Purpose: The information collected may be used in processing, investigating, and maintaining records relevant to suspension and debarment case actions. Records in this system will be used to ensure that Federal contracts and Federal assistance, loans, and benefits are awarded to responsible business entities and individuals.

Routine Uses: The information may be disclosed to governmentwide databases – the System for Award Management and the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System; individual respondents and related respondents; coordinating federal agencies; and federal, state, or local agencies, financial institutions or other entities seeking to verify an individual’s eligibility for engaging in federal procurement or covered transactions. For a complete description of the routine uses, please consult the Federal Register notice for the Case Application for Debarment and Suspension system of records, published at 86 Fed. Reg. 30040 (June 4, 2021), also found at <https://www.regulations.gov/document/EPA-HQ-OMS-2020-0281-0001>.

Mandatory or voluntary disclosure and the effects on the individual of not providing information: Providing information to the Office of Mission Support is voluntary. However, if you decide not to provide any information, the Office of Mission Support will base its decisions solely on existing information in the record.
