| Disposition Instructions         | Disposition instructions identify whether records are disposable or permanent, and provide direction for when to close the records, how long to retain them, and their final disposition (destroy, transfer). Disposition instructions may be divided into two or more "Items" if retention needs vary. | Item a. Historically significant public affairs records
Permanent
Close upon issuance or publication, or when superseded or inactive. Transfer electronic records to the National Archives 5 years after file closure. Transfer non-electronic records to the National Archives 15 years after file closure.
Item b. Routine public affairs records
Disposable
Close at end of activity or calendar year. Destroy 5 years after file closure. |
| Disposition Instructions for Electronic Information Systems | Electronic information systems may have separate disposition instructions for each component (e.g., software program, input, output, electronic data, documentation) of the system. If these items are not included in the disposition instructions, check the guidance section for additional information. | Item a: Electronic data
Permanent
Transfer data annually to the National Archives as specified in 36 CFR 1228.270 or standards applicable at the time. |
| Guidance                         | Information that will assist in applying the schedule (e.g., alternate names of files, records that are excepted from coverage, related schedules). | Historically significant records –
Includes records that meet one or more of the following criteria:
established a precedent and resulted in a change in law, policy or procedure... |
| Reasons for Disposition          | This field tells NARA why EPA is recommending the disposition or the changes to a previously approved disposition. Why the records need to be kept, their value to the Agency, or other pertinent information is entered here. This | Records are required for enforcement and cost recovery support as mandated by statute and regulation. |

EPA Records Schedule 0002

Status: Final, 04/30/2014

Title: Emissions Inventory System (EIS)

Program: Air

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-01-3

Description:

The Emissions Inventory System (EIS) collects, stores, and distributes the National Emissions Inventory (NEI). It includes facility inventory data and criteria air pollutant and hazardous air pollutant emissions for point, nonpoint, mobile and event sources. The NEI is used for periodic assessment of emission trends, and is used for air quality modeling purposes. State, Local and Tribal emission inventories form the basis for the NEI, which also includes emissions data gathered from other sources. The public has access to emissions inventory data through a public Web site.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Air and Radiation, Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-01-3c

- Permanent
  - Transfer data annually to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: (Reserved)
Item e: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Air Quality System (AQS) is scheduled as EPA 0496.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012 item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012 item a.

Reasons for Disposition:
The following changes were made in the 04/30/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated guidance and contact information.

The following changes were made in the 12/31/2008 version:

- Revised the title and description of the schedule.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2008 version:

- Updated the name of the program office in disposition items a, c and e.
- Updated contact information.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item b.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Changed the disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised wording in disposition instructions for item d.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

On September 30, 2000, the AIRS Facility Subsystem (AFS) emissions inventory component was phased out and the NEI database serves as the single repository of emissions inventory data. Under N1-412-99-8, the National Archives approved emissions data from AFS as permanent. Replaces National Emissions Trends (NET) and National Toxics Inventory (NTI) databases.

Item f for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted 08/14/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

Title: Electronic Forms Systems

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 404 - Technology Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-02-7

Description:

Electronic forms systems provide users with the capability to electronically create, route, track, and process a multitude of Agency-specific forms, as well as Government-wide standard forms. Includes WebForms and the external forms database. WebForms is designed to automate the core administrative functions of EPA. The external forms database is used to classify and track all external use forms to meet program and regulatory needs.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c(1)(a): Electronic blank forms

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-7c(1)(a)

- Disposable
- Delete when superseded or obsolete.

Item c(1)(b): Electronic completed forms

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-7c(1)(b)

- Disposable
- Delete after record copy captured in a recordkeeping system.

Item c(2): Forms database
NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-7c(2)

- Disposable
- Delete 6 months after completion of action.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Forms systems do not qualify as electronic recordkeeping systems. The record copy of forms must be printed and filed in the appropriate paper file or captured in EPA’s electronic recordkeeping system (ECMS) after the last action is completed. Exception: The electronic leave forms submitted for approval via WebForms or similar electronic forms systems do not need to be printed or captured in EPA’s electronic recordkeeping system (ECMS) and can be maintained electronically in the forms system according to the disposition instructions for schedule 1006, item b, with the exception of "mass approvals" which must be printed and filed or captured in the electronic recordkeeping system.

Forms development files are covered by schedule 1006, item b.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition, and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012 item e.
Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012 item e.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Revised guidance.

Title: Nonrecords

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 0 - Nonrecord Materials

NARA Disposal Authority:
- Not applicable

Description:

Consists of nonrecord copies. Nonrecord materials are those Agency-owned informational materials that do not meet the statutory definition of records in 44 U.S.C. Section 3301 or that have been excluded from coverage by that definition.

Technical Reference Materials. Technical or general reference files which are maintained by individuals or program offices to enable the person or program office to perform its mission and which are kept only for reference. Collections may be on general environmental research topics or issues, the program mission, or management and administrative questions. Files or collections may consist of items such as technical publications, manuals, extra copies of issue papers, reports and studies originated by or for the program, information copies of studies and reports produced by other programs, journal articles, books, video tapes, photographs, vendor catalogs, electronic files, and other materials regardless of medium.

News Clippings. Clippings of news stories, which have no documentary or evidential value, from newspapers and other publications.

Convenience Copies. Extra copies of documents preserved only for convenience of reference. Includes information copies of correspondence, directives, and other documents on which no administrative or mission-related action is recorded or taken. Also includes copies other than the record copy where there is no recordkeeping requirement for multiple record copies.

Stocks of Forms, Publications, and Processed Documents. Extra copies of printed or processed materials for which complete record sets exist (such as current and superseded manuals, brochures, pamphlets, handbooks, posters, and maps) maintained inside or outside the office responsible for maintaining the record set.
Materials Not Appropriate for Preservation. Catalogs, trade journals, and other publications or documentary materials that are received from other government agencies, commercial firms, private institutions, or individuals and that require no action, are not part of a case on which action is taken, and are not essential to the business of the Agency or to the Agency's legal responsibilities.

Library or Museum Materials. Library or museum materials intended solely for reference or exhibit. Includes physical exhibits, artifacts, and other material objects lacking evidential value.

Working Papers and Drafts. Documents such as rough notes, calculations, or preliminary drafts which are assembled or created and used to prepare or analyze other documents and which meet all of the following criteria: (1) They were not circulated or made available to employees, other than the creator, for official purposes such as approval, comment, action, recommendation, follow up, or to communicate with Agency staff about Agency business; (2) They do not contain unique information, such as substantive annotations or comments included therein, that adds to a proper understanding of the Agency's formulation and execution of basic policies, decisions, actions, or responsibilities; (3) They are not needed for purposes of adequate and proper documentation of the decisionmaking process; and, (4) They are not described elsewhere under an Agency-wide or EPA organization-specific requirement to retain the documents for a specific period of time.

Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives. Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives and maintained by the submitting office until they are notified by NARA that the transfer is successful.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Nonrecord copy

- Disposable
- Close when obsolete, superseded or no longer needed for reference.
- Destroy immediately after file closure.

Guidance:

Determining record value - Consideration should be given to determining the record value of materials such as working papers, drafts, and notes which document an activity up to the point in time when those materials are created. Until a subsequent activity occurs which causes them to become superseded or obsolete, the materials could warrant record status and be appropriate for preservation. Designating materials as nonrecords in anticipation of their being superseded or obsolete, rather than at the point when they are actually superseded or obsolete, can be premature in some instances. When it is difficult to decide whether certain materials are records or nonrecords, they should be treated as records.

Records collected from abandoned sites (e.g., bankrupt companies, abandoned offices) by EPA as part of site investigations or other activities that are not necessary for the conduct of Agency business and which have no informational value will be considered nonrecords. If regulated entities submit material, either accidentally or intentionally, that is not necessary for the conduct of Agency business, it will also be considered nonrecord material.

Access restrictions - Nonrecord materials should not contain any security classified or administratively controlled information.

Removal of nonrecords from the Agency - Nonrecord materials should not be removed from the Agency except with the Agency's approval.

Short-term documentary materials - Nonrecords, along with personal papers, and short-term records, comprise a broad category of materials that are not needed as part of the long-term documentation of Agency activities. Personal Papers are covered by EPA 0999. Examples of short-term records include transitory files such as suspense files and mailing list source records covered by schedule 1006, item d.

Convenience copies of records should be destroyed when the records are destroyed, or sooner if no longer needed for reference purposes.

Schedule change history - A number of program-specific reference files formerly listed individually have been incorporated into this general Agency-wide item. See Previous NARA Disposal Authority below for a list of superseded schedules. This schedule incorporates and replaces EPA 0733 - News Clippings. Copies of news clippings which have documentary or evidential value may be incorporated into other records series (e.g., Superfund site files), and are to be disposed of in accordance with the disposition instructions for the related series.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 07/31/2015 version:

- Added information about copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives to the Description.

The following change was made in the 02/28/2014 version:

- Updated cross references in guidance.

The following change was made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Revised guidance to include records: (1) collected from abandoned sites and (2) submitted by regulated entities that are not necessary for the conduct of Agency business.

Nonrecord materials are identified in 44 U.S.C. Section 3301 and 36 CFR Section 1220.14. NARA guidance says: "Nonrecord materials should be destroyed when no longer needed for reference." NARA determined copies of news clippings are nonrecord materials as part of N1-412-96-2.

Status: Final, 04/30/2015

Title: Integrated Grants Management System (IGMS)

Program: Grants

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 205 - Federal Financial Assistance

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-07-33

Description:

The Integrated Grants Management System (IGMS) is an electronic system that automates grant and interagency processes. IGMS collects grant and fellowship application information, information supporting the decision to fund the grant or fellowship, commitment notice information, grant and fellowship award information, and grant reports. EPA collects the information in order to award grant funds or fellowships to applicants to accomplish research, develop or deliver training, or conduct other activities that will protect or improve public health or the environment. Grants and fellowships are awarded to state, local, tribal, educational, and nonprofit partners.

The following types of information are contained in the system: acquisition/assistance (e.g., funding vehicle, business partner); financial (e.g., obligation and commitments, funds management, program information; planning and performance information); and human assets (e.g., business and contact information).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Superfund site-specific grants and other program support agreements are scheduled as EPA 0001; waste water construction and state revolving fund grants as EPA 0232; and all other grants as EPA 0003. The Grants Information and Control System (GICS) is scheduled as EPA 0575.

Digital signatures are maintained for the same retention period as the related electronic data.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition, and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of input and reports, formerly item f, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later date.

System documentation - Supporting or system documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item g, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2015 version:

- Deleted items a, b, f and g which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated guidance and contact information.

The following change was made in the 11/07/2006 version:

- Renumbered items e-h as d-g.

The following changes were made in the 09/07/2006 version:

- Deleted item d for electronic data and supporting documentation for Tribal records.

IGMS provides an all-electronic process for grants from development of the grant guidance through the award and closeout. The system replaces the Grants Information and Control System (GICS), with the exception of the Office of Water's construction grants data. GICS was previously appraised as N1-412-00-4. The system provides information to grant applicants, grantees, and the public. The proposed retention meets all audit and litigation documentation needs.

Title: Integrated Compliance Information System (ICIS)

Program: Enforcement and Compliance Assurance

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-05-5

Description:

The Integrated Compliance Information System (ICIS) is the core information management system supporting the enforcement and compliance operations of the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance (OECA). In addition, ICIS has replaced several older legacy programmatic systems, including the Permit Compliance System (PCS) which supported the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) program, and the Air Facility System (AFS) which supported the Clean Air Act (CAA) Stationary Source program. ICIS is used for tracking federal enforcement and compliance, CAA, and NPDES activities performed by the EPA headquarters, regional offices, states, and local agency offices. Selected information in ICIS is made available to the public through the Enforcement and Compliance History Online (ECHO) system. It also includes information on Tribal lands where enforcement activities may occur.

Data in the system includes detailed facility information and compliance activities such as compliance monitoring, compliance determination, deficiencies, incident descriptions, and enforcement descriptions. Incident descriptions include required notifications and citizen tips or complaints, enforcement actions, and reports. Enforcement descriptions include case initiations, settlement information, benefits, and follow-up activities resulting from the enforcement action. Additional information for the NPDES program includes: Permit data, Effluent Limits, and Discharge Monitoring Report (DMR) data. Additional information for the CAA program includes: Stack Tests, Title V Annual Compliance Certifications, Compliance Monitoring Strategy, and Alleged Violation Files. The NPDES and CAA information is entered by state and local agencies as well as by EPA. Data is entered by EPA headquarters and regional office attorneys and engineers from paper legal documents, the Case Conclusion Data Sheets, and inspection reports. Much of the information from state and local agencies is submitted electronically from external systems using standardized formats via the Exchange Network and EPA's Central Data Exchange (CDX). ICIS also includes extensive reporting capabilities to
Some regulated entities submit electronic data to ICIS via the EPA CDX on an as-needed basis according to their permit requirements.

Certain data within ICIS are made available to other EPA systems, including the Facility Registry System (FRS) and ECHO, which are scheduled separately.

(CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012 item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012 item a.

Site-specific enforcement actions are covered by schedule 1036; and the remainder of enforcement and compliance actions are covered by schedule 1044. CDX is covered by schedule 0097.

ICIS has replaced the Enforcement Docket System covered by schedule 0089, the Permit Compliance System (PCS), previously scheduled as 0419, and the Air Facility System (AFS) previously scheduled as 0743. It also replaces the enforcement and compliance components in the following systems:

- Schedule 0257 - National RCRA Information System (RCRAInfo) (Replaced schedule 252 - Resource Conservation and Recovery Information System (RCRIS))
- Schedule 0413 - SDWIS/Operational Data System (SDWIS/ODS) (Formerly the Safe Drinking Water Information System (SDWIS))
- Schedule 0496 - Air Quality System (AQS) (Formerly the Aerometric Information Retrieval System (AIRS))

FRS is covered by schedule 0096.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2015 version:

- Revised description and guidance.
• Updated contact information.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2015 version:

• Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.

- See disposition instructions for EPA 032 - Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Appeals Files.

Item b: Official file copy of requested records

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 14/11b

- Disposable
- Dispose of in accordance with the approved Agency disposition instructions for the related records, or with the related FOIA request, whichever is later.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

FOIA Control Files are scheduled as EPA 0033 and the FOIA Administrative Files and Reports as EPA 0031. Headquarters and Regional Program offices (also called action offices) are responsible for maintaining the records covered in this schedule.

See EPA 0309 for public inquiries that are not formal FOIA requests, EPA 0263 for the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Tracking System, and EPA 0029 for FOIA Annual Reports.

See EPA 1550 - Freedom of Information Act Manual for additional information on the Agency's FOIA policies and procedures.

Reasons for Disposition:

Retention conforms to the NARA General Records Schedule 14, item 11.

Title: Clean Air Markets Division Business System (CAMDBS)

Program: Air

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-05-8

Description:

The Clean Air Markets Division Business System (CAMDBS) is a set of interrelated systems operating against a single integrated database in the market-based emissions trading program, i.e., the Acid Rain Program and the SIP Call/126 program for ozone transport. It allows regulated entities to perform various reporting tasks directly online. CAMDBS streamlines certain business functions which were previously distributed redundantly in a variety of legacy systems. One of the main subsystems of CAMDBS is the Source Management System (SMS) which consolidates the numerous separate systems into a single inventory of related information. Other subsystems include: Allowance Management System (AMS); Emissions Collection and Monitoring Plan System (ECMPS), Compliance and Permit Tracking System (CPTS), and CAMD System Administration (CSA).

CAMDBS replaces the following paper forms: allowance transfer form, submission of forms identifying responsible parties, annual compliance forms, retired unit exemption forms and new unit exemption forms. It also replaces the following legacy systems: the Allowance Tracking System (ATS), the Emissions Tracking System (ETS), and the NOx Allowance Tracking System (NATS).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data - source management data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-8c
- Permanent
  - Transfer to the National Archives annually, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: Electronic data - allowance tracking data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-8d

- Disposable
  - At the end of each major version change, transfer current data sets to tape, along with tape specifications and send to NTSD. Delete 20 years after transfer.

Item e: Electronic data - emissions tracking data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-8e

- Permanent
  - Transfer to the National Archives annually, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item f: (Reserved)

Item g: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.
The Allowance Tracking System has been expanded to include nitrogen oxides (NOx) allowances issued under the NOx Budget Program, and for that program's use, it is called the NOx Allowance Tracking System (NATS).

