

National Drinking Water Advisory Council: Occurrence and Contaminant Selection Working Group

Working Group Mission Statement

To provide recommendations and advice to the National Drinking Water Advisory Council in development of a Drinking Water Contaminant Identification Method, and the first Drinking Water Contaminant Candidate List. The first Candidate List will be published in February 1998, and the Method will be used in the development of future Drinking Water Contaminant Candidate Lists. This method will be a risk-based approach to identify chemical and microbial contaminants that may pose a human health risk to public drinking water supplies.
