Action: Notice of Proposed Assessment of Clean Water Act Section 309(g) Class II
Administrative Penalty and Opportunity to Comment

EPA is authorized under Section 309(g) of the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. §1319(g), to assess a civil penalty after providing the person subject to the penalty notice of the proposed penalty and the opportunity for a hearing, and after providing interested persons public notice of the proposed penalty and a reasonable opportunity to comment on its issuance. Under Section 309(g), any person who, without authorization, discharges a pollutant to a navigable water, as those terms are defined in Section 502 of the Act, 33 U.S.C. §1362, may be administratively assessed a Class I civil penalty of up to $32,500, or a Class II civil penalty of up to $157,500, by EPA. Class I and Class II proceedings for Section 309(g) of the Clean Water Act are conducted in accordance with the "Consolidated Rules of Practice Governing the Administrative Assessment of Civil Penalties, Issuance of Compliance or Corrective Action Orders, and the Revocation, Termination or Suspension of Permits"(40 Code of Federal Regulations Part 22) which was published in the Federal Register at Volume 64, Number 141, pages 40138 to 40190. The Federal Register is available at most libraries.

The procedures by which the public may submit written comments on a proposed Class II penalty order or participate in a Class II penalty proceeding are set forth in these Rules. The deadline for submitting public comment on a proposed Class II order is thirty (30) days after issuance of public notice.