Once a year, ETS summarized emissions data is transferred to the Emissions Inventory System (EIS) which is scheduled as EPA 0002.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require the electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input for the system, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item f, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, formerly item g, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item a for permanent data and item e for disposable data.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2015 version:

- Updated cross references in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 01/31/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, f, and g which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated guidance and contact information.

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2009 version:

- Revised wording of disposition instructions for items a, f and g.
- Revised title of disposition item g.

CAMDBS migrates two major legacy systems, the Allowance Tracking System (ATS) (N1-412-99-10/1) and the Emissions Tracking System (ETS) (N1-412-99-10/2) to a new, more open architecture permitting total electronic reporting. The retentions for the data in those two systems remain as previously approved.

Title: Purchase Card System

Program: Procurement

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 405 - Supply Chain Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-06-20

Description:

The Purchase Card system is a relational database which serves as a central database for tracking purchases. The system expedites the acquisition of essential supplies and services and streamlines payment procedures. Input to the system is electronic data from the contractor bank or the EPA Intranet Purchase Card Cost Allocation System. Types of data includes accounting data associated with each purchase, payment processing, and obligation of funds. The system generates a variety of management reports.

The system links with the Integrated Financial Management System (IFMS) which is scheduled as EPA 0054.

Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Cardholder recordkeeping requirements can be found in the EPA Contracts Management Manual, Section 13.3.

Purchase card records are covered by the Privacy Act System #GSA/GOVT-6.

Accountable Officers' Files are scheduled as EPA 0278. Cost recovery records for Superfund and Oil are covered by EPA 0024 and the Superfund Cost Recovery Package Imaging and On-Line System (SCORPIOS) is covered by EPA 0052.

Reasons for Disposition:

This is the primary system used to track simplified acquisitions and provides management with reports and an audit trail. The 30-year retention for Superfund site-specific data is consistent with other records related to cost recovery. The 10-year retention for other data is based on the recommendation of the Office of Inspector General to accommodate any potential civil false claims actions filed under 31 USC 3731.

Title: System for Risk Management Plans (SRMP)

Program: Emergency Prevention, Preparedness and Response

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-05-2

Description:

The System for Risk Management Plans (SRMP) is a suite of electronic systems containing information relating to risk management plans submitted by facilities in accordance with the Clean Air Act, Section 112(r). Affected facilities are to develop risk management programs which will prevent and minimize consequences of accidental releases of certain hazardous chemicals that could harm public health and the environment.

Facilities submit risk management plans (RMPs) every five years, or more frequently per 40 CFR Part 68. RMPs consist of the submitter’s registration; an executive summary providing a description of the submitter's activities as they relate to covered processes and program elements; graphics files that supplement required textual information; and data elements that address compliance with each of the rule elements.

RMPs are received at EPA's reporting center and additional, processing-related data are added to each. Parts of the RMPs are then made available via a public access system on the Internet. (After September 11, 2001, the site is temporarily unavailable; portions of RMPs are available to the public on request.) Complete RMPs are also available through a system for implementing agencies and other public local, federal and state officials, as required by the Chemical Safety Information, Site Security, and Fuels Regulatory Relief Act (CSISSFRA) and its rule.

The SRMP is comprised of the following components: RMP*Submit enables facilities to input their RMPs and output them in a common, standard, non-proprietary format.

RC*Submit is used by the reporting center for entering RMPs that are submitted in paper format.

RMP*Process enables the reporting center to capture the RMPs (electronic and paper); check for completeness; store plans, graphics and reports prior to uploading to a database; add additional data (including a Facility ID); and print reports.
RMP*Maintain stores the RMPs, graphics, error reports, and selected tracking information and allow for the preparation of notification letters.

RMP*Info provides access by EPA and the public to non-sensitive RMP data, including the processing data added at the reporting center. As noted above, this system is temporarily unavailable on the Internet for security reasons.

RMP*Review enables covered persons to analyze complete RMPs including the processing data added at the reporting center and audit and user-defined-field data that they enter. Non-covered persons can use RMP*Review with the sensitive data omitted.

The RMPs as originally submitted to EPA, and records for carrying out the RMP program by the implementing agencies are scheduled separately.

Output and reports from the System are used by EPA, other federal agencies, states and local government officials, including emergency personnel; industry; academia; the media; and the public. EPA uses the data for risk assessment, compliance, emergency response, analysis of national trends in accident prevention and chemical process safety, vulnerability analysis, and related activities. Other federal agencies, as well as state and local governments, have turned to the data base for counterterrorism analysis and other activities.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2a

- Disposable
- Delete when superseded or obsolete.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2b

- Disposable
- Delete when data have been entered into the SRMP and verified.

Item c: Electronic data (RMP*Maintain) Executive Summary

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2c

- Permanent
- Close file every 15 years on June 20th, starting in 2014.
- Transfer the data to the National Archives after file closure, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.
Item d: (RMP*Maintain) Data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2d

- Permanent
- Close file every 15 years on June 20th, starting in 2014.
- Transfer data to the National Archives after file closure, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item e: (RMP*Maintain) Graphics

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2e

- Disposable
- Close file every 15 years on June 20th, starting in 2014.
- Delete after file closure.

Item f: (RMP*Review) Audit and User-Defined Data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2f

- Disposable
- Close file annually.
- Delete 7 years after file closure.

Item g: All other data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2g

- Disposable
- Close file when superseded.
- Delete after file closure.

Item h: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Disposable
- File with related records. Follow instructions for related records or EPA 0175 - Print Files, whichever has the longer retention.

Item i: System documentation

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-2i

- Permanent
• Close file every 15 years on June 20th, starting in 2014.
• Transfer those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. This documentation is transferred along with the transfer of the electronic data (subitems c and d).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII), offsite consequence analysis (OCA)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

OSWER headquarters, through the reporting center, is responsible for the original, submitted RMPs and data in the central system (RC*Submit, RMP*Process, RMP*Maintain, RMP*Info) as well as the record copy of all software and software documentation, but the implementing agencies will manage the records they use for implementing the program, etc. The original RMPs, and the RMP implementation-related records managed by the implementing agencies are all covered by EPA 0044. By default, regions are the RMP implementing agencies.

States can choose to take delegation of this program, and if so, they become the implementing agency. If the state is the implementing agency, they are responsible for the program records. Records related to EPA oversight of the state program are covered in EPA 0203.

Data that has been transferred to NARA may be deleted annually at the end of the fiscal year, so that only the most recent 15 years of data are retained.

RMP software, software documentation, and lookup files, etc., delivered to EPA as a deliverable are also covered by EPA 0258, item b. Although they do not have to kept under this schedule, they do need to be kept temporarily as directed by EPA 0258b.

Reasons for Disposition:
The following change was made in the 01/31/2014 version:

- Revised function code.

The following change was made in the 11/30/2009 version:

- Revised title of disposition item i.

SRMP is a vehicle for facilities to submit RMPs to the implementing agency and also serves as a national repository of data on hazard assessments. Data will be available to the public through the EnviroFacts system (EPA 0098) on the EPA Internet site. The system is temporarily unavailable on the Internet for security reasons; however, the data are available on request. The system also supports EPA's regulatory and enforcement activities.

In 1997, a work group representing the RMP program's various stakeholders determined that the system should maintain RMPs on-line for 15 years. June 20th is the anniversary date for the first submission of RMPs in 1999.

Title: Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Files Related to Employee Relations

Program: Personnel

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 403 - Human Resources Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- General Records Schedule 1/27

Description:

Consists of alternative dispute resolution files related to workplace grievances and discrimination complaints. Alternative dispute resolution (ADR) is any procedure, conducted by a neutral third party, that is used to resolve issues in controversy, including, but not limited to, conciliation, facilitation, mediation, fact finding, minitrials, arbitration and use of ombuds. The records covered by this schedule relate to techniques and processes used in EPA's ADR program in resolving disputes with or between its own employees.

Includes general files containing general correspondence and copies of statutes, regulations, meeting minutes, reports, statistical tabulations, evaluations of the ADR program, and other records relating to EPA's overall ADR program.

Also includes case files documenting ADR proceedings. These files may include an agreement to use ADR, documentation of the settlement or discontinuance of the ADR case, parties' written evaluations of the process and/or the neutral third party mediator, and related correspondence.

Excludes: 1) Administrative grievance files, adverse action files; 2) Formal and informal equal employment opportunity proceedings, traditional EEO counseling or other records included in the EEO file when a person chooses to go directly to ADR, or private party claims or EEOC's involvement with federal sector claims of non-EEOC employees against other federal agencies; and 3) Use of ADR in matters affecting public health and the environment which are scheduled separately.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: General files

Title: Superfund Cost Recovery Package Imaging and On-Line System (SCORPIOS)

Program: Superfund

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 402 - Financial Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- DAA-GRS-2013-0003-0001

Description:

SCORPIOS (Superfund Cost Recovery Package Imaging and On-Line System) was formerly known as STARS (Superfund Transaction Automated Retrieval System) and SCRIPS (Superfund Cost Recovery Image Processing System). Through the use of image processing technology, SCORPIOS facilitates the storage and retrieval of all site-specific Superfund cost documentation. Input records include timesheets, travel vouchers, miscellaneous expenditures, contract invoices, IAG payments, and other supporting cost documentation. This application is used to generate the financial documentation for the cost recovery package.

SCORPIOS captures financial documentation images at Regional and field sites (i.e., Washington, Cincinnati, RTP) throughout the country. Initially, all those images were stored centrally at EPA's National Computer Center (NCC) data processing facility. The system has been decentralized into each of the Regions.

NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition, and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Related records - Superfund site-specific records are covered by schedule 1036.
Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2014 version:

- Updated NARA disposal authority.
- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated disposition instructions.
- Revised guidance.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2010 version:

- Removed statement that items a, c and e were to be used only by the headquarters OCFO because there are older versions in the regional offices.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

Item c conforms to GRS 6, item 1 per NARA's appraisal, as part of N1-412-94-3. Items a and e conform to GRS 20, items 10 and 11, respectively.

Program: Federal Activities

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-94-2/9

Description:

The Environmental Review Tracking System is a central data repository for Environmental Impact Statements (EIS) prepared pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act. The system data, initially extracted from the EIS, tracks such information as the title of the EIS, date filed, and date review comments are due back to the Agency. The Council on Environmental Quality requires the Agency to maintain the system and publish weekly a notice of available EIS's in the Federal Register. Under Section 309 of the Clean Air Act, EPA is required to review all EIS's and other designated Federal actions and to publish in the Federal Register any project determined to be environmentally unsatisfactory. The system is a relatively simple data entry and retrieval application.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Office of Federal Activities, NEPA Compliance Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-2/9a

- Disposable
- Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2
- Varies
- Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Office of Federal Activities, NEPA Compliance Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-2/9c

- Disposable
- Close at end of fiscal year.
- Delete 3 years after file closure.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
- File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Office of Federal Activities, NEPA Compliance Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/11a(1)

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for EPA 0304, item a(1).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].
Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) preparation files are scheduled as EPA 0134 and 309 review and comments files as EPA 0135.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item b.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Changed disposition instructions for items a, b, c and e.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Changed title and disposition instructions of item e.
- Updated contact information.

Records used to track high-level information regarding permanent EIS records are scheduled separately.

Title: Continuous Release Emergency Response Notification System (CR-ERNS)

Program: Superfund

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-94-3/11

Description:

CR-ERNS is an information system that serves as the central depository for all continuous release information received by the EPA Regions. The national data base is housed at the Transportation Systems Center (TSC) in Cambridge, Massachusetts. CR-ERNS is currently installed in all ten EPA Regions. The system is specifically designed to help EPA Regional personnel manage continuous release information and establish priorities with respect to the review and evaluation of continuous release reports. The kinds of information collected include the source of the continuous release, the environmental medium affected, certain ecological and population density information, and a brief statement describing the basis for asserting that the release is continuous and stable in quantity and rate.

A key feature contained in each Regional system is a screening level risk assessment model, called the Priority Assessment Model (PAM). PAM assists Regional personnel in the evaluation of the long-term (i.e., chronic) threat posed by a continuous release. CR-ERNS supports the Emergency Response Program.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: CR-ERNS electronic software program

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-3/11a

- Disposable
- Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input
NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-54/5a

- Varies
  - Follow instructions for EPA 0091 - CERCLA 103 Notifications.

Item c: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-3/11c

- Permanent
  - Transfer data to the National Archives in 1996, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Thereafter, transfer each major version change the year when the version is superseded or discontinued.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-3/11e

- Permanent
  - Transfer to the National Archives in 1996 as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

CR-ERNS is under the control of the Office of Emergency and Remedial Response (OERR) in the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response (OSWER). OSWER/OERR staff are directly responsible for implementing the disposition according to series items a, c, and e.

All paper copies of initial input records, under item b, held or produced in EPA Regional Hazardous Waste Management offices should be dispositioned according to the instructions for EPA 0091 - CERCLA 103 Notifications. These Regional offices are also responsible for the disposition of all input and output systems according to the instructions in items b and d. All ad hoc output records held or produced in all appropriate offices should be handled according to disposition instructions outlined in series item d or, where appropriate, EPA 0175 - Print Files.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 01/31/2014 version:

- Revised the function code.

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2009 version:

- Revised wording of disposition instructions for items a and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

Records must be kept to support litigation and regulatory activities. Hard copies of input records must be kept for the narrative element as well as certification purposes.

Title: Laboratory Information Management Systems (LIMS)

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 316 - Applied Research and Science Support

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-09-7

Description:

Includes laboratory information management systems used in EPA laboratories to receive, store and report data generated from laboratory analysis of environmental samples using scientific instruments. Data elements may include sample data, who took the sample and where, contents of the sample and what was asked to be analyzed, who analyzed the sample and when. Data is used to support EPA's environmental programs and often transferred to electronic information systems such as RadNet or similar systems.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-7c

- Disposable
  - Delete when 3 years old or when no longer needed for the related project or activity, whichever is longer.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Guidance:
Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Sampling data incorporated into other files (e.g., Superfund site files) or transferred to other databases (e.g., RadNet) are retained according to the disposition instructions for the records they support.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition, which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012 item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data.Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012 item e.

This schedule includes, but is not limited to, the following systems listed by headquarters program or regional office:
Office of Air and Radiation

- Laboratory Data Management System (LDMS)
- Laboratory Network System (LNS)
- National Air and Radiation Environmental Lab (NAREL) Laboratory Information Management System (NAREL-LIMS)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Data Repository System (NCRFO DRS)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Environmental Radiation Ground Scanner (NCRFO ERGS)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Filter Weighing Laboratory (NCRFO FL)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Mobil ER Laboratory (NCRFO MERL)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Radon Calibration System (NCRFO RnCal)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Radon Canister System (NCRFO RCS)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Radon Laboratory System (NCRFO Radon Lab)
- National Center for Radiation Field Operations Working Levels (NCRFO WL)
- NVFEL Lab Data Management System (LDMS)
- Office of Radiation and Indoor Air (ORIA) Laboratory Information Management System (ORIA LIMS)
- Radiation and Indoor Environments APEX Alpha System (R&IE APXA)
- Radiation and Indoor Environments APEX Gamma Systems (R&IE APXG)
- Radiation and Indoor Environments Liquid Scintillation Laboratory (R&IE LSL)

Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance

- Lab Automation System (LBAU) (Sample Management System)

Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response

Electronic information systems with long-term or permanent retention such as the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability System (CERCLIS), EPA 050, are scheduled separately. Other disposable systems not requiring specific schedules have been categorized into this schedule or one of the other "generic" or "big bucket" schedules:

• EPA 0063 - Electronic Models and Expert Systems
• EPA 0089 - Information Tracking Systems
• EPA 0090 - Administrative Support Databases
• EPA 0094 - Electronic Bulletin Boards
• EPA 0096 - Data Standards and Registry Services
• EPA 0098 - Data Marts and Data Warehouses

Electronic records not requiring their own schedules or covered in one of the generic schedules above may be segments or phases of information systems covered by schedule 1012 Information and Technology Management.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2014 version:

• Deleted cross reference to schedule 0179 which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.
• Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 05/31/2014 version:

• Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
• Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 11/30/2008 version:
• Revised disposition instructions for item c to include "to support the related project or activity."
• Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

LIMS was used as a tool to track samples and generate information filed in the related project or program file. The schedule was formerly approved by NARA as N1-412-94-2/11 for the Lab Automation System (LBAU) (Sample Management System) and has been expanded to include LIMS used throughout the Agency.

