

Revising and Resubmitting a Report

This job aide guides you through the process of revising and resubmitting a report. As a CEDRI Certifier or Preparer, you may revise reports for resubmission to EPA. The revision process may be initiated by the facility's Preparer or Certifier, or by a State Reviewer or EPA Regional Reviewer.

Facility Initiated Revision

From the 'CEDRI History' page, locate the report you wish to revise and resubmit. Select the report to view the Report Details. From the 'Report Details' page, the facility Preparers and Certifiers initiate report revisions by clicking the 'Revise & Re-submit Report' button (Exhibit 1).

Once you click the button, a 'Resubmission Warning' message displays, informing you that your original report will be replaced in CEDRI and in WebFIRE by the revised report (Exhibit 2).

If you are resubmitting a spreadsheet report, you may download the report being revised so that you may make revisions to the original submission (Exhibit 2). Click the 'Download Prior Submission' button to download the prior submission spreadsheet template. Once you have downloaded your prior spreadsheet template submission, select the green 'Continue' button to move forward with the process (Exhibit 3).

If you are resubmitting a web form or PDF file report, you simply need to select the green 'Continue' button to move forward with the process (Exhibit 4).

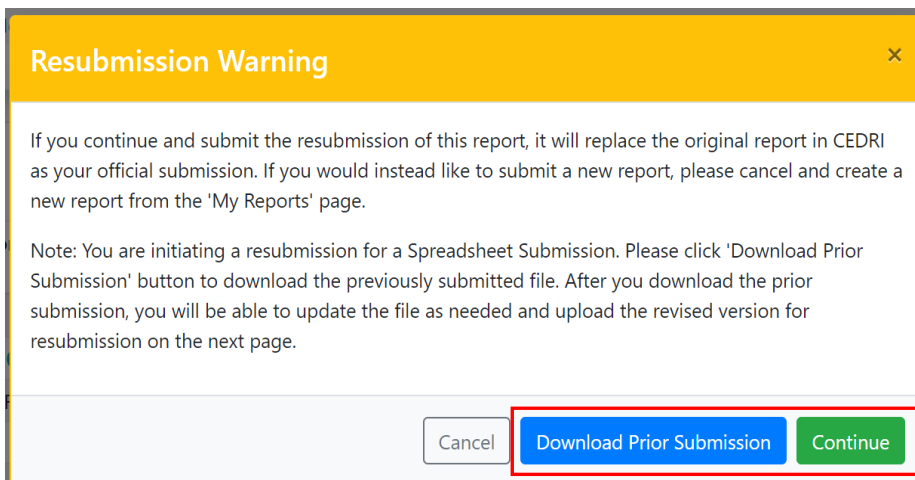

Resubmission Warning [X]

If you continue and submit the resubmission of this report, it will replace the original report in CEDRI as your official submission. If you would instead like to submit a new report, please cancel and create a new report from the 'My Reports' page.

Note: You are initiating a resubmission for a Spreadsheet Submission. Please click 'Download Prior Submission' button to download the previously submitted file. After you download the prior submission, you will be able to update the file as needed and upload the revised version for resubmission on the next page.

The email contains a link (Exhibit 5) to the report. When you click the link and log in to CDX, you are navigated to the 'Upload Documents' step (Exhibit 6) of the reporting workflow.

Resubmitting the Revised Report

You have the option to change the regulatory requirement for which the report was previously submitted ('Parts', 'Subparts' and 'Report Type'), or you may simply replace the report that was previously submitted.

To change the regulatory requirement for which you are submitting the report, click the 'Return to Select Your Report' button (Exhibit 6) to change the Report Type, Parts, Subparts, or Report Name.

Exhibit 6

Note: If you are not ready to submit the revised report you may save your work and complete the resubmission later. Click the 'Save and Return to My Reports'. Your resubmission is given a status of 'Resubmission Under Development...' in the 'Reports Under Development' table.

Once the facility Certifier is ready to resubmit the report, click the 'Next: Sign and Submit' button to begin the signing process (Exhibit 6). A 'Resubmission Warning' message displays, reminding the Certifier that this report is a resubmission and prompting for comments describing the reason for the resubmission (Exhibit 7).

Note: Once the revised report is submitted, the previously submitted reports are marked with a 'Resubmitted' status and are replaced by the updated submission.

Resubmission Warning

The report(s) you are about to submit contains at least one resubmission of a previously submitted report. Once submitted the previously submitted reports will be marked as Resubmitted and be replaced by the updated submissions in CEDRI History and WebFIRE. Include comments below to indicate the reason you are performing this action. *

Unable to Revise a Report?

Industry users may not be able to revise a report if the version template for that report has undergone a “major” change. This would mean that the report template is no longer active.

For example- If the EPA has updated the .xlsx version from v2.01 to v3.00, the “Revise and Resubmit” button will not be available in the Report Details section.

In the event that a report version has undergone a major update, and the user must update the report, the report status would have to be updated to “Withdrawn” by the facility Certifier. (See the Withdrawing a Report Job Aide) The most recent report template would then need to be downloaded then populated with the appropriate data before resubmission. (See the Preparing and Submitting Periodic Reports Job Aide)
