THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE AND TRIBAL ENGAGEMENT

Nathan Voegeli California Department of Fish and Wildlife Attorney and Tribal Liaison nathan.voegeli@wildlife.ca.gov tribal.liaison@wildlife.ca.gov 916-698-6916

April 28, 2021 Environmental Protection Agency Region 9 RTOC Virtual Meeting Spring 2021

Introduction

- Introduction
- Department Overview
- Tribal Communication and Consultation Policy
- Opportunities for Engagement
- Fish and Game Commission Tribal Committee

Tribal Communication and Consultation Policy

- Available on Department's Tribal Affairs webpage
- Provides process for communicating with tribes and engaging in consultation
 - Establishes Tribal Liaison role
 - Provide information to Tribes
 - Seek information and input from Tribes
 - Collaborate and consult with Tribes
- Process complements and is in addition to AB 52 consultation under the California Environmental Quality Act
- Available for download here

Opportunities for Engagement – Department Lands

- Statement of Administration Policy, Native American Ancestral Lands
- Department holds title to 698,111 acres across California
- Manage or administer an additional 484,041 acres
- Map of Department lands accessible through our interactive Lands Viewer
- Wildlife Areas and Ecological Reserves
 - Wildlife areas are for the primary purpose of conservation, restoration, and management of wildlife habitat and hunting
 - Ecological reserves primarily are for the protection of rare, threatened, endangered plants and wildlife
 - Information on specific areas is accessible through the Department's Lands webpage

Opportunities for Engagement – Grant Funds

- Department administers numerous grant funds for species conservation and watershed restoration
- Proposition 1 Watershed Restoration Grant Program made available up to $40 million in funds for the most recent solicitation
- Information available on the Department's Grant Opportunities webpage

Opportunities for Engagement – Species

- Willingness to engage in discussions regarding species management
- Memorandum of understanding as a way to develop active relationship between the Department and a Tribe
- Focus on a specific species can facilitate development of a memorandum of understanding

Fish and Game Commission and the Tribal Committee

 Tribal Committee agenda and meeting information posted on the Fish and Game Commission website

• Co-management Vision Statement

The vision of tribes, the California Fish and Game Commission, and the California Department of Fish and Wildlife is to engage in a collaborative effort between sovereigns to jointly achieve and implement mutually agreed upon and compatible governance and management objectives to ensure the health and sustainable use of fish and wildlife.

• Co-management Definition

A collaborative effort established through an agreement in which two or more sovereigns mutually negotiate, define, and allocate amongst themselves the sharing of management functions and responsibilities for a given territory, area or set of natural resources.

Questions and Comments

Nathan Voegeli California Department of Fish and Wildlife Attorney and Tribal Liaison nathan.voegeli@wildlife.ca.gov tribal.liaison@wildlife.ca.gov 916-698-6916