Title: Electronic Models and Expert Systems

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 316 - Applied Research and Science Support

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-94-2/12

Description:

Includes a broad range of PC-based computer models and expert systems used in the evaluation, scoring, or interpretation of information or data in support of the Agency's mission. Some systems are designed for use by the public, State programs, or others outside EPA as well as EPA staff. Models allow user to enter data concerning a specific event, case, site, chemical, pesticide, or other entity, and conduct analysis or evaluation, or develop estimates. Expert systems are used to guide users through a process and assist them in reaching a decision, complete an application or other process. There are no legal requirements to create or maintain these systems.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-2/12

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)
 Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPAâ€•” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

System users should be sure to document results of analyses completely. Complete documentation may require results, input data used, search parameters, software used, or similar information to ensure a complete record suitable for litigation support, if necessary, is maintained.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require the electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input for the system is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

This schedule item includes, but is not limited to, the following systems, listed by headquarters program or regional office:

Electronic information systems with long-term or permanent retention such as schedule 0496 Air Quality System (AQS) are scheduled separately. Other disposable systems not requiring specific schedules have been categorized into this schedule or one of the other "generic" or "big bucket" schedules:

- EPA 0088 - Bibliographic and Reference Systems
- EPA 0089 - Information Tracking Systems
- EPA 0090 - Administrative Support Databases
- EPA 0094 - Electronic Bulletin Boards
- EPA 0096 - Data Standards and Registry Services
- EPA 0098 - Data Marts and Data Warehouses

Electronic records not requiring their own schedules or covered in one of the big bucket schedules above may be segments or phases of information systems covered by EPA 1012 Information and Technology Management.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 12/31/2014 version:

- Updated list of big bucket schedules in guidance.
- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2014 version:

- Deleted cross reference to schedule 0179 which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.
- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 02/28/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated cross references in guidance.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2010 version:
• Revised name of Office of Prevention, Pesticides, and Toxic Substances to Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

• Revised title of disposition item a.
• Revised disposition instructions for item b.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

• Changed the disposition instructions for items a and b.
• Revised title and disposition instructions of item e.

System documentation must be kept to support litigation, cost recovery efforts, and mission-critical decisions and is covered by item e.

EPA Records Schedule 0068

Status: Final, 12/31/2013

Title: Reasonable Accommodation Request Records

Program: Personnel

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 403 - Human Resources Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- General Records Schedule 1/24

Description:

Contains information created and maintained while receiving, coordinating, reviewing, processing, approving, and reporting requests for reasonable accommodation from federal employees and applicants under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Executive Order 13164. A reasonable accommodation is a change in the work environment or in the way things are customarily done that would enable an individual with a disability to enjoy equal employment opportunities. The three categories of reasonable accommodation are:

Modification or adjustments to a job application process to permit an individual with a disability to be considered for a job, such as providing application forms in large print or Braille;

Modifications or adjustments necessary to enable a qualified individual with a disability to perform essential functions of the job, such as providing sign language interpreters; and

Modifications or adjustments that enable employees with disabilities to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment, such as removing physical barriers in an office or cafeteria.

This includes all requests for reasonable accommodation and/or assistive technology devices and services offered through the agency or the Computer/Electronic Accommodation Program (CAP) that are made by or on behalf of applicants, current or former employees. Also includes medical records, supporting notes and documentation, as well as procedures and records related to processing, deciding, implementing, and tracking requests for reasonable accommodation(s).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: General files
Includes Agency-wide and departmental procedures for receiving, processing, and appealing requests for reasonable accommodation by employees and applicants. Files may include, but are not limited to, instructions, directives, notices, forms, timetables and guidelines for requesting, processing and approving requests and for appealing decisions for reasonable accommodation. Also includes records notifying the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the agency's collective bargaining representative(s) and the agency's EEO office of the agency's reasonable accommodation request and processing procedures as well as modifications to established procedures.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/24a

- Disposable
- Destroy 3 years after supercession or when no longer needed for reference whichever is later.

Item b: Employee case files

Includes individual employee files that are created, received, and maintained by EEO reasonable accommodation or diversity/disability program or employee relations coordinators, immediate supervisors, CAP administrator, or HR specialists containing records of requests for reasonable accommodation and/or assistive technology devices and services through the agency or CAP that have been requested for or by an employee. This series also includes, but is not limited to, request approvals and denials, notice of procedures for informal dispute resolution or appeal processes, forms, correspondence, e-mails, records of oral conversations, medical documentation, and notes.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/24b

- Disposable
- Destroy 3 years after employee separation from the agency or all appeals are concluded whichever is later.

Item c: Supplemental files

Includes records created, received, and maintained by EEO reasonable accommodation or diversity/disability program or employee relation coordinators, while advising on, implementing or appealing requests for or from an individual employee for reasonable accommodation. Some requests may involve HR matters, including but not limited to changes in duties, reassignments, leave usage, and performance issues. Files may include, but are not limited to, policy guidance, resource information about accommodation providers, forms, e-mails, notes.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/24c

- Disposable
- Destroy 3 years after end of fiscal year in which accommodation is decided or all appeals are concluded, whichever is later.
Item d: Tracking system

Includes records and data created, received, and maintained for purposes of tracking agency compliance with Executive Order 13164 and EEOC guidance.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/24d

- Disposable
- Destroy 3 years after compliance report is filed or when no longer needed for reference.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Items b and c, employee case files and supplemental files are not part of an employee's Official Personnel File (OPF) or part of a supervisor's unofficial personnel file.

Medical information, when necessary to be obtained to process a reasonable accommodation request, must be kept confidential. The EPA Order and Procedures for Reasonable Accommodation require the national reasonable accommodation coordinator (NRAC) to maintain any and all medical information obtained by the Agency in connection with reasonable accommodation requests. Although local office reasonable accommodation coordinators (LORACs) may need access to medical information in order for them to process a request for reasonable accommodation, at the conclusion of the process all medical information is transferred to the NRAC to maintain. This means if someone other than the NRAC obtains confidential information during the reasonable accommodation process, it must be transferred to the NRAC in sealed confidential envelopes. The information is maintained in separate files and kept in locked cabinets in the NRAC's office.
Reasons for Disposition:

Conforms with NARA's General Records Schedule 1, item 24.

Title: Ethics Program Implementation, Interpretation, Counseling, and Development Files

Program: Ethics

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 317 - Legal Services

NARA Disposal Authority:
- General Records Schedule 25/1

Description:

Includes records maintained by ethics program offices relating to the development, review, implementation, and interpretation of proposed or established executive branch standards of ethical conduct and other ethics regulations; conflict of interest and other ethics related statutes and Executive Orders; and any agency supplemental standards of ethical conduct and other agency ethics-related regulations and directives. Including:

Records documenting the review of proposed or established ethics-related statutes and regulations by ethics program officials, including copies of proposed legislation, comments, and all related records.

Determinations, including advice and counseling to individual employees, and supporting records.

Records relating to requests under agency supplemental standards of ethical conduct for prior approval of outside employment and activities.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Routine determinations and interpretations

Includes records such as determinations regarding attendance at widely-attended gatherings that appropriate agency ethics officials determine are related to the routine, non-precedential application of settled legal standards to common factual situations and are not interpretations of the conflict of interest statutes, 18 U.S.C. 202-209, and other ethics statutes the violation of which may result in criminal penalties or civil fines.

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Reasons for Disposition:

Conforms to NARA's General Records Schedule 25, item 7.

Item c for electronic mail and word processing system copies was deleted 08/15/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

Title: Correspondence Management System (CMS)

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 404 - Technology Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-07-37

Description:

The Correspondence Management System (CMS) is an electronic document management system that captures, stores, routes, and tracks correspondence, responses, and supporting documents. The system is available for use Agency-wide. Documents are either scanned or keyed into the system and routed through the review and approval process. The system has predefined templates for responses and can import documents from other databases. After signature, the final signed document is scanned into the system.

All data from the predecessor system, National Correspondence Tracking and Information Management System (NCTIMS), was migrated to CMS in October 2004.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of the Administrator, Office of the Executive Secretariat at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-37a

- Disposable
- Delete when no longer needed to ensure access to and use of the electronic data throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2
Varies
Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of the Administrator, Office of the Executive Secretariat at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-37c

- Disposable
  - Follow the disposition instructions in the applicable records schedule.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Disposable
  - File with related records and follow the instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of the Administrator, Office of the Executive Secretariat at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-37e

- Disposable
  - Destroy or delete upon authorized deletion of the related records or upon the destruction of the output of the system if the output is needed to protect legal rights, whichever is later.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR
1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

CMS is not a recordkeeping system. However, since it interfaces with EPA’s electronic recordkeeping system (ECMS), retention is managed via ECMS and paper copies may be destroyed after they have been placed into CMS and checked for quality. Records placed into CMS and ECMS are covered by their specific records schedules and not this schedule. For example, controlled correspondence is covered by EPA 0141, and general correspondence is covered by EPA 0127.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 01/31/2011 version:

- Updated guidance.

The following changes were made in the 09/30/2010 version:

- Revised guidance to include statement about records schedules for records placed into CMS.
- Updated contact information.

The following change was made in the 10/31/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item e.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised disposition instructions for items b and e.

CMS helps EPA meet several GPRA goals such as timely availability of information. Disposition of the data is based on the approved schedules related to the individual document created or entered into the system.

Item f for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications deleted in 11/07/2006 version pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

EPA Records Schedule 0088

Status: Final, 09/30/2015

Title: Bibliographic and Reference Systems

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 305 - Public Affairs

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-94-2/15

Description:

Includes a broad range of primarily PC-based systems used to provide ready, user friendly, access to frequently used information. Information may be drawn from other Agency databases, commercially available databases, Agency records, publicly available sources, or a combination of sources. Also includes metadata repositories.

Information is brought together to simplify access and provide specialized support for specific information needs. In no case is the system (a) required by law, (b) necessary to administer a program, or (c) necessary to document program activity. If the information in the system is used for any of the activities a - c above, an information system (automated or manual) is maintained separately to satisfy those requirements. If the system is used as a finding aid to records, it is disposable under either an Agency approved schedule or NARA's General Records Schedules (GRS).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-2/15c

- Disposable
  - Delete individual records 2 years after completion of action and when no longer needed.

Item d: (Reserved)
Item e: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

This schedule includes, but is not limited to, the following systems listed by headquarters program or regional office:

This schedule also covers metadata repositories, including locational metadata (e.g., latitude and longitude) used for geographic information systems (GIS). The systems that use the locational metadata and GIS functionality to support monitoring and assessment activities are covered by other schedules (e.g., EPA 0063).

Electronic information systems with long-term or permanent retention such as the Air Quality System (AQS) (EPA 0496) are scheduled separately. Other disposable systems not requiring specific schedules have been categorized into this schedule or one of the other "generic" or "big bucket" schedules:

- EPA 0062 - Laboratory Information Management Systems
- EPA 0063 - Electronic Models and Expert Systems
- EPA 0089 - Information Tracking Systems
- EPA 0090 - Administrative Support Databases
- EPA 0094 - Electronic Bulletin Boards
- EPA 0096 - Data Standards and Registry Services
- EPA 0098 - Data Marts and Data Warehouses

Electronic records not requiring their own schedules or covered in one of the big bucket schedules above may be segments or phases of information systems covered by schedule 1012 Information and Technology Management.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 07/31/2015 version:

- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following change was made in the 08/31/2014 version:

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2014 version:

- Deleted cross reference to schedule 0179 which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.
- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated list of systems covered in guidance.
- Updated cross references in guidance.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2010 version:
- Revised name of Office of Prevention, Pesticides, and Toxic Substances to Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised title of disposition item a.
- Revised disposition instructions for item b.
- Reorganized guidance.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Changed disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Revised title and wording of disposition instructions for item e.

EPA Records Schedule 0089

Status: Final, 10/31/2015

Title: Information Tracking Systems

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 305 - Public Affairs

NARA Disposal Authority:

- General Records Schedule 23/8

Description:

Consists of a broad range of paper and electronic systems used to track the processing of permits, applications, reports, approvals, and other actions relating to records that are disposable under NARA's General Records Schedules or an approved Agency records schedule.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Record copy

- NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 23/8

  - Disposable
  - Delete when 2 years old, or 2 years after the date of the last entry; whichever is applicable.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records Internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

For electronic tracking systems, the disposition instructions in this schedule apply to the electronic data. The disposition instructions are to be applied when the system is no longer needed to conduct Agency business.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require the electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input for the system is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the longer retention period.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

This schedule includes, but is not limited to, the following electronic systems listed by headquarters program or regional office:

Electronic information systems with long-term or permanent retention such as EPA 0496 Air Quality System (AQS) are scheduled separately. Other disposable systems not requiring specific schedules have been categorized into this schedule or one of the other "generic" or "big bucket" schedules:

• EPA 0062 - Laboratory Information Management Systems
• EPA 0063 - Electronic Models and Expert Systems
• EPA 0088 - Bibliographic and Reference Systems
- EPA 0090 - Administrative Support Databases
- EPA 0094 - Electronic Bulletin Boards
- EPA 0096 - Data Standards and Registry Services
- EPA 0098 - Data Marts and Data Warehouses

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2014 version:

- Revised guidance.
- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2014 version:

- Deleted cross reference to schedule 0179 which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.
- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2014 version:

- Updated cross references in guidance.
- Revised the list of systems covered in guidance.

The following changes were made in the 02/28/2014 version:

- Updated cross references in guidance.
- Revised list of systems covered in guidance.

The following change was made in the 05/31/2010 version:

- Revised name of Office of International Affairs to Office of International and Tribal Affairs in guidance.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2010 version:

- Revised name of Office of Prevention, Pesticides, and Toxic Substances to Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention in guidance.

Conforms to GRS 23, item 8.

Previous NARA Disposal Authority:

Entry: 09/24/1992

EPA Approval: 10/07/1993

NARA Approval: 12/00/1998
EPA Records Schedule 0090

Status: Final, 07/31/2015

Title: Administrative Support Databases

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 401 - Administrative Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- Varies

Description:

Includes a broad range of primarily PC-based systems used to support administrative or housekeeping functions, containing information derived from paper copy records or from other electronic data systems disposable under NARA's General Records Schedules or an approved Agency records schedule. Examples of these databases include budget preparation, property management, program planning, spending, accounting, activity reporting, and resource allocation.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: (Reserved)

Item d: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Disposable
- Follow the disposition instructions for the related records.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Disposition instructions for the electronic data - Follow the disposition instructions for the related records. For example, if the electronic data is related to office staffing covered by schedule 1006, item b, use the disposition instructions for 1006b for the electronic data. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the longer retention period.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the longer retention period.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

This schedule includes, but is not limited to, the following systems listed by headquarters program or regional office:

EPA Records Schedule 0094

Status: Final, 07/31/2014

Title: Electronic Bulletin Boards

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 305 - Public Affairs

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-96-1/1

Description:

Includes a broad range of systems used to provide ready, user-friendly access to frequently used information in a "public forum" format. Announcements and messages can be posted and read by any user. Information may be drawn from Agency databases, publicly available sources or a combination of sources. Also includes other types of on-line dialogue, including chat rooms, discussion forums, blogs, wikis, listservs, Lotus Notes Teamrooms and QuickPlace.

Information is brought together to simplify access and provide specialized support for specific information needs. Often used to distribute software programs, models, or text files.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

  - NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-96-1/1c
    - Disposable
    - Delete when no longer needed.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Substantive information which meets the definition of an Agency record and is disseminated via a bulletin board or other on-line system must be documented in an Agency recordkeeping system and retained in accordance with approved records schedules. If the bulletin board information is unique and not documented elsewhere, a separate records schedule is required.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require the electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input for the system is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

This schedule includes, but is not limited to, the following systems listed by headquarters or regional office:

Office of the Administrator

- Flow of the River
- Greenversations

Other disposable systems not requiring specific schedules have been categorized into this schedule or one of the other "generic" or "big bucket" schedules:

- EPA 0063 - Electronic Models and Expert Systems
- EPA 0088 - Bibliographic and Reference Systems
- EPA 0089 - Information Tracking Systems
- EPA 0090 - Administrative Support Databases
- EPA 0096 - Data Standards and Registry Services
- EPA 0098 - Data Marts and Data Warehouses

Electronic records not requiring their own schedules or covered in one of the big bucket schedules above may be segments or phases of information systems covered by schedule 1012 Information and Technology Management.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Deleted cross reference to schedule 0179 which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised title of disposition item a.
- Revised the description.
- Revised disposition instructions for item b.
- Reorganized guidance.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Changed the disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Revised the title and wording of the disposition instructions in item e.

