

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION IN ACTION

Exploring Environmental Mentoring

Mentoring relationships can have many positive benefits to both mentor and mentee. Join this conversation about how mentoring may enhance your environmental education work. In this webinar, participants will hear about the best practices (and challenges) from the EnvironMentors program, as well as tips for those interested in offering mentoring at their school, organization, or institution.

Pre-registration required for webinars

Valerie Derouen, EnvironMentors Chapter Coordinator, LSU

Valerie serves as one of the chapter coordinators for the EnvironMentors program at Louisiana State University (LSU). Currently, she is a master's student at LSU, where her research focuses on the systematics of batfishes around the world. She is very interested in public outreach and is an active volunteer at the Baton Rouge Zoo. Valerie has a goal to pursue a career in informal science education.

Jessica Soule, EnvironMentors National Program Director, Washington, DC

Jessica is currently the Director of the EnvironMentors Program, coordinating EnvironMentors' network of 13 chapters across the country. In this role she is responsible for supporting chapters as they implement the program in their community. The national office also organizes the EnvironMentors National Fair & Awards Ceremony for students each spring in Washington, DC.

Date: Wednesday, August 21, 2013

Time: 4 pm - 5:15 pm Eastern Time

Participant Dial-In Number(s):

Operator Assisted Toll-Free Dial-In Number: (866) 528-5873

Conference ID # 24338234

Webinar registration information:

<https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/436460561>

