Boston College Local Stakeholders
February 1999

1. The following people/organizations have been identified:

- John Madden, Chemistry Department, BC
- Advanced Environmental Technical Services
- Environmental Action Center, Student Group at BC
- Assistant Chief Joe LaCroix, Newton Fire Department
- Lt. Mike Castro, LEPC, Newton Fire Department
- Karen Roundeau, Mass Water Resource Authority
- Capt. Tom Scavito, Boston Fire Department, Special Hazards Unit
- Louise Bruyn, Green Decade, Newton
- David Naparstnek, Newton Board of Health
- Ruth Leiberman, Newton Dept. of Public Works
- Various faculty in Biology and Chemistry Depts. at BC
- Various administrators at BC

2. To notify stakeholders and interested parties, the following has taken place:

- Local Stakeholder were invited to meetings held:
    - 1/13/98 (J. Madden, AETS, M. Castro and K. Rondeau attended)
    - 9/22/98 (AETS, K. Rondeau, J. Madden, M. Clarke & K. Harrison (both BC faculty attended along with EPA Officials)
- A newspaper article appeared in the Boston College Chronicle on 4/23/98. The paper has a circulation of 9200 and is distributed to BC employees, students, visitors, neighbors, and local elected and appointed officials, alumni, and donors.
- Information on the project and links are available on the BC EH&S web page.
- Letters to D. Naparstnek and R. Leiberman were sent out 10/1/98
- Various internal meetings at Boston College to include:
    - University EH&S Committee
    - Meetings with Legal Counsel, Financial VP, Director of B&G, Chairpersons of the Biology and Chemistry Depts., Faculty Meetings, Research Council Meetings, Research Administration and several others.