Bulletin boards are used as a means to disseminate information captured in other places. Bulletin boards and Web sites with unique information are scheduled separately.

Status: Final, 12/31/2013

Title: Web Sites

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 305 - Public Affairs

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-08-8

Description:

The EPA Web site is a resource providing information about EPA, providing services to the public or internal employees and contractors, and supporting the mission of Agency programs. The Web site is also used to distribute software programs, models, and textual, video, sound or image files.

This schedule covers records such as software used to maintain the site, the content on the site, site management documentation, and backend systems that are not covered by other schedules. It applies to the Internet, intranet, extranet and portals.

Web content records are covered by the applicable records schedules for the functions they support; e.g., Web pages related to Superfund remedial sites are covered by EPA 0014. If the Web content records are unique and not covered by existing schedules, they must be scheduled separately.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: System software and documentation

Includes software used for creating and maintaining the site.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-8a

- Disposable
  - Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to and use of the records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Site management and operations
Includes reports, statistics, procedures and approvals.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-8b

- Disposable
  - Close inactive records at end of year.
  - Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Item c: Log files

Includes unprocessed log files, application logs, and similar files.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-8c

- Disposable
  - Destroy when 3 months old.

Item d: Web content - not unique

Includes markup language, code, textual and audiovisual files, contextual hyperlinks, and content from backend systems used to generate static or dynamic content on the site(s), as well as screen captures and site snapshots, when the record copy is captured elsewhere.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-8d

- Disposable
  - Destroy when superseded, obsolete, or no longer needed to conduct Agency business, whichever is later, but not longer than the retention of the record copy. See EPA 0008 - Nonrecords.

Item e: Web content - unique

Includes markup language, code, textual and audiovisual files, contextual hyperlinks, and content from backend systems used to generate static or dynamic content on the site(s), as well as screen captures and site snapshots, when the record copy is not captured elsewhere.

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule. If not covered by existing schedules, contact the National Records Management Program (NRMP) to develop a new one.

Guidance:
Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Web content records documenting EPA’s operations, decisions, and actions that are needed to protect the legal and financial rights of the government and the public must be captured in a recordkeeping system and retained in accordance with the applicable records schedules. If the Web content records are unique and not covered by existing schedules, program offices must contact the NRMP to prepare a records schedule. Additional guidance on managing Web records is available at: (URL to be added).

Organizations need to pay particular attention to Web content with potential regulatory, enforcement or other legal impact, as well as events of historical significance (e.g., World Trade Center, Hurricane Katrina). For example, if an organization is offering guidance to the regulated community, it needs to retain a complete record in its recordkeeping system of what that guidance was, how long it was posted and URLs referenced by hyperlinks.

Changes to the Web content records, such as major additions or deletions that might affect decisions or actions by the public or regulated community are covered under item d or e. Documentation on minor editorial or non-substantive changes (e.g., correcting typographical errors) may not need to be kept, depending upon a risk analysis. More information on assessing records management risks associated with Web sites can be found in NARA’s guidance at: http://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/policy/managing-web-records.html.

This schedule also covers podcasts, streaming media, and other popular forms of transmission.

See EPA 0094 for electronic bulletin boards and other collaborative technologies such as blogs and wikis. Records related to policy on site management are covered by EPA 0007.

Reasons for Disposition:
The proposed retention meets EPA's administrative needs. Unique Web content that meets the definition of a record and is not covered by an existing schedule will be scheduled separately.

Title: Data Standards and Registry Services

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 404 - Technology Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-08-15

Description:

Registries provide the ability to register, map and manage metadata and information important to the Agency and its partner systems. Registries may contain objects or data used within multiple systems such as common code sets, facility information, or substances. They may contain information about individual Agency systems or datasets or reusable software components and services that may be used in multiple systems. Registration of contents is the single unique concept that makes a registry a registry. Quality assurance is provided and stewards are assigned to maintain and manage specific contents. In all cases, registries serve as an organizing structure for the purpose of facilitating discovery of Agency information resources. The registries do not contain environmental data, but are collections or repositories of metadata that describe information to make the data more meaningful and easier to find.

Data standards are part of the EPA Enterprise Data Architecture. They are maintained with the EPA registries. Data standards are used to improve the quality of environmental data and also facilitate data integration.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Item f: Data standards documentation

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-15f

- Disposable
- Delete when standards no longer in use in Agency and partner systems.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require the electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input for the system is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item e.
This schedule includes, but is not limited to, the following systems listed by headquarters program office:

Office of Environmental Information

- Data Element Registry Services (DERS)
- Data Registry Services
- Data Standards Services
- EPA Linked Data Services (EPA-LDS)
- Facility Registry System (FRS)
- Registry of EPA Applications, Models and Databases (READ)
- Reusable Component Services
- Substance Registry Services
- System Inventory Services
- System of Registries (SoR)
- Terminology Services

Office of Research and Development

- Environmental Information Management System (EIMS) and Science Inventory

Substance Registry Services was formerly called the Substance Registry System. The XML Registry is now a part of Reusable Component Services.

Other disposable systems not requiring specific schedules have been categorized into this schedule or one of the other "generic" or "big bucket" schedules:

- EPA 0063 - Electronic Models and Expert Systems
- EPA 0088 - Bibliographic and Reference Systems
- EPA 0089 - Information Tracking Systems
- EPA 0090 - Administrative Support Databases
- EPA 0094 - Electronic Bulletin Boards
- EPA 0098 - Data Marts and Data Warehouses

Electronic records not requiring their own schedules or covered in one of the big bucket schedules listed above may be segments or phases of information systems covered by schedule 1012 Information and Technology Management.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Deleted cross reference to schedule 0179 which is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:
• Revised disposition instructions for item b.
• Added information and reorganized guidance.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

• Revised reference to EPA 0170 in disposition item b.
• Revised disposition instructions for item e.

This schedule was originally approved as N1-412-03-7 for the Environmental Data Registry (EDR). The schedule has been expanded to include all data registries, including FRS (EPA 079, previously approved as N1-412-03-16) and EIMS (EPA 469, previously approved as N1-412-04-9).

Title: Central Data Exchange (CDX)

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 404 - Technology Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-03-17

Description:

The Central Data Exchange system serves as a single point for receiving compliance reports from industry and government partners and supports integrated cross-media reporting. This allows for the exchange of data electronically, including the establishment and management of a common registration process, a central archive of electronic transactions, and data exchange between external submitters and EPA program offices. CDX also has a role as a central point for the collection and entry of paper- and diskette-based data.

Some of the reports include risk management plans, toxic release inventory forms, air emissions inventories, discharge monitoring reports, pretreatment self monitoring reports, and RCRA biennial reports.

Includes the Customer Registration Subsystem (CRS) containing information on individuals who have registered and established accounts to access CDX.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b(1): (Reserved)

Item b(2): (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Environmental Information, Central Receiving Branch at Headquarters.
NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-03-17c

- Disposable
  - Keep individual records up to 3 years after completion of action, then delete when no longer needed.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Item f: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The CDX is responsible for the receipt, authentication, archiving (of the transaction and audit trail), and the distribution to the appropriate EPA systems (e.g., Toxics Release Inventory). Once the data passes to the designated system, that data is the responsibility of the program office and the system's administrator.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b(1) and (2), is covered by schedule 1012, item e.
Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Electronic signatures and verification data - Electronic signatures and verification data, formerly item f, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Other related schedules for the CROMERR process include the following:

- Test data, system logs, audit system logs, authentication/security logs, eAuthentication logs, public encryption keys as applicable Certificate Key Management, customer retention of inbound, node logs, NAAS logs, e-mail acknowledgements to submitters, electronic signature agreements, and data archives are covered by EPA 1012, item e.
- Outages and statistics are covered by schedule 1012, item c or d.

Examples of the types of systems included in the CDX are the Emissions Inventory System (EIS) covered by EPA 0002 and the Toxic Release Inventory System (TRI) covered by EPA 0153.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 05/31/2015 version:

- Updated schedule description.
- Deleted items a, b(1) and (2), d, e and f which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated cross references in guidance.

The following change was made in the 01/31/2009 version:

- Revised guidance and cross references.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item b(1).

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Changed the disposition instructions for items a and b(1).
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c, e and f.
- Revised title and disposition instructions for item e.
This system will help meet the requirements of the Government Paperwork Elimination Act (GPEA) mandating agencies be prepared to allow electronic reporting. Disposition for all items meet program needs, and disposition for item f conforms to General Records Schedule 20, item 1c.

Title: Appointee Clearance and Vetting Files

Program: Personnel

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 403 - Human Resources Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-07-62/1

Description:

Files consist of records resulting from liaison with the White House to evaluate the suitability of individuals for non-career positions. The files include correspondence, applications for employment, resumes, background information about individuals, financial disclosure forms, security clearances, notifications of personnel action, White House clearance checklists, and other documentation relating to the selection, clearance, and appointment of political appointees.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Appointees

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-62/1a

- Disposable
  - Destroy at the end of the Presidential administration during which the individual is hired, except for any original material appropriate for filing in OPFs, which should be placed in those files.

Item b: Non-appointees

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-62/1b

- Disposable
  - Close inactive records on termination of consideration.
  - Destroy 1 year after closure but not later than the end of the Presidential administration during which the individual is considered.

Guidance:
Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Correspondence related to offering appointments to potential employees is scheduled as EPA 0557.

Reasons for Disposition:

The disposition instructions have been rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention has not changed.

Item c for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted 08/15/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

Title: Employee Performance File System

Program: Personnel

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 403 - Human Resources Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- General Records Schedule 1/23

Description:

Contains documents related to employee performance for non-SES appointees (as defined in 5 USC 4301(2)) and SES appointees (as defined in 5 USC 3132a(2)).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a(1): Appraisals of unacceptable performance - Non-SES appointees

Includes appraisals where a notice of proposed demotion or removal is issued but not effected and all related documents.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23a(1)

- Disposable
  - Destroy after the employee completes 1 year of acceptable performance from the date of the written advance notice of proposed removal or reduction-in-grade notice.

Item a(2): Superseded performance records - Non-SES appointees

Includes records superseded through an administrative, judicial, or quasi-judicial procedure.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23a(2)

- Disposable
  - Destroy when superseded.

Item a(3)(a): Latest rating of record 3 years or less - Non-SES appointees
Includes performance-related records pertaining to a former employee, including performance plan upon which it is based and any summary rating.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23a(3)(a)

- Disposable
- Place records on left side of the OPF and forward to gaining federal agency upon transfer or to NPRC if employee leaves federal service (see EPA 553). If EPA retrieves an OPF from NPRC, these documents are to be retained according to item a(3)(b).

Item a(3)(b): All other performance plans and ratings - Non-SES appointees

Includes performance-related records pertaining to a former employee.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23a(3)(b)

- Disposable
- Destroy when 4 years old.

Item a(4): All other summary performance appraisal records - Non-SES appointees

Includes performance appraisals and job elements and standards upon which they are based.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23a(4)

- Disposable
- Destroy 4 years after date of appraisal.

Item a(5): Supporting documents - Non-SES appointees

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23a(5)

- Disposable
- Destroy 4 years after date of appraisal.

Item b(1): Superseded performance records - SES appointees

Includes records superseded through an administrative, judicial, or quasi-judicial procedure.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23b(1)

- Disposable
- Destroy when superseded.

Item b(2)(a): Latest rating of record that is less than 5 years old - SES appointees
Includes performance-related records pertaining to a former SES appointee, including performance plan upon which it is based, and any summary rating.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23b(2)(a)

- Disposable
- Place records on left side of the OPF and forward to gaining federal agency upon transfer or to NPRC if employee leaves federal service (see EPA 553). If EPA retrieves an OPF from NPRC, these documents are to be retained according to item b(2)(b).

Item b(2)(b): All other performance ratings and plans - SES appointees

Includes performance-related records pertaining to a former SES appointee.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23b(2)(b)

- Disposable
- Destroy when 5 years old.

Item b(3): All other performance appraisals - SES appointees

Includes job elements and standards (job expectations) upon which they are based, excluding those for SES appointees serving on a Presidential appointment (5 CFR 214).

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23b(3)

- Disposable
- Destroy 5 years after date of appraisal.

Item b(4): Supporting documents - SES appointees

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 1/23b(4)

- Disposable
- Destroy 5 years after date of appraisal.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10,
Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Performance appraisals from the performance appraisal and recognition system (PARS) are covered by this schedule until the employee leaves the Agency. See the Guide to Personnel Recordkeeping for guidance.

Performance rating appeals are covered under EPA 0563. See EPA 0553 for official personnel folders (OPF) for civilians and EPA 0554 for Public Health Service Corps commissioned personnel.

Reasons for Disposition:

- Destroy 2 years after date of reply.
Item a(2)(b): Requests appealed - Requests for nonexistent records; to requesters who provide inadequate descriptions, and to those who fail to pay agency reproduction fees

Includes correspondence and supporting documents, excluding the official file copy of records requested if filed therein.

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for related records (EPA 115).

Item a(3)(a): Requests not appealed - Denying access to all or part of the records requested

Includes correspondence and supporting documents, excluding the official file copy of records requested if filed therein.

- Disposable
- Destroy 5 years after date of reply.

Item a(3)(b): Requests appealed - Denying access to all or part of the records requested

Includes correspondence and supporting documents, excluding the official file copy of records requested if filed therein.

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for related records (EPA 0115).

Item b: Record copy of requested records

- Varies
- Follow instructions for related records or with the Privacy Act request, whichever is later.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

These records are usually maintained by the System Manager (as defined in the Privacy Act Manual 2190) or in the files maintained by the System Manager's unit.

Retain records relating to the general Agency implementation of the Privacy Act according to EPA 0113 for Privacy Act administrative files and reports. Privacy Act amendment case files are scheduled as EPA 0115, Privacy Act accounting of disclosure files as EPA 0116, and Privacy Act control files as EPA 0117.

Reasons for Disposition:

Conforms to the NARA General Records Schedule 14, item 21.

Title: Child Care Tuition Assistance Program Records

Program: Personnel

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 403 - Human Resources Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-07-62/2

Description:
Includes records documenting EPA's child care assistance program. Public Law 107-67, Section 630, permits federal agencies to assist lower income federal employees with child care tuition costs. The program is managed by the Office of Administration and Resources Management, Office of Human Resources, and the application process is administered by Federal Employee Education and Assistance (FEEA). FEEA also administers the Child Care Tuition Assistance Program application process for other participating federal agencies. The program was developed in partnership with a number of stakeholders, e.g., the American Federal of Government Employees (AFGE). Types of documents include agreements with EPA and unions and other entities, applications with pay statements and income tax returns, eligibility forms, child care provider forms, correspondence, and other related documents.

Excludes: EPA Child Care Database (EPA 0090).

Disposition Instructions:

Title: Federal Docket Management System (FDMS)

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 404 - Technology Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
  - N1-412-06-24

Description:

The Federal Docket Management System (FDMS) is a government-wide Web-based portal system providing the public with electronic access to the entire regulatory docket, including rules, supporting documents and public comments, as well as other materials being made available for public review and comment.

FDMS allows the public access to proposed and final rules, other agency actions listed in the Federal Register, and the ability to submit comments on proposed regulations and any other materials exposed to the public, including other comments received. Documents published in the Federal Register are sent to FDMS the same day they are published, and then routed to the agency sponsoring the publication. Agencies that have implemented FDMS into their business processes then create a docket for the publication and can receive comments directly from the public on the publication or on any other supporting materials they have posted. Comments received in paper by the agency are scanned and processed through the system by the partner agency. Federal Register publications for agencies that have not yet implemented FDMS will be posted in FDMS, but until the agency has implemented FDMS they are unable to include additional supporting materials, and they are unable to receive comments through FDMS. Instead, comments received are transmitted to the agency in an e-mail from the managing contractor of FDMS. The FDMS application is hosted and managed by EPA, however, each agency is responsible for its content and has a number of configuration options.

