

Tribal Consultation and Coordination Process and Timeline

As part of this consultation and coordination process, EPA is announcing a review and consultation period for the Quality Standard including Annexes, and supporting Quality Assurance Project Plan Guidance Document. Please submit your views and comments by March 20, 2012. When submitting comments, please explain why you agree or disagree, suggest alternatives and substitute language for your requested changes, and provide your rationale. Electronic comments may be sent via e-mail to: John Warren at warren.john@epa.gov or Beth Jackson at jackson.elizabeth@epa.gov. Written comments can be sent to EPA at the following address:

John Warren, US EPA
1200 Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Mail Code 2811R
Washington, DC 20460

Additionally, EPA is arranging two conference calls to discuss this matter with you. In order for participants to follow along more easily, we will set these conference calls up along with webinars. The details are listed below and we invite you and your designated consultation representative(s) to join us in these conference calls and webinars. To help us prepare for the consultation calls, we would appreciate it if you or your designated consultation representative(s) would contact John Warren of my staff at (202) 564- 6876 or warren.john@epa.gov, by March 17, 2012 (for the first consultation call) or by March 22, 2012 (for the second consultation call), to inform us whether your Tribe plans to participate in one or both of the consultation calls.
