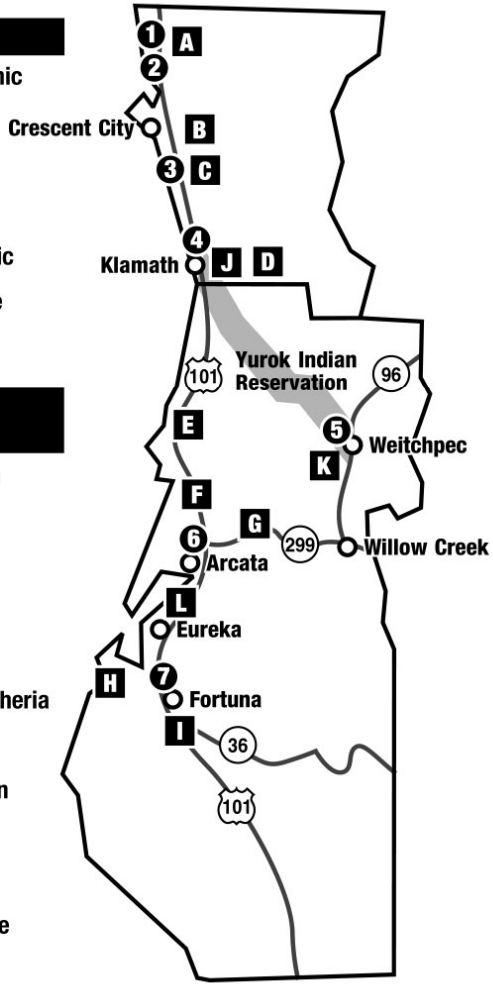
United Indian Health Services, Inc.
Service Area
Humboldt & Del Norte Counties

UIHS Facilities

1. Howonquet Health Clinic
2. Senior Nutrition Site
3. Elk Valley Office
4. Klamath Health Clinic
5. Weitchpec Health Clinic
6. Potawot Health Village
7. Fortuna Health Clinic

UIHS Affiliated Tribal Governments

- A Smith River Rancheria
- B Tolowa Nation
- C Elk Valley Rancheria
- D Resighini Rancheria
- E Big Lagoon Rancheria
- F Cher-ae Trinidad Rancheria
- G Blue Lake Rancheria
- H Table Bluff Reservation
- I Rohnerville Rancheria
- J Yurok Klamath Office
- K Yurok Weitchpec Office
- L Yurok Eureka Office



Historical Indian Village Sites near Potawot Health Village

Village A: Tachenkalchwheten
" Fern Roots"

Village B: Klokno-Sesko-Ten
"Sturgeon"