FDMS is capable of electronically receiving and maintaining images and text documents in support of regulatory development related to a federal agency's proposed rules and other agency actions are made available for public review and comment. Each agency owns and manages its data in the system and controls internal access and workflow. The data and images maintained in the docket management module will be for the purposes of public access only for a prescribed length of time. Therefore, the official record is the responsibility of the participating agency. It is the responsibility of the participating agency to ensure they retain and disposition (including transfer of permanent records to the National Archives) all record copies of information captured in FDMS according to their approved records schedules.

It is anticipated that the system will also have an eToolbox module to assist with the development, review, and publication of federal regulations and analysis of public comments. Examples of these tools include electronic reading rooms, workflow tools to facilitate or enhance the drafting of a rule, data mining tools, and dashboard to display the real-time performance of the process.

An additional component is being developed for FDMS to provide for the management of electronic records. Once implemented, FDMS will provide participating agencies with functionality that meets the Department of Defense Electronic Records Management Software Application Design Criteria Standard (DoD 5015.2-STD) and can serve as a component of their overall records management program.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

EPA's Dockets are scheduled as EPA 0150.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Changed schedule applicability to Headquarters.
- Added applicability for all disposition items.
- Revised title and disposition instructions for item d.

EPA is the overall managing partner for this system. Participating federal agencies own and manage their own data. EPA retains and disposes of all data in accordance with each participating agency's approved records schedule. EPA's Dockets schedule was approved as N1-412-04-4.

Title: TRI Processing System (TRIPS)

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-10-1 (Items a, c, d and f)
- DAA-GRS-2013-0001-0001 (Item b)

Description:

The TRI Processing System (TRIPS) was established under the Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986 (EPCRA) and expanded by the Pollution Prevention Act of 1990. The inventory contains information on toxic chemical releases and other waste management activities reported annually by certain covered industry groups as well as federal facilities. Data include chemical identity, amount of on-site users, releases and off-site transfers, including publicly-owned treatment works (POTWs), on-site treatment, and minimization/prevention actions. Also contains data collected via EPA Form 9350-1, Toxic Chemical Release Inventory Reporting Form, trade secret claims made by submitters, and submissions received in both paper and electronic format. Output and reports are used by citizens and community organizations, national organizations, businesses, and educational institutions, as well as EPA. EPA uses the data for a wide variety of activities, including targeting environmental problems, compliance and enforcement, and risk assessment.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Input - Electronic submissions with electronic signatures, electronic data extracted from paper submissions, and magnetic media submissions.

This includes, but is not limited to, TRI-MEweb, Central Data Exchange (CDX), and floppy, 3.5", and compact disks. The Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Analysis and Access, TRI Program Division is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-10-1a

- Disposable
  - Close after information is entered into the electronic system and verified.
• Delete when 5 years old.

Item b: Input - Paper submissions

The Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Analysis and Access, TRI Program Division is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-GRS-2013-0001-0001

• Disposable
  • Close after information is entered into the electronic system and verified.
  • Destroy after file closure.

Item c: Trade secret claims

The Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Analysis and Access, TRI Program Division is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-10-1c

• Permanent
  • Close every 5 years.
  • Transfer to the National Archives when most recent record is 15 years old, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. If any claims are submitted in electronic form, produce a paper copy to serve as the record copy and delete the electronic copy when no longer needed.

Item d: Trade secret claims - Tracking system (Automated Ledger Function (ALF))

The Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Analysis and Access, TRI Program Division is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-10-1d

• Disposable
  • Delete when obsolete or no longer needed.

Item e: (Reserved)

Item f: TRIPS electronic data

The Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Analysis and Access, TRI Program Division is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-10-1f
- Permanent
  - Transfer to the National Archives annually, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item g: (Reserved)

Item h: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program, formerly item e - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program will be covered by EPA 1012, Information and Technology Management, which is in development.

Output and reports, formerly item g - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later disposition dates.

System documentation, formerly item h - System documentation consisting of file specifications for relational tables, code books, record layouts, and other records necessary to describe the data transferred to the National Archives is permanent and is covered by EPA 0304, item a(2) and GRS 20/11a(2) which provide directions to follow the disposition instructions for the electronic data. System documentation consisting of those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data while in operation at EPA is disposable and is covered by EPA 0125, item b(1) and GRS 24/3b(1).

The Chemical Update System (CUS) is scheduled as EPA 0273. See EPA 0088 - Bibliographic and Reference Systems for the EPCRA Targeting System (ETS), and EPA 0371 for TSCA Chemical Inventory File.

- 40 CFR Part 372

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 02/28/2015 version:

- Updated GRS disposal authority for item b due to revision of NARA's General Records Schedule, transmittal 23.

The following changes were made in the 12/31/2012 version:

- Revised the disposition instructions for item b.
- Deleted items e for electronic software program, g for output and reports, and h for system documentation and added them to guidance.

The following changes were made in the 09/30/2009 version:

- Added file closure instructions to item a.
- Revised retention for items a and b to 5 years.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2008 version:

- Revised title of schedule and disposition items e, f, g and h.
- Revised wording of disposition item a.
- Added wording about applicability for disposition items a-f and h.
- Updated contact information.

The 5-year retention for submissions has been changed to be consistent with the federal statute of limitations, 28 U.S.C. 2462. The retention for the data in the TRI electronic system has not changed.

Item i for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted 08/16/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

Title: Fuel Reporting System (DCFuels)

Program: Air

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-09-4

Description:

The Fuel Reporting System (DCFuels) includes compliance data related to gasoline, diesel fuel and a variety of fuels and fuel additives. The data are collected from refiners, importers, independent laboratories, and fuel and fuel additive manufacturers. DCFuels includes two types of data: (1) Fuel and Fuel Additive Registration (DCFFARS) for registration of companies and products; and (2) Reformulated Gasoline and Anti-Dumping Database (RFG/AD) for compliance reporting.

DCFFARS data supports the registration of fuels and fuel additive products prior to their introduction into commerce and provides information which protects the public from motor fuel/additives which may produce environmental harm.

RFG/AD collects data for a variety of activities including averaging, banking and trading programs, quarterly and annual compliance demonstration, and product quality parameters from a variety of submitters. Reporting programs under RFG/AD include: Reformulated Gasoline and Anti-Dumping, Tier 2 Gasoline Sulfur, Ultra Low Sulfur Diesel, MSAT Gasoline Toxics, RFS, and MSAT-2 Gasoline Benzene. The compliance information provides a picture of fuel production and characteristics useful in developing air pollution control strategies and is used to pursue alleged civil and criminal violations.

Submissions are currently in paper and electronic; electronic submissions are done through EPA's Central Data Exchange (CDX) which is scheduled separately (EPA 0097).

Title: Underground Injection Control Databases

Program: Water

Applicability: Regions

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-06-31

Description:

The Underground Injection Control (UIC) program works with state, local, and tribal governments to oversee underground injection of waste in order to prevent contamination of drinking water resources. The Underground Injection Control (UIC) databases maintained by the regional program offices contain detailed information on well operators, administrative orders, permits and individual wells for all wells where EPA is the permitting authority. They track compliance schedules and inspections and include reports, some correspondence, inventory, and sampling and analytical data. They may also include notices of noncompliance that do not necessarily result in enforcement actions and compliance orders. They track both permitted and "rule-authorized" wells. Rule-authorized wells were grandfathered in at the start of the UIC program, and operators with rule-authorized wells are required to adhere to standards similar to those for permitted wells.

Input for the databases comes from a variety of sources, including inventory forms submitted by operators when the program first started in the 1980s; permit applications; well test data; compliance inspections; enforcement actions; and monitoring report data. Information is extracted from source documents and keyed in manually.

Output includes reports on development of administrative orders; well inventory counts; workload reports; listings of permit applications received year to date, and similar reports.

Disposition Instructions:

• Varies
• File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-06-31e

• Permanent
• Transfer to the National Archives those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

UIC permits are covered in EPA 0205. See EPA 0207 for enforcement action files and EPA 0211 for compliance files. The Underground Injection Control (UIC) Program Summary System maintained by headquarters is covered in EPA 0432. RCRA land disposal records are covered in EPA 0478 for RCRA generators, transporters, and TSD facilities and EPA 0206 for RCRA corrective actions.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2009 version:

- Revised wording in disposition instructions for items a, b and d.
- Revised title of disposition item e.
- Updated cross references.

EPA regional offices maintain separate databases containing detailed information on wells including well operators, ownership, nature and type of wells, operating status, and permits. Implementation varies from region to region. Some information from these regional systems is extracted and sent to EPA headquarters for the UIC Program Summary System, scheduled as N1-412-95-4/4 (EPA series 0432).

Regional systems may include facility information from tribal lands. In the EPA regional office in Chicago, for example, a tribal code is entered to designate which reservation the well is located within.

Title: High Production Volume Information System (HPVIS)

Program: Toxic Substances

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-19

Description:

The High Production Volume Information System (HPVIS) provides access to health and environmental effect information obtained through the HPV Challenge Program, which "challenges" companies to make data on chemicals produced or imported into the United States in quantities of one million pounds or more per year publicly available. The system allows users to search for summary information, test plans, and new data on high production volume chemicals as they are developed.

Test data is voluntarily submitted to EPA by chemical manufacturers and trade associations. HPVIS submissions contain data on up to 50 endpoints organized into four disciplines: physical/chemical properties (e.g., melting point, vapor pressure); environmental fate and pathways (e.g., biodegradation, stability in soil); ecotoxicity (e.g., fish toxicity, toxicity to aquatic plants); and, mammalian health effects (e.g., reproductive toxicity, developmental toxicity). HPVIS data is available on EPA's Internet site and users may search by either chemical name or CAS number. HPVIS also contains HPV Chemical Hazard Characterizations prepared during EPA's ongoing review of the health and environmental effects data, as well as Risk-Based Prioritization documents prepared from EPA's examination of hazard and exposure information.

Description:

The Clean Air Status and Trends Network (CASTNET) is a national air monitoring network sponsored by EPA and the National Park Service (NPS). The network collects data from over 80 monitoring sites across the United States for determining relationships between emissions, air quality, deposition, and ecological effects. The National Dry Deposition Network (NDDN), EPA's forerunner to CASTNET, was established in 1986 to provide information on, and to track trends in, pollutant concentrations and the dry deposition component of total atmospheric deposition. CASTNET was established in 1991 and NDDN was merged into CASTNET. Public data is available on EPA's Web site.

Program: Water

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-08-1

Description:

The Safe Drinking Water Accession and Review System (SDWARS) is a Web-based data entry system supporting the collection of data under the Unregulated Contaminant Monitoring Rule (UCMR). The database allows all stakeholders to submit, review, and post data. Laboratories post UCMR data, and the public water systems (PWSs) review, approve, and submit the posted results to EPA. The data is later transferred to the National Contaminant Occurrence Database (NCOD) to facilitate analysis, review of contaminant occurrence, and to guide the development of subsequent contaminants for the Candidates Contaminant List (CCL). The data in SDWARS is modified every five years to allow reporting of new unregulated contaminants.

SDWARS can also be used to maintain unregulated contaminant data generated from studies (e.g., sulfate in drinking water) or national surveys to determine whether or not to regulate a contaminant.

  - File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: Implementation files

This item is to be used only by the Office of Water, Office of Ground Water and Drinking Water at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-1e

- Disposable
  - Close when implementation and monitoring activities are completed.
  - Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Item f: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Water, Office of Ground Water and Drinking Water at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-08-1f
• Disposable
  • Close when each 5 year cycle is concluded and data verified, concurrent with the electronic data (Item c(1)).
  • Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Safe Drinking Water Act was amended in 1996 requiring EPA to establish criteria to monitor unregulated contaminants and to identify a maximum of 30 contaminants to monitor every five years. The UCMR program coordinates with the CCL and the NCOD.

See EPA 0436 for NCOD. Records related to the development of regulations, standards, and guidelines are covered by EPA 0149 and dockets by EPA 0150.

Legal citations include, but are not limited to:

- Safe Drinking Water Act, as amended, Section 1445(a)(2)
- 40 CFR 141.24-141.40

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version, after NARA determined the records do not need to be permanent:

- Changed items c(1) and f to disposable and revised the disposition instructions.
- Deleted item c(2).
The following changes were made in the 03/31/2008 version:

- Added file closure instructions and revised the disposition instructions for items a, b and f.
- Divided item c into two subitems, c(1) and c(2).

The Safe Drinking Water Act requires the collection of this data and historical data is needed to evaluate the impact of the regulation. The NCOD is scheduled as EPA 0436.

Item g for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted 08/14/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

EPA Records Schedule 0257

Status: Final, 12/31/2013

Title: National RCRA Information System (RCRAInfo)

Program: RCRA

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-04-8

Description:

RCRAInfo is one of EPA’s mission-critical systems used by EPA regional offices and the states to record and track information provided by the regulated community concerning the generation, shipment, treatment, and disposal of hazardous wastes. Input includes information from facilities on the amounts and kinds of hazardous waste being generated, transported, and stored during the reporting year.

In most cases, the states serve as primary implementers of the program in lieu of EPA regional offices. However, in some states, and for certain aspects of the program, EPA regions retain all, or some, program implementation responsibility. EPA headquarters, regions, and states work in partnership to redefine information needs for the RCRA program under the Waste Information Needs and the Information for Making Environmental Decisions initiative (WIN/Informed).

The system also tracks significant milestones of state and EPA activity supporting program planning, implementation, and reporting of accomplishments. Output also includes data for the National Biennial Report on Hazardous Waste that is prepared under Congressional mandate, as well as ad hoc reports.

The system interfaces with other EPA systems, including the Facility Registry System (FRS) and Envirofacts, that are scheduled separately.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response, Communications, Information and Resources Management Division at Headquarters.
NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-04-8a

- Disposable
  - Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Varies
  - Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response, Communications, Information and Resources Management Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-04-8c

- Permanent
  - Transfer data annually to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: Output and reports - Biennial report

This item is to be used only by the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response, Communications, Information and Resources Management Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-04-8d

- Permanent
  - Close upon publication of the report.
  - Transfer to the National Archives along with the electronic data (item c).

Item e: Output and reports - Ad hoc reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - File with related records and follow instructions for related records.

Item f: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response, Communications, Information and Resources Management Division at Headquarters.
NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-04-8f

- Permanent
- Transfer to the National Archives those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

RCRAInfo replaces the Biennial Reporting System (BRS), the Resources Conservation and Recovery Information System (RCRIS) and RCRAID.

See EPA series 0478 for RCRA generators, transporters, and TSD facilities files. Enforcement action files are covered in EPA 0207; RCRA corrective action files in EPA 0206; and compliance files in EPA 0211.

The Facility Registry System (FRS) is scheduled as EPA 0096, the Central Data Exchange (CDX) as EPA 0097, and Envirofacts as EPA 0098.

The disposition of item b, including all regional and merge data backups, are the responsibility of the appropriate regional or state office upon verification of successful transfer.

This schedule also covers RCRARep, a Web-based reporting tool managed in Region 1.

Reasons for Disposition:
The following change was made in the 02/28/2009 version:

- Revised information on predecessor systems and moved it from description to guidance.

The following change was made in the 08/31/2008 version:

- Revised guidance to include Region 1’s RCRARep software tool.
- Deleted "with exceptions" from applicability.

The following changes were made to the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item b.
- Revised title of disposition item f.

RCRAInfo is the major data system supporting all operations required by RCRA regulations for permitting, hazardous waste tracking, corrective actions and enforcement of hazardous waste generators, transporters, treatment, and disposal facilities. This system replaces the Biennial Reporting System (BRS) and Resource Conservation and Recovery Information System (RCRIS) which were appraised by the National Archives as permanent.

Title: FOIAonline System

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 305 - Public Affairs

NARA Disposal Authority:
  - N1-412-94-2/39

Description:

The FOIAonline System is a Web-based portal used to receive, store, assign, and process Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests, create reports, and electronically generate the annual report required by the FOIA statute. The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is responsible for managing the system, but each participating agency is responsible for managing its own data. At EPA, this system replaces FOIAXpress and the Freedom of Information Act Tracking System (FOIMATS).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Collection, Records, FOIA and Privacy Branch at Headquarters.

  NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-94-2/39c

  • Disposable
  • Follow instructions for the related records.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)
Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The previous FOIA tracking system, FOIAXpress, was moved offline and will be retained for 6 years which is the longest retention authorized by schedule 0030 (GRS 14/11).

