

PROCEDURE FOR RESEARCH VOLUNTEER
REIMBURSEMENT

Your participation in this human research study is appreciated and is necessary for the future of environmental research. MPF Federal is responsible for giving EPA volunteers reimbursement for their time and travel while participating in studies.

A copy of the informed consent, which was given to you at your first visit, indicates the amount, which you will receive upon completion of the research studies.

The standard processes by which MPF Federal reimburse their volunteers is the following:

Check: You will be issued a check in the amount specified for each completed visit based upon your desired frequency of the payments. (see below)

Disclosure: If your check is lost or stolen, or marked void after 90 days, “stop payment” will be applied to that check and a new check will be issued to you. However, the process to re-issue another check could take up to 1 week. Please store your check in a safe place until cashed or deposited.

Frequency of payments:

- Receive payments after the completion of each study visit.
- Receive one payment of the entire compensation amount at your final study visit.

We appreciate your participation in this research study.