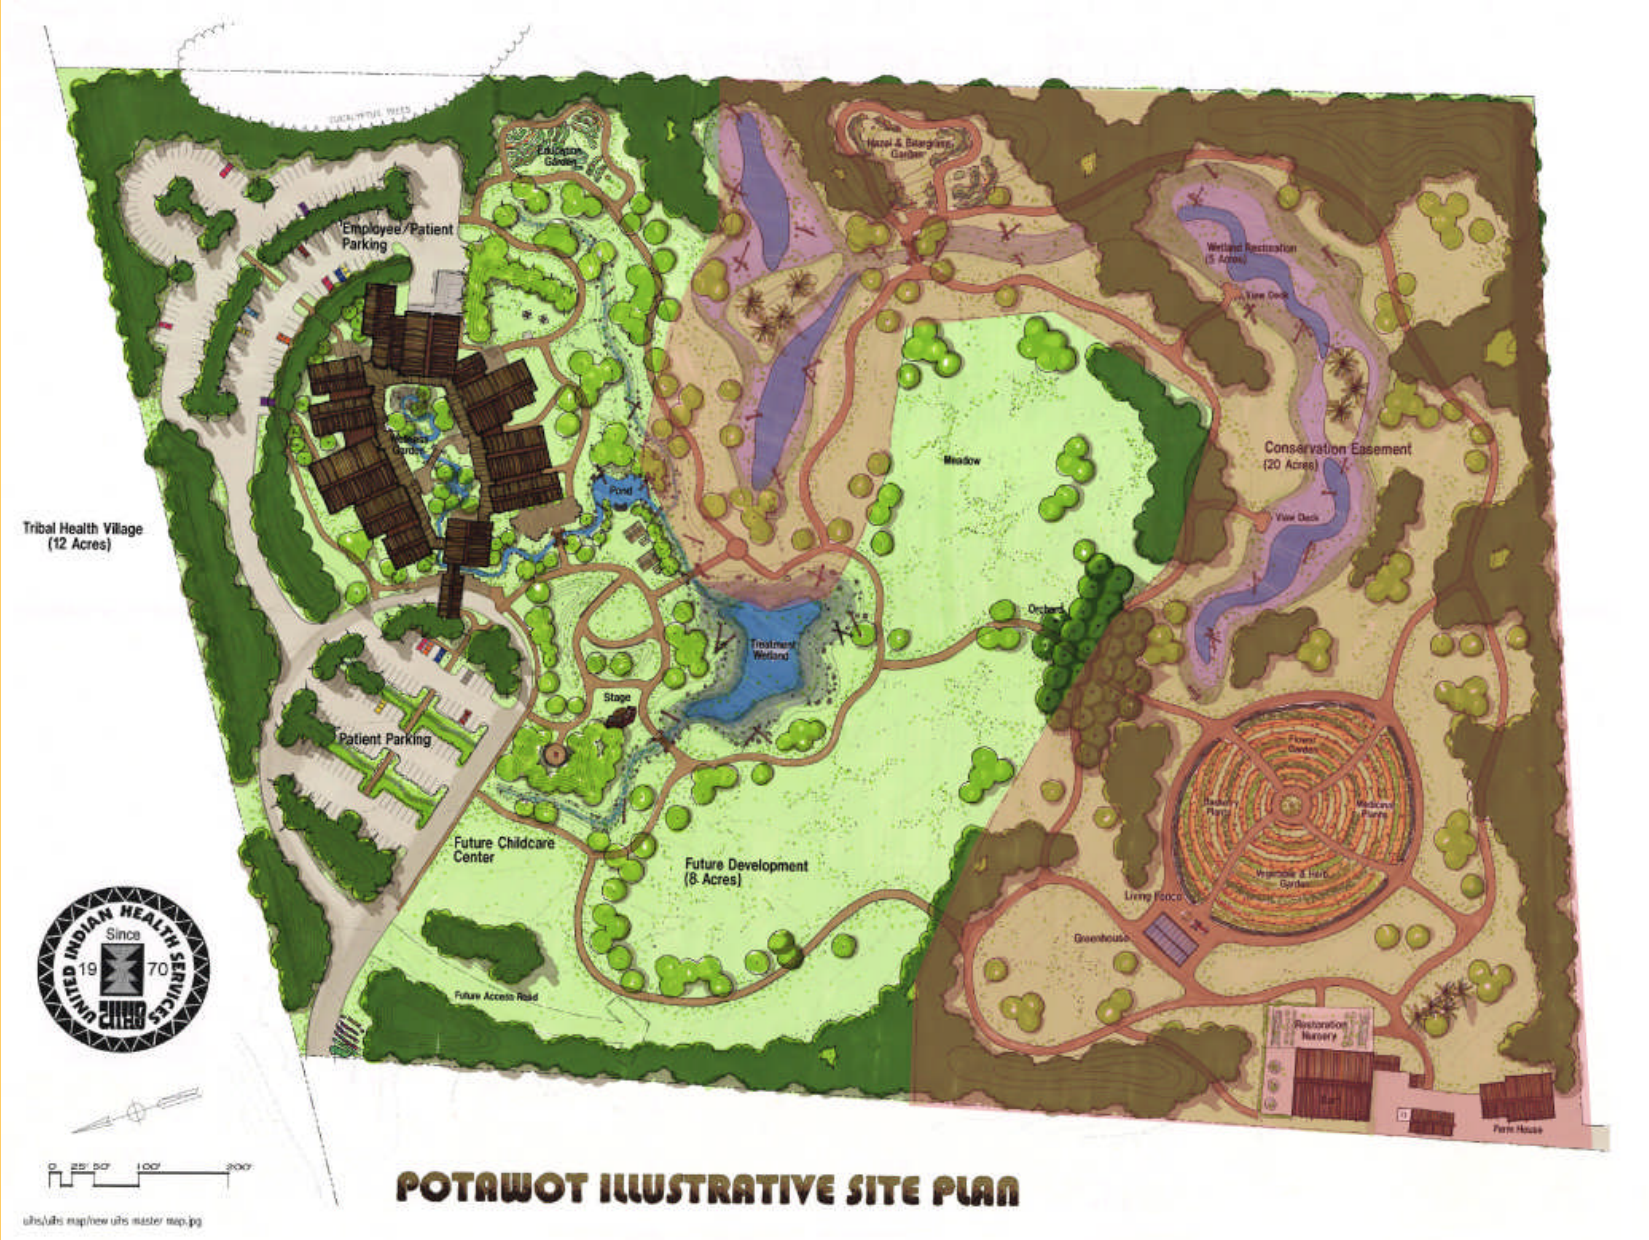
Village C: Knlokai-Kemeklok
"They grow like wild oats."