See the following FOIA schedules for disposition instructions for electronic data (item c):

- EPA 0029 - Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Annual Reports
- EPA 0030 - Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Requests Files
- EPA 0031 - Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Administrative Files and Reports
- EPA 0032 - Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Appeals Files
- EPA 0033 - Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Control Files

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require the electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012.

Input - Input for the system is covered by schedule 1012.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.
System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012.

See EPA 0089 - Electronic Tracking Systems for other disposable electronic tracking systems not requiring their own schedule.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 05/31/2013 version:

- Updated schedule title, description, and guidance.
- Deleted items a, b, d, and e which are covered by other schedules.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title and disposition instructions for item e.

Disposition for the electronic software program (item a) and output (item d) are consistent with the originally approved schedule. Disposition for input (item b) is consistent with NARA’s GRS 20/2. Disposition for electronic data (item c) conforms to NARA's General Records Schedule 14. The disposition for supporting documentation (item e) conforms with GRS 20/11.

Program: Compliance Monitoring

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-02-3

Description:

The Section Seven Tracking system (SSTS) is a database containing company, establishment registration data, and annual pesticide production reports.

Predecessor systems include: Establishment Registration Support System (ERSS) (1974); FIFRA and TSCA Enforcement System (FATES) (1979); FATES was split in 1986 into FATES and FIFRA/TSCA Tracking System (FTTS); SSTS was created in 1991.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

Item b(1): Input - Paper

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-3b(1)

- Disposable
- Close when information has been entered into the system.
- Destroy 7 years after file closure. Shred submissions with confidential information.
Item b(2): Input - Electronic

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-3b(2)

- Disposable
  - Close when information has been entered into the system.
  - Delete earliest year after closure.

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Office of Compliance, Agriculture Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-3c

- Permanent
  - Close at the end of the reporting year.
  - Transfer data annually to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Office of Compliance, Agriculture Division at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-02-3e

- Permanent
  - Transfer those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data to the National Archives annually, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Pesticide producing establishments printouts maintained in regional offices are scheduled as EPA 0277.

Input to the system takes place at the regional level as well as headquarters. The system maintains 5 years of data. To accomplish this, once a year the system deletes "year one" data.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 10/31/2009 version:

- Revised wording of disposition instructions for item a.

The following changes were made in the 08/31/2008 version:

- Revised schedule title.
- Updated contact information.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

This tracking system is the only one that registers pesticide producing establishments, therefore NARA recommended that the data be appraised as permanent rather than temporary.

Title: Chemical Update System (CUS)

Program: Toxic Substances

Applicability: Agency-wide, with exceptions

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-96-3/1

Description:

The Chemical Update System (CUS) contains confidential data reported by industry (approximately 1200 companies) as a partial update of the TSCA Inventory. Manufacturers and importers are required to report company information (plant site name, address, DUNS number) and chemical information (CAS registry number, PMN/Bonafide/TMEA or CCID Number, and production volume) for chemicals they manufactured or imported in excess of 10,000 pounds in the immediately preceding fiscal year. Polymers, naturally occurring substances, and UVCB's are exempt from reporting requirements. Reporting takes place every four years, beginning in December 1986. Production volumes on the CUS database are discrete amounts, rather than ranges, found on the Chemicals in Commerce Information System (CICIS).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The TSCA chemical inventory file is scheduled as EPA 0371. The TRI Processing System (TRIPS) is covered in EPA 0153. Two related systems, Chemicals in Commerce Information System (CICIS) and Confidential Chemicals Identification System (CCID) are covered in EPA 0088.

In 1993, the data contained in the Chemical Update System was transferred from the mainframe located in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, to the LAN serving OPPT. As part of the close-out procedure, the information was also transferred to tape. The LAN-based system is updated once every four years from the information extracted from the IUR form.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised title of disposition items a and e.

Records support operations as required by statute and regulation. Data is from the TSCA Chemical Inventory File which is scheduled as permanent.

Title: Budget Formulation System (BFS)

Program: Budget Operations

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 402 - Financial Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-1

Description:

The Budget Formulation System (BFS) automates EPA’s budget processes, including planning, budgeting, execution, and reporting. Budget data is entered at a general level by offices and regions or by the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO). The system maintains snapshots of the budget as it exists at key stages of the process. Budgetary transactions are entered into the system and edited against business rules and budgetary limitations. Authorizations and approvals of transactions are done on-line with an audit trail of each transaction. The system serves as the source of information on EPA's organizational structure, planning structure, budget structure, fiduciary structure, and the business rules.

This system interfaces with the Integrated Financial Management System (IFMS) and the EPA Payroll System (EPAYS) which are scheduled separately. It replaces the Resources Management Information System/Budget Analysis System (RIMS/BARS).

1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of outputs and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later date.

System documentation - System documentation for the working data, formerly item e(2), is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

IFMS is covered by EPA 0054 and EPAYS by EPA 0573.

The OMB Submission in items c(1) and e(1) begins with the year 2000.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2014 version:

- Revised title of schedule and description.
- Deleted items a, b, d and e(2) which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated guidance.

The following change was made in the 03/31/2009 version:

- Added OMB Submission to items c(1) and e(1) and added statement about it in guidance.

The following change was made in the 11/30/2008 version:

- Removed reference to OMB submission in item e(1).

The following change was made in the 07/31/2008 version:
- Removed reference to OMB submission in item c(1).

The following change was made in the 05/31/2008 version:

- Divided disposition items c and e into two subitems each.
- Added statement about applicability for disposition items a, c and e.

The schedule was previously approved as NC1-412-85-9/3 for the Resources Management Information System (RMIS). It has been revised to reflect current budget practices.

Status: Final, 12/31/2013

Title: PeoplePlus (PPL)

Program: Financial Management

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 402 - Financial Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- Varies

Description:

The PeoplePlus system consists of two applications. One application performs human resources functions, including the full range of personnel transactions and benefits and entitlements documentation. The other application performs time and labor functions.

Initially, data was migrated from the EPA Payroll System (EPAYS) and Human Resources Management System (HR PRO). In production, employee transaction data, organization data, and time and labor data are keyed into the system. Effective June 2006, the Defense Finance and Accounting System (DFAS) became responsible for processing the EPA payroll and providing payroll services to EPA. DFAS also provides processed payroll data to EPA. This data is posted back to PeoplePlus, Labor Distribution, and subsequently the Integrated Financial Management System (IFMS).

System outputs include human resources data required for ongoing reporting for the Office of Personnel Management’s Civil Personnel Data (CPDF) file, electronic employee data that is used to validate employee data in the National Directory System LDAP, report employee data to EPA management officials and ad hoc reports requested by users.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program and system documentation

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Disposable
- Destroy when no longer needed to ensure the retention and usability of the electronic data throughout the approved retention period.
Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Varies
- Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Personnel data

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
- Follow instructions for the specific type of personnel records (e.g., official personnel folders (OPFs)).

Item d: Payroll data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-69/2a

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for EPA 0280a.

Item e: Time and attendance data

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 2/7

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for EPA 0276a.

Item f: Leave data

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 2/6

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for EPA 0279.

Item g: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
- File with related records and follow instructions for related records.

Guidance:
Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer, Office of Financial Services and the Office of Administration and Resources Management, Office of Human Resources are responsible for implementing the disposition for items a, c, d, e and f. Disposition for input (item b) is the responsibility of the office entering the data. Disposition of output and reports (item g) is the responsibility of the office maintaining the records.

Types of personnel documentation included in item c include, but are not limited to: OPFs (EPA 0553), certificate of eligibles files (EPA 0558), position classification files (EPA 0559), employee awards (EPA 0572), incentive awards (EPA 0574), notifications of personnel actions (EPA 0560), labor management relations (EPA 0577), personnel training (EPA 0571), administrative grievance, disciplinary, and adverse action files (EPA 0564), and the donated leave program (EPA 0565).

Documentation related to individual payroll records should be maintained in accordance with item d.

Documentation such as approved work schedules, overtime/compensatory time requests, maxiflex work records, signed copies of PeoplePlus time and attendance certification reports, PeoplePlus time card summary reports, and related time and attendance records should be maintained in accordance with item e.

Documentation related to leave and leave applications, including leave transfers, requests for restored leave and similar documents, are to be maintained in accordance with item f.

A standardized summary report generated by the Superfund Cost Recovery Package Imaging On-line System (SCORPIO) will serve as EPA's official payroll documentation in support of Superfund and oil spill cost recovery rather than the payroll distribution time sheets used with PeoplePlus. SCORPIOS is scheduled as EPA 0052.

The record copy of electronic forms submitted for approval via the E-Forms and WebForms systems does not need to be printed and can be maintained electronically according to the disposition instructions in the appropriate records schedule. E-Forms and WebForms are covered by EPA 0004.

Official leave records prepared upon transfer or separation of employees are filed in the OPF, are covered in EPA 0553 for civilians, or EPA 0554 for Public Health Service personnel.

The Compass Financials system (Compass) is scheduled as EPA 0054. EPAYS is covered by EPA 0573.

Records are covered by Privacy Act system of records EPA-1.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 05/31/2013 version:

- Updated guidance about electronic forms and cross references.

The following change was made in the 05/31/2010 version:

- Revised wording of disposition instructions for item a.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised title of disposition item a.
- Revised disposition instructions for item b.

The system has been developed in response to the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) and the Government Management Reforms Act (GMRA). It works in conjunction with DFAS which is one of four consolidated government-wide payroll service providers. The retention meets all program and administrative needs.

Title: Privacy Act Reports Files

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 305 - Public Affairs

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-07-13

Description:
Contains recurring reports and one-time information requirements relating to implementation of the Act, including annual reports to the Congress of the United States, the Office of Management and Budget, etc.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a(1): Annual reports - Nonelectronic

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-13a(1)

- Permanent
- Close inactive records when report is completed.
- Transfer to the National Archives in 5 year blocks 15 years after file closure.

Item a(2): Annual reports - Electronic

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-13a(2)

- Permanent
- Close inactive records when report is completed.
- Transfer to the National Archives 5 years after file closure, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item a(3): Annual reports - Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-13a(3)
• Disposable
  • Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
  • Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Item b: Other reports

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-13b

• Disposable
  • Close inactive records when report is completed.
  • Keep 2 years after file closure, then destroy.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Privacy Act reports maintained by other offices and Privacy Act administrative files maintained by all offices are scheduled as EPA 0113.

Reasons for Disposition:

The disposition instructions have been rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention has not changed.

The following changes were made in the 01/31/2008 version:

• Divided item a into three subitems, a(1)-(3).
• Revised the titles of disposition items a(1)-(3).
• Revised the disposition instruction for item a(3).

Title: Bulletins Live

Program: Pesticides

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-6

Description:

Bulletins Live is a system that helps users determine if limitations on pesticide use are necessary to ensure a pesticide's use will not harm a species listed as threatened or endangered under the Endangered Species Act. It functions as a portal through which the following types of data are available: state and county maps, Endangered Species Protection Bulletins, species protection demarcations and explanations, and pesticide limitation codes. Based on user-entered criteria and maps, bulletins are generated to show under what conditions a pesticide may be applied. Bulletins identify species of concern and the name of the pesticide active ingredient that may affect the species. They also provide a description of the protection measures necessary to protect the species and contain a county-level map showing the geographic area(s) associated with the protection measures, depending on the susceptibility of the species to other factors such as vandalism. Bulletins are effective and enforceable as part of the pesticide product label.

The Bulletins Live system replaces the Endangered Species Map File. The Endangered Species Map File contains 8-1/2 x 11 inch endangered species habitat maps submitted by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and states. Map information was used to produce digitized maps of habitat information. Maps were updated constantly until issued as an enforceable bulletin in the Federal Register. The file includes correspondence, draft and final maps, and supporting information from states, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data
The Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, Office of Pesticide Programs, Field and External Affairs Division at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-6c

- Permanent
- Transfer to the National Archives every 5 years, beginning in 2014, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Item f: (Reserved)

Item g: (Reserved)

Item h: Endangered species map case files, except digitized maps

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-6h

- Permanent
- Close inactive records upon issuance of enforceable bulletin.
- Transfer to the National Archives 30 years after file closure.

Item i: Endangered species map file, digitized maps

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-6i

- Disposable
- Close inactive records upon issuance of the enforceable bulletin.
- Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].
Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition, and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012 item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item e, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item f, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012 item a.

Specific legal citations include:

- Endangered Species Act of 1973, Sec. 7(a)(2)
- Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, Sec. 12

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2014 version:

- Deleted items a, b, e and f which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated cross references and contact information.

The following changes were made in the 02/28/2010 version:

- Added previous description for the endangered species map file.
- Added disposition items h and i from previously approved schedule, N1-412-95-2/14.

The following changes were made in the 11/30/2009 version:

- Deleted disposition items d and g.
The following change was made in the 02/28/2009 version:

Title: Pesticide Registration Information System (PRISM)

Program: Pesticides

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-16

Description:

The Office of Pesticide Programs (OPP) has migrated all of its major data systems including regulatory and scientific data, workflow tracking and electronic document management into one integrated system, the Pesticide Registration Information System (PRISM). PRISM provides a centralized source of information on all registered pesticide products, including chemical composition, toxicity, name and address of registrant, brand names, registration actions, and related data. It consolidates information stored on the mainframe, the OPP LAN, on stand-alone computers and in paper copy. The purpose of this system is to decrease the data entry burden, increase analytical capabilities, better track decision-making processes, prevent loss of and improve access to critical decision documents, and make OPP information readily available to those both within and outside of the Program.

PRISM is the successor to the Office of Pesticide Programs Information System Network (OPPIN). Data has been migrated from the following databases: Chemical Vocabulary (CV), Company Name and Address (CNAD), Pesticide Document Management System (PDMS), Pesticide Product Information System (PPIS), Chemical Review Management System (CRMS), FIFRA CBI Access (FAS), Jackets, Product Data Call-In (PDCI), Phones, Pesticide Regulatory Action Tracking (PRAT), Reference System (REFS), Tolerance Indexes (TIS and TOTS). Sources of the input are paper copy and electronic data. EPA's Central Data Exchange (CDX), scheduled as EPA 097, is the gateway for electronic submissions.

The system is designed mainly for use by OPP staff, however, read-only access to the non-confidential business information (CBI) portion of the data is available to the entire Agency. Non-CBI information is available to the public.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program
The Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, Office of Pesticide Programs, Information Technology and Resources Management Division, Information Services Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-16a

- Disposable
  - Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Disposable
  - Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Registration and registration review data and documents

Includes end use product data, labeling and PRIA data.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-16c

- Permanent
  - Close inactive records at completion of action.
  - Transfer data to the National Archives annually after file closure and completion of any ongoing audits involving review of data and documents, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Item f: Reference and information tracking databases

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-16f

- Disposable
  - Follow instructions for applicable schedule (EPA 0088, EPA 0089).

Item g: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
• File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item h: System documentation

The Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, Office of Pesticide Programs, Information Technology and Resources Management Division, Information Services Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-16h

• Permanent

  • Transfer to the National Archives those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. The documentation is transferred with the electronic data, item c.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The pesticide program divisions in the Office of Pesticide Programs which maintain the records are responsible for the disposition of items b, c, f and h.

Registration review is replacing the pesticide reregistration program, including tolerance reassessment, as these programs approach completion.

The Section Seven Tracking System (SSTS) (EPA 0264) is considered part of the PRISM system, however the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance is solely responsible for maintaining the SSTS data.
Specific legal citations include, but are not limited to:

- Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act and Amendments (FIFRA)
- 1996 Food Quality Protection Act (FQPA)
- Pesticide Registration Improvement Act of 2003 (PRIA)

Reasons for Disposition:

PRISM is an integrated relational data system and document repository which allows data analysis required by statute. This system incorporates data and documentation from several previously approved schedules, including the following systems listed below. EPA 0335 and 0349 were previously approved as permanent.

Item c incorporates data and documentation from the following previously approved schedules:

- EPA 0315 - Pesticide Registration Documents, N1-412-07-39
- EPA 0327 - Company Name and Address (CNAD), N1-412-95-2/8
- EPA 0335 - Pesticide Document Management System (PDMS), N1-412-98-3
- EPA 0352 - Pesticide Incident Documents and Incident System, N1-412-05-7
- EPA 0363 - Pesticide Product Label System (PPLS), N1-412-07-47
- EPA 0366 - Label Use Information System (LUIS), N1-412-95-2/13

It replaces several minor systems listed on two of EPA's "big bucket" system schedules for temporary records. The Chemical Review Management System (CRMS), Jackets, Pesticide Regulatory Action Tracking (PRAT), and Reference System are listed on EPA 0089. Tolerance Indexes are listed on EPA 0088.

