

Waste Minimization for the 21st Century

A Dialogue with Pennsylvania Business and Industry Leaders

Thursday, May 17, 2001

Hosted by the Electrotechnology Applications Center (ETAC)
At Northampton Community College
Alumni Hall, Meeting Rooms 130 A-D
3835 Green Pond Road
Bethlehem, Pennsylvania 18020-7599

Agenda:

- 8:15 - 9:00 a.m.      Registration - Coffee, Juice, Pastries
- 9:00 - 9:15 a.m.      Welcoming Remarks - James P. Snyder, Director,
Land Recycling and Waste Management, PADEP
Maria Parisi Vickers, Deputy Director, Waste and Chemicals
Management Division, EPA Region III
- 9:15 - 10:00 a.m.      Waste Minimization Success Stories:
Gary Kruger, Manager of EHS Affairs, Rohm and Haas
Company – Morton Powder Coating
George Cseko, Process Engineering, Flexible Circuits Inc.
- 10:00 - 10:15 a.m.      Break
- 10:15 - 11:00 a.m.      PBT Landscape in Pennsylvania - Noah Borenstein, Waste
Minimization Engineer, EPA Region III
Glenn Mitzel, Waste Minimization Coordinator, PADEP
- 11:00 - 11:20 a.m.      Pollution Prevention, Compliance Assistance Resources -
Ed Pinero, Director, Office of Pollution Prevention and Compliance Assistance, PADEP
- 11:20 - 1:30 p.m.      Facilitated Roundtable Discussion - Sharon Roth, Director,
Regulatory Affairs, PA Chamber of Business and Industry

Lunch will be provided during the roundtable discussion

A tour of the ETAC Facility, Hosted by Dr. Mike Vasilik, Director, will be available after the meeting for those who are interested (sign up at registration booth).