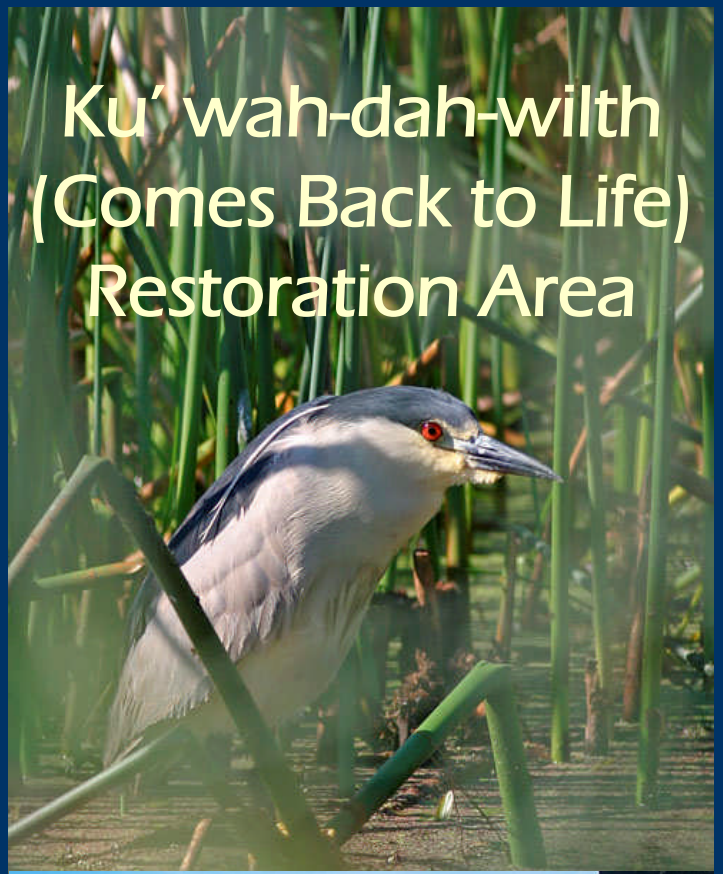
Village D: Tidil'-Tin
"Smooth river to catch salmon in."

Potawot "Mad River"
1854-1862

Potawot "Mad River"
1995-1997

Potawot Health Village Conceptual Map





Ku' wah-dah-wilth
(Comes Back to Life)
Restoration Area

12. 16. 2000

Map of Roof and Parking Lot Stormwater Flow into Treatment Pond

2003 6 6

POTAWOT
COMMUNITY
FOOD
GARDEN

PESTICIDES...

...WHAT BASKETWEAVERS SHOULD KNOW

Be Native, Be Responsible
Respect the Earth

"In the beginning, we made an agreement with the Creator...
We still have this responsibility to the Earth."
- UIHS Summer Camp

UIHS

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle. . . Our future depends on it