The following change was made in the 10/31/2008 version:

- Revised reasons for disposition.
- Updated contact information.

The following changes were made in the 09/30/2008 version:

- Changed title and added file closure instructions for item c.
- Updated contact information.

The following changes were made in the 08/31/2008 version:

- Deleted disposition item d for pesticide labeling data and disposition item e for PRIA tracking data since they are part of registration and reregistration review data and covered by disposition item c.
- Revised title of disposition item h.
- Revised guidance and reasons for disposition.
- Updated contact information.
The following change was made in the 07/31/2008 version:

- Revised reasons for disposition.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2008 version:

- Revised description.
- Replaced disposition item c with items c-f, item d with g, and item e with h.
- Revised guidance and reasons for disposition.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised titles of schedule and disposition items a and e.

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-05-7

Description:

Includes correspondence, statistical and narrative documents, summary data related to accidents and incidents under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act (FIFRA), as amended, Section 6(a)(2) adverse health effects reported by industry, government agencies, and the public. The data is used to provide statistics on pesticide accidents involving human, animal, and environmental injuries. It also serves as a retrieval system to the incident files used in chemical reviews of pesticide products to defend or deny a registration.

IDS replaces the Pesticide Incident Reporting Monitoring System Master File, the Pesticide Episode Report System, and Pesticide Incident Documents.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

The Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, Office of Pesticide Programs, Information Technology and Resources Management Division, Information Services Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-7a

- Disposable
  - Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Electronic data for Incident Data System (IDS)
The Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, Office of Pesticide Programs, Information Technology and Resources Management Division, Information Services Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-7b

- Permanent
- Transfer to the National Archives when 50 years old, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item c: Source documents (reports)

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-7c

- Disposable
- Close file annually.
- Destroy 20 years after file closure.

Item d: System input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Varies
- Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item e: System output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
- File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item f: System documentation

The Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, Office of Pesticide Programs, Information Technology and Resources Management Division, Information Services Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-05-7f

- Permanent
- Transfer to the National Archives those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item b).
Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Since 2002, incident reports are being scanned and imaged onto CD-ROM. Prior to that time, all incident reports were in microfiche, all of which have been retired.

System indexes and incident data in electronic format are transferred to NARA's Center for Electronic Records. The index file is organized by product name. The first transfer will consist of all index records with associated images, and subsequent transfers will occur when the incident images are transferred.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2008 version:

- Revised the title of the schedule.
- Updated the wording and name of the program office in disposition items a, b and f.
- Revised guidance.
- Updated contact information.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a and d.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, b and f.
- Revised title of disposition item f.

Title: Label Use Information System (LUIS)

Program: Pesticides

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-95-2/13

Description:

LUIS provides automated access to current and accurate information on the legal uses of pesticides as specified by the registered pesticide products labeling. It is a LAN-based data base system developed to manage pesticide use data derived from product labeling, enabling analysis of use data at the individual product level as well as aggregate information of all products containing a specific active ingredient. Formerly known as the Index to Pesticide Chemicals (paper-based system) scheduled separately.

Title: Toxic Substances Control Act Test Submissions (TSCATS)

Program: Toxic Substances

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-03-14

Description:

The Toxic Substances Control Act Test Submissions (TSCATS) system is an electronic index to non-confidential, unpublished studies on chemical testing and adverse effects of chemicals on health and the environment. TSCATS was developed to make chemical testing studies available to the public, and includes chemical exposure studies, epidemiology, environmental fate, monitoring, episodic incidents, such as spills and case reports. The studies on unique chemical substances are submitted by U.S. industry under the Toxic Substances Control Act, section 4, chemical testing; section 8d, health and safety studies; section 8e, notices of substantial risk; and voluntarily submitted data on potentially hazardous chemicals.

The studies are scheduled separately. Full-text documents of the studies are on microfiche are available from the National Technical Information Service.

Title: Storage and Retrieval of Water Quality Information (STORET)

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-09-12

Description:

The Storage and Retrieval of Water Quality Information (STORET) system is an automated information system which assists state and EPA officials to make pollution control decisions by providing a capability to store, retrieve and analyze water quality information. Information includes chemical, physical, and biological water quality of the Nation's waters, including ambient, intensive survey, effluent, and biological water quality monitoring information. Most STORET information has been added since 1975, however, records go back to 1899. Information is contributed voluntarily by federal, state, interstate agencies, universities, tribes, and volunteers.

STORET has the following components:

- Data Warehouse - serves as a repository for data collected by EPA and agency partners. The STORET Data warehouse is more accessible via online data reports, Web services, and new tools.
- Water Quality Exchange (WQX) - uses standardized data exchange schemas along with technology to load/enter/validate data into the Data warehouse. WQX provides the means for direct computer-to-computer data exchange. WQX leverages both the agency architecture and other agency IT and agency non-IT investments, including the Central Data Exchange (CDX), the Substance Registry System, and the Exchange Network Grant Program. WQX also allows EPA to better integrate water monitoring data with other Federal Agencies (i.e. USGS).
- WQX Web Tool - uses a web portal access to standardize data exchange schemas for loading/entering/validating data into the Data warehouse. The Web Tool provides a User-Web to computer data exchange.

Disposition Instructions:
Item a: Electronic software program

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-12b

- Disposable
  - Close when information has been transferred to the master file and verified.
  - Delete after file closure.

Item c: Electronic data

The Office of Water, Office of Wetlands, Oceans and Watersheds, Assessment and Watershed Protection Division, Monitoring Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-12c

- Permanent
  - Initial Transfer: Transfer Legacy Data Center data (1994-1999) to the National Archives in 2010, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.
  - Interim Transfers: While the system is in operation, transfer STORET data to the National Archives every 5 years, beginning in 2015 (for 2000-2004 data), or whenever a major change to the system occurs, whichever is earlier, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.
  - Final Transfer: Close when program is discontinued or system is terminated. Transfer final data to the National Archives 1 year after system is closed, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.
Item e: System documentation

The Office of Water, Office of Wetlands, Oceans and Watersheds, Assessment and Watershed Protection Division, Monitoring Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-12e

- Permanent
- Transfer those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data to the National Archives as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. The documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

This schedule covers the STORET and the Water Quality Exchange (WQX) which defines the methods and the data systems by which EPA compiles monitoring data (typically water quality data, but not exclusively water quality data) that are collected by a number of entities. Those entities could be states, tribes, volunteer monitoring groups, or EPA.

Electronic data from 1950-1993 were transferred to the National Archives under previously approved NARA disposal authority NC1-412-81-018, Items 2 and 9. The Initial Transfer of Legacy Data Center data from 1994-1999 to the National Archives was completed in 2010 under NARA disposal authority N1-412-09-12, Item c.

The time line for Interim Transfer of electronic data to the National Archives under Item c is:
• 2015 - Transfer 2000-2004 data.
• 2020 - Transfer 2005-2009 data.
• 2025 - Transfer 2010-2014 data.
• 2030 - Transfer 2015-2019 data.

The previously approved version of this schedule included the following components which have been superseded by the current system:

• Biological System (BIOS)
• Daily Flow System (DFS)
• Fish Kill File (FK)
• Ocean Data Evaluation System (ODES)
• Parameter (PARM)
• Taxonomic Index File (TAXFILE)
• Water Quality System (WQS)

EPA schedules 0238 and 0239 for the New York Bight Water Quality Helicopter Monitoring System (R2NY-BIGHT) and U.S. Virgin Island Ambient Monitoring Survey (VI-SURVEY) respectively, were deleted since the systems are no longer used and the legacy data added to STORET.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2010 version:

• Revised guidance to include information about legacy data from systems covered by schedules 0238 and 0239.
• Added previously approved disposal authorities for schedules 0238 and 0239.

The following changes were made in the 05/31/2010 version:

• Made minor revisions to wording in description.
• Revised transfer dates in disposition instructions for item c.
• Added transfer dates in guidance.
• Added ODES and PARM as superseded components or systems in guidance.
• Added NARA disposal authority for ODES as previously approved NARA disposal authority.

The following change was made in the 12/31/2009 version:

• Revised disposition instructions for item c to include the date range (1994-1999) for the legacy data.

The following change was made in the 10/31/2009 version:

• Revised disposition instructions for item c.
• Revised guidance.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2009 version:

• Added applicability information to disposition items a, c and e.
• Added file closure instructions to items a and b and deleted file closure instructions for item c.
• Revised title of item e.
• Revised guidance and contact information.

This item is a major system supporting operations required by statute and regulations. Items 2 and 9 of NC1-412-81-18 were combined into one schedule item because item 2 is a component of the STORET system (item 9). Both items were previously appraised as permanent by the National Archives. ODES was previously approved as N1-412-95-4/1.

Title: Clean Watersheds Needs Survey (CWNS)

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-07-58/1

Description:

The Clean Watersheds Needs Survey (CWNS) assesses the capital investment necessary for the nation's wastewater pipes and treatment facilities, as well as in the nation's municipal stormwater management, decentralized wastewater (e.g., septic system) treatment, and nonpoint source (NPS) pollution control to meet Clean Water Act (CWA) water quality objectives. The Survey is a joint effort of EPA and the states to assess the capital investment required to build or improve municipal wastewater treatment facilities. Includes information on locations and characteristics, construction cost estimates and how they are documented, populations served by collection and treatment, flow capacity, effluent characteristics, and treatment processes. Information is collected and/or updated from states and territories and used to compile the Needs Survey Report to Congress.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: CWNS program file

Includes contracts for assistance, pilot study, procedures for conduct of survey, weekly status reports, analysis of results, and allocation formulas.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Industrial Facilities Discharge (IFD) File is scheduled as EPA 0444.

Specific legal citations include:

- Clean Water Act, as amended, Sec. 205(a), 516(b)(1)

Reasons for Disposition:

The disposition instructions were rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention is unchanged.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2010 version:

- Revised the description for the records schedule.
- Revised the description and closure instructions for item a.
- Revised the closure and disposition instructions for items b(1), b(2), and d.
- Deleted item b(3) for Final report to Congress - Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives.
- Deleted item c for Questionnaires and incorporated it into item d.
- Added item f.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2008 version:

- Revised last sentence in description to delete reference to two-year update cycle and change "each state" to "states and territories."
- Revised disposition instructions for item d to delete reference to two-year update cycle.
• Revised guidance by adding additional years for survey information.

The following changes were made in the 01/31/2008 version:

• Divided item b into three subitems, b(1)-(3).
• Revised the titles of disposition items b(1)-(3).
• Revised the disposition instruction for item b(3).

The following item was changed in the 04/27/2007 version: Database documentation was added to item d.

Item e for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications deleted 08/21/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

Title: SDWIS/Operational Data System (SDWIS/ODS)

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-03-6

Description:

The SDWIS/Operational Data System (SDWIS/ODS) is a national database storing routine information which the Agency needs to monitor approximately 175,000 public water systems (PWS) and their compliance with monitoring requirements, maximum contaminant level (MCL) regulations, and other requirements of the Safe Drinking Water Act Amendments of 1986 and 1996. On October 1, 2005, a modernized version of SDWIS/FED replaced the legacy mainframe-based version. This new version is composed of several components, notably the SDWIS/Operational Data System (SDWIS/ODS) and the SDWIS Data Warehouse. The SDWIS/ODS database receives, processes, and stores data from the states. The Data Warehouse extracts data from SDWIS/ODS quarterly and makes it available for end user access. SDWIS/ODS is not accessible to end users. The complete set of data from the legacy SDWIS/FED was copied over into SDWIS/ODS.

Information tracked includes: PWS ID number, location (including city, county), whether system is active or inactive, the type of system (community, non-transient non-community, transient non-community), population served, number of service connections, water system’s source of water, primary source of drinking water, past names, dates of the most recent update, whether or not the system is a significant non-complier, service area characteristics, longitude and latitude, treatment data, milestones for lead and copper and surface water treatment rules, and unregulated monitoring data.

Data is input by the states and used by EPA headquarters to provide required quarterly reports to other components of EPA and to satisfy external reporting requirements. It is also used by headquarters, regional offices, and states to perform oversight.

The system contains compliance information from 1980 to present and relates follow-up actions to specific violations.
Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

The Office of Water, Office of Ground Water and Drinking Water, Drinking Water Protection Division, Infrastructure Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-03-6a

- Disposable
- Close when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.
- Destroy after file closure.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-03-6b

- Disposable
- Close when data has been successfully transferred by the states.
- Delete input after the data has been successfully tested.

Item c: Electronic data

The Office of Water, Office of Ground Water and Drinking Water, Drinking Water Protection Division, Infrastructure Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-03-6c

- Permanent
- Close when program is discontinued or system is terminated.
- While system is in operation, transfer data annually to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Transfer final data to the National Archives one year after system is closed.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
- File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

The Office of Water, Office of Ground Water and Drinking Water, Drinking Water Protection Division, Infrastructure Branch at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.
• Permanent
• Transfer those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data to the National Archives annually as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

This system also covers the Long Term 2 Enhanced Surface Water Treatment (LT2) Rule Data Collection System (LT2ESWTR). LT2ESWTR contains cryptosporidium E. coli and turbidity data generated during the Long Term 2 monitoring program.

Formerly known as the Federal Reporting Data System (FRDS) and Safe Drinking Water Information System - FED (SDWIS/FED).

The Drinking Water Supply File, a component of the Reach File, is covered in EPA 0445. Drinking water management and direct implementation files are scheduled as EPA 0214.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2009 version:

• Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
• Revised wording for file closure and disposition instructions for item c.
• Revised title of item e.
- Revised guidance to include information on LT2ESWTR.
- Updated contact information.

This is a major system supporting operations required by statute and regulations for compliance and enforcement. In 1997, SDWIS/FED replaced the system known as the Federal Reporting Data System (FRDS). FRDS was previously appraised as permanent by the National Archives. SDWIS - States, a counterpart to this system is scheduled as EPA 0401.

Title: National Compliance Database (NCDB)

Program: Enforcement and Compliance Assurance

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-03-3

Description:

The National Compliance Data Base (NCDB) is a reporting application for managers at headquarters. The system tracks regional compliance and enforcement activity and manages the pesticides and toxic substances compliance and enforcement program at a national level. NCDB provides reporting, retrieval, and analytical capabilities that support all members of the user community. There are three categories of reports: (1) reporting and enforcement and compliance assurance priorities (RECAP) reports, (2) standard reports, and (3) ad hoc reports.

NCDB is the national repository of the 10 regional and headquarters FIFRA/TSCA Tracking System (FFTS) data and contains approximately 65% of the FTTS data elements. Regional FFTS data entry personnel send their data to headquarters once a month to rebuild the NCDB.

Excludes: The FTTS which is scheduled as EPA 0421.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Enforcement Planning, Targeting and Data Division at Headquarters.

business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

This system has a single source of input data which is selected from the regional FTTS, scheduled as EPA 0421. Monthly update data is transmitted to the EPA headquarters Office of Compliance and loaded into NCDB monthly.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised schedule title.
- Revised disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

Initially this system was submitted as part of EPA 0267 - FIFRA/TSCA Tracking System/National Compliance Data Base (FTTS/NCDB). During the appraisal review held on August 8, 2000, it was determined that the two systems should be scheduled separately, with the data for NCDB considered of permanent value.

Title: FIFRA/TSCA Tracking System (FTTS)

Program: Enforcement and Compliance Assurance

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-03-2

Description:

The FIFRA/TSCA Tracking System (FTTS) is a regional system used to track compliance activities such as inspections, case review, enforcement actions taken, samples collected, and pesticide grants and cooperative agreement information. The compliance monitoring and enforcement activities are tracked from the time an inspector conducts (or schedules) an inspection until the time the case is closed or the enforcement action is settled. The system provides for four categories of reports: (1) reporting and enforcement and compliance assurance priorities (RECAP), (2) standard reports, (3) ad hoc reports, and (4) tracking reports.

All 10 regions and headquarters use FTTS, but the FTTS regional databases work independently of one another. Regional FTTS data entry personnel send their data to headquarters every month to rebuild the National Compliance Data Base (NCDB).

Excludes: The NCDB scheduled as EPA 0420.

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.
FTTS acts as a local activity tracking and management tool. Each FTTS system is a stand-alone system for each regional office and is capable of functioning as a reporting tool. FTTS interacts with the NCDB to provide support for the national pesticides and toxics program.

