

Interpretation of Environmental Statistics

Barry Nussbaum, EPA/OEI, John Warren, EPA/OEI, and Kelly Black, Neptune& Co.

The interpretation of environmental data can be done quite effectively without the use of “excessive statistical methods”. Graphical examination of data will be illustrated and the use of standard summarizing techniques will be discussed. Basic statistical techniques will also be demonstrated.

