Example

A company submits 3 new antimicrobial registration applications. The 3 applications are: one 20% concentrate, a 15% concentrate and a 10% concentrate. The package consists of chemistry data for each application, one set of acute toxicity studies using the 20% concentrate and one set of efficacy data generated at a the use dilution. The 15% and 10% products can rely on the same efficacy data because the use dilution will be the same as for the 20% and the difference in the inerts is water.