Input data for FTTS is extracted from a variety of documents such as inspection reports, import reviews, samples, etc. In addition, all of the data contained in FTTS is not transferred to NCDB. For example, selected data such as dates and comments are not included in the monthly update to NCDB. NCDB is scheduled as EPA 0420.

Title: Underground Injection Control (UIC) Program Summary System

Program: Water, Enforcement and Compliance Assurance

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-95-4/4

Description:

Contains summary reports of individual injection well activities conducted by Underground Injection Control (UIC) primacy programs. The summary information is used by EPA for the monitoring and enforcement of the UIC portion of the Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA). EPA's monitoring and enforcement are primarily achieved through initial, bi-annual, and annual reporting requirements. EPA uses a set of standardized forms, EPA form 7520-1 through 7520-4 (7520 forms) to collect and maintain UIC information.

The following procedures for records workflow and custodianship are documented in "Underground" at the state program level and at the EPA regional level. (Regions have the role of implementing UIC programs for states, territories, and Indian tribes, which do not have their own UIC programs.) Each region forwards to headquarters a set of forms (by primacy agency) which summarizes activities conducted by all UIC programs in its jurisdiction. These summaries represent the minimum information necessary to achieve the Agency's goals and satisfy regulatory requirements (e.g., permits, compliance and enforcement, inspection, mechanical integrity testing, and inventory). Headquarters maintains the summary information from the 7520 forms on a PC-based system called the UIC Program Summary System.

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Some confidential business information (CBI) restrictions apply to access of individual Class I hazardous waste injection well information maintained at the state and regional levels.

A similar system for Region 4 is scheduled as EPA 0234. Information from the regional system is extracted and sent by mail to headquarters.

Due to a recent reorganization, enforcement data is now sent to the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance.

Reasons for Disposition:

The purpose of the UIC program is to establish a federal-state regulatory system to ensure that actual or potential sources of drinking water are not endangered by the underground injection of contaminants. EPA information users include regional and headquarters staff who make decisions to: justify budget request/program plans; make fair resource allocation/grant allotments; satisfy public and other group requests; assess program progress and implementation; identify environmental success against litigation; plan the budget; track and evaluate regional performance; identify research needs and respond to inquiries from the Office of Management and Budget, Congress, General Accounting Office, and the public. Primary enforcement agencies in state use the information to target inspection and enforcement activity; to establish permit terms and conditions; to track performance against demands; identify violations; assess their significance; and evaluate their own program activities.

Title: National Contaminant Occurrence Database (NCOD)

Program: Water

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-08-2

Description:

The National Contaminant Occurrence Database (NCOD) includes data used to identify contaminants on the Candidates Contaminant List (CCL). The data is used to determine whether to develop drinking water standards for a particular contaminant and to develop standards for the contaminants that the Agency selects. The information comes from a number of sources, including public water systems and source (ambient) water data. For public systems, the database holds historical data on regulated and unregulated contaminants. The data is available to the public.

The Safe Drinking Water Accession and Review System (SDWARS) serves as the input to NCOD, and is scheduled as EPA 0253.

Title: Hazardous Waste Injection Well Database

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-95-4/5

Description:

The Hazardous Waste Injection Well Database is a PC-based inventory of Class I wells as defined by the Safe Drinking Water Act. The system stores information obtained during a special study to collect information for the 1985 Report to Congress on Injection of Hazardous Wastes. It also provides information on alternative treatment capacity analysis in addition to scheduling which wells are affected by the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA).

The database includes the following data: facility or well owner/operator, identification and well class codes, chemical information concerning the injectate, well construction information, hydrogeological information about the area where injection occurs, waste information, RCRA codes and volumes.

The database consists of well records of active, inactive, and abandoned Class I wells and some limited information on Class I nonhazardous and Class IV wells. Since the completion of the study, few states have elected to update their information, therefore the major portion of records are only up-to-date as of 1987.

Item b: Input
NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Disposable
  - Follow instructions for EPA 0171 - Input and Source Records.

Item c: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-95-4/5c

- Disposable
  - Maintain individual records 10 years after closure, then delete.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: Supporting documentation

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-95-4/5e

- Disposable
  - Keep inactive materials in office up to 2 years after closure, then retire to FRC. Destroy when 15 years old.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Reports to Congress are scheduled as EPA 0155.

Reasons for Disposition:

Records support program rulemaking activities and operations required by statute and regulation. The disposition meets program and administrative needs.

Status: Final, 12/31/2013

Title: Industrial Facilities Discharge (IFD) File

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-95-4/6

Description:

The Industrial Facilities Discharge (IFD) File is a database of industrial point source dischargers to surface waters in the United States. There are three basic kinds of information:

- Facility - Includes site identification codes and summary effluent discharge.
- Discharge - Includes the components of individual discharges, including location, flow, and Standard Industrial Code (SIC). Nearly half of the direct dischargers tracked are POTWs (publicly-owned treatment works). Also includes indirect dischargers - industrial flows from industries that discharge to other facilities, such as POTWs, rather than directly to surface waters.
- Superfund sites on the National Priority List - Includes location name, State and county codes, latitude/longitude coordinates, Reach number, and the mileage offset within the reach.

Information is derived from several sources including the Permit Compliance System (PCS), the Needs Survey database, and EPA regional offices, states and local agencies. The File can be used for regulatory impact analyses, best available technology studies, regulation development, and special projects. It can be linked to other databases such as PCS and STORET as well as outside databases such as CETIS (Complex Effluent Toxicity Information System).

Disposition Instructions:

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Permit Compliance System (PCS) is scheduled as EPA 0419. See EPA 0405 for the Needs Survey. The Storage and Retrieval Water Quality Data Base (STORET) is covered in EPA 0400 and The Waterbody System (WBS) in EPA 0446.

Reasons for Disposition:

Records support operations of Office of Wetlands, Oceans and Watersheds as required by statute and regulation. Database consists of data extracted from other EPA databases already scheduled for permanent retention. It is a subset of the Permit Compliance System (PCS) for industrial permittees only with some publicly available information added.

Title: The Waterbody System (WBS)

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-95-4/8

Description:

The Waterbody System (WBS) is a database of state water quality assessment information collected to meet the Agency's Congressional reporting requirements under Section 305(b) of the Clean Water Act. States submit information to EPA on several types of surface waters affected by point or nonpoint source pollution, lakes monitored under the Clean Lakes Program, and surface waters requiring the assigning of total maximum daily loads limits to restore or maintain their water quality.

Information entered into WBS includes: waterbody identification, water quality status, sources of impairment, assessment information, and causes of impairment. States, territories, and interstate commissions assemble available monitoring information and make judgments on water quality before summary information can be entered into the system. Information is submitted to EPA every two years. WBS stores the components and the results of the assessment, and is not designed to store, manipulate, or analyze raw monitoring data.

The WBS is linked to the EPA Reach File and STORET. The NPDES number also links facilities reported in WBS to Industrial Facilities Discharge (IFD) system and the Permit Compliance System (PCS).

Program: Research and Development

Applicability: National Health and Environmental Effects Research Laboratory (NHEERL)

Function: 316 - Applied Research and Science Support

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-96-1/14

Description:

The EMAP IMS is a scientific system developed and implemented to support collection, analysis, documentation, and dissemination of environmental and ecosystem monitoring and assessment information. System components include a distributed database, a database housing spatial information, documented EMAP data sets and EMAP documents. The system has been active since 1992. Since 1994 the system has been available through the EMAP Web site.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Research and Development, Environmental Effects Research Laboratory, Atlantic Ecology Division.

Item e: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Research and Development, Environmental Effects Research Laboratory, Atlantic Ecology Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-96-1/14e

- Permanent
  - Transfer those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). From 1990 to 1992 various labs were collecting data. In 1992, the system was created for centralized collection. The system redesign was completed in 1996. Data continues to be collected. Very little data was collected in FY 1996 and a substantial amount of data was collected for FY 1997. Access is through the EPA Web site.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

This system is used to support EMAP scientific activities that target ecological risk assessment.

Program: Research and Development

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 316 - Applied Research and Science Support

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-06-21

Description:

The Office of Research and Development (ORD) Management Information System (OMIS) was created to provide a comprehensive automated system to assist ORD managers and staff with financial management, project tracking, human resources management, and laboratory implementation plan decisions. It allows for uniform reporting across all organizational units, reduces the number of ORD-wide calls for similar types of data, and provides a single repository of information that serves as the basis for decision making.

The system currently has four interrelated modules: Integrated Resources Management System (IRMS); Human Resources Management System (HRS); Procurement and Acquisition of Capital Equipment (PACE); and Facilities Management System (FMP).

The modules link as follows: IRMS links to the Integrated Financial Management System (IFMS); HRS links to the PeoplePlus system. All of the above links included in this schedule are or will be scheduled separately. End user access is through the EPA Internet.

This system is used to improve the process of planning, developing, and tracking performance in response to the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) requirements. IRMS ensures that ORD's annual budget is linked to ORD programmatic plans and to reconcile the budget with IFMS. HRS is designed to assist senior managers to manage their resources. PACE is designed to manage the scientific equipment program from needs review to purchase approval. FMP is designed to assist senior management in the planning, coordination, and oversight of all buildings and facilities at ORD locations. Retention meets administrative and program needs.

Title: Integrated Risk Information System (IRIS)

Program: Research and Development

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 316 - Applied Research and Science Support

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-01-1/2

Description:

The Integrated Risk Information System (IRIS) database contains summary toxicity information for use in human health risk assessment. IRIS is the Agency’s primary vehicle for communication of chronic health hazard information representing EPA consensus positions following comprehensive review by Agency scientists. It is a useful information resource tool that points the user to the underlying human and/or animal data used to support the Agency’s opinion. The system contains hazard identification and dose-response risk information for more than 500 chemicals.

IRIS is comprised of three major sections: non-cancer health effects resulting from oral exposure, non-cancer health effects resulting from inhalation exposure, and carcinogenic assessment for both oral and inhalation exposure. It contains full bibliographic citations for each substance file, directing the user to the primary cited studies and pertinent scientific literature. IRIS is accessible to the public as well as EPA staff.

Title: Verify - Vehicles and Engines Compliance Information System

Program: Air

Applicability: National Vehicle and Fuel Emissions Laboratory (NVFEL)

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-17

Description:
Verify - Vehicles and Engines Compliance Information System collects emissions and fuel economy compliance information for a variety of engines, vehicles and equipment used in transportation and other mobile source applications. Verify collects this information for EPA from manufacturers and importers. Manufacturers submit information to EPA, pay fees, and receive certificates of conformity. The information is used by EPA for compliance and enforcement activities.

The Certification and Fuel Economy Information System (CFEIS), which collected light-duty (trucks and vehicles) has been replaced by Verify. The Engine Information System (EIS) is a similar system, but collects emissions information for heavy-duty and nonroad engines. EIS will also be superseded by Verify, which is being designed and implemented in phases and will integrate all mobile source industries and compliance processes, from pre-production certification to in-use testing.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: (Reserved)

Item b: (Reserved)

Item c: Electronic data

The Office of Air and Radiation, Office of Transportation and Air Quality, Compliance Division is responsible for the disposition of this item.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-17c
- Permanent
- Close at end of the model year.
- Transfer a snapshot of the data to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time, 7 years after the file closure.

Item d: (Reserved)

Item e: (Reserved)

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Records containing copies of the certification and analyses are covered by schedule 482 - Certification Records.

To assure the protection of confidential business information (CBI) after transfer to the Center for Electronic Records, the transferring EPA office should prepare a memo setting out the statutory restrictions associated with the data. The Archivist and employees of NARA are subject to the same restrictions.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition, and is covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Input - Input, formerly item b, is covered by schedule 1012, item e.
Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item d, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, formerly item e, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data. Disposition of system documentation is covered by schedule 1012, item a.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 02/28/2015 version:

- Deleted items a, b, d and e which are covered by other schedules.
- Updated guidance and contact information.

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2010 version:

- Revised schedule title and description.
- Revised disposition instructions for item c to include 7 year transfer after file closure.
- Updated guidance and contact information.

The following changes were made in the 07/31/2008 version:

- Revised schedule title and description.
- Updated guidance and reasons for disposition.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2008 version:

- Revised the description.
- Updated contact information.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a and b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

The predecessor system, CFEIS, was previously approved as permanent (N1-412-02-8).

Title: Ann Arbor In-Use Test Data System (IUTD)

Program: Air

Applicability: National Vehicle and Fuel Emissions Laboratory (NVFEL)

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-99-5

Description:

The In-Use-Test Data System (IUTD) consists of the emission measurements obtained from autos and trucks owned and operated by the motoring public. This database is the source of information used to develop the mobile source emission factors model (MOBILE5 and successors), inspection and maintenance (I/M) effectiveness estimates, and anti-tampering credits. Most of the data is collected through the Emission Factor Program (EFP) which has been conducted annually since the early 1970s.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Air and Radiation, National Vehicle and Fuel Emissions Laboratory, Assessment and Modeling Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-99-5a

- Disposable
- Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

Title: Trends Report (TRRP)

Program: Air

Applicability: Agency-wide, with exceptions

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-99-6

Description:

The Trends Report (TRRP) system provides standard national reports used to prepare the annual "National Air Quality and Trends Report." The system is also used to set new air quality standards, and determine impacts of new standards and other air regulations. It uses standard Air Quality System (AQS) data retrieval programs to acquire AQS data on NAMS (national air monitoring station) and SLAMS (state/local air monitoring station) siting, air quality concentrations, and 50 to 100 small statistical packages (SAS) programs to perform ad hoc statistical analyses.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

To be used only by the Office of Air and Radiation, Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards, Air Quality Assessment Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-99-6a

- Disposable
- Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Follow instructions for EPA 0171.
Item c: Electronic data

To be used only by the Office of Air and Radiation, Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards, Air Quality Assessment Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-99-6c

- Disposable
  - Destroy 1 year after data is superseded.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - Close when Trends Report sent to NTIS for distribution.
  - File with related records and follow instructions for related records.

Item e: System documentation

To be used only by the Office of Air and Radiation, Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards, Air Quality Assessment Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/11a(1)

(CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Trends Report is retained according to the disposition instructions for EPA 250 for publications and promotional items.

AQS is scheduled as EPA 0496.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

This system supports various reporting functions for the Air program and is used to produce the Agency's "National Air Quality and Emissions Trends Report." It is also used for trend assessments and development of regulations and standards.

Title: RadNet

Program: Radiation

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-99-7

Description:

RadNet, formerly known as the Environmental Radiation Ambient Monitoring System (ERAMS), is a national system of monitoring stations that regularly collect air, precipitation, drinking water, and milk samples for analysis of radioactivity. The RadNet network, which has stations in each state, is used to track environmental releases of radioactivity from nuclear weapons tests, nuclear accidents and potential terrorist acts. In the future, new air stations will provide gamma data in near-real-time that will be transmitted to a central database accessible to both decision makers and the public. The RadNet database contains 23 years of environmental radiation monitoring data from all 50 states and U.S. territories and 40 years of measurements of strontium in milk. The database allows users to perform statistical analyses on subsets of data graphically, displaying these analyses. The database is linked to EPA's EnviroMapper, allowing users to display data by location. Paper records of RadNet/ERAMS data are available back to the system's inception in 1973.

Program: Air

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-08-12

Description:

The Air Quality System (AQS) serves as the national repository for ambient air quality measurements and descriptive information about the locations where the ambient air quality data are collected. The data, which is collected by state, local and tribal agencies, is periodically uploaded into AQS. It is used to track progress in implementing the national air pollution control program. For example, EPA uses the data to determine non-attainment areas for pollutants that have national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS) for trends analysis, modeling, providing the public with information about the cleanliness of the air in various areas, and for various air quality reports for Congress and others.

Users submit data via the EPA Central Data Exchange (CDX), on an as-needed basis, and the data is transferred from AQS to the Envirofacts information warehouse.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

This system was previously approved as the Aerometric Information Retrieval System (AIRS), N1-412-99-8, and consisted of four databases: Air Quality System (AQS), Air Facility System (AFS), Geo-Common (GCS), and a mapping utility called AIRS graphic (AG). Three of the four systems have been phased out. The emissions portion of AFS was phased out in 2000, and new submissions are submitted to the National Emissions Inventory (NEI), scheduled as EPA 0002. The data from the Precision and