

For Ducks Unlimited Greenwings

Fun Zone

EARLY ELEMENTARY ACTIVITIES

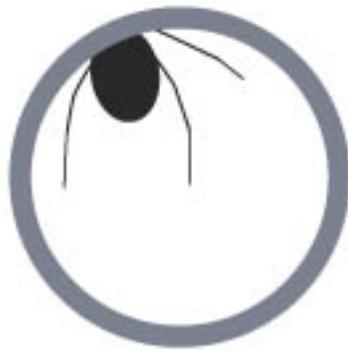

What duck is this? Discover the name by arranging the letters from largest to smallest on the dotted line.

Dear Parents:

In an effort to make Puddler as meaningful as possible for all its readers, we have created this special insert. It contains activities designed specifically for your child's age group. Read this issue of Puddler together, then share these related activities with your child. We've also included suggestions for further reading and discussion.

Want more pictures to color? Visit the Jeremy is watching wetland animals through his telescope. The telescope makes everything look larger. Try to identify the animals Jeremy sees. Use the pictures in the yellow box for help. Write each animal's name on the dotted line.

Color the hooded merganser!
Use the pictures in I.D. Me to help you choose colors.

What does this dragonfly see? Color in all the "1's" on its eyes and see for yourself!

Going Further

Suggested Reading

My Five Senses by Jo Ellen Moore

Busy Bunnies' Five Senses by Teddy Slater

Discussion Ideas

- Think about your five senses. What are some things you do that make use of one sense more than the others?
- Can you describe an object without looking at it? Close your eyes and have a friend hand an object to you. What do your other senses tell you about the object?
- What is one memory that is connected to your sense of vision? How about your sense of smell, touch, taste or hearing?

Answers:

spectacled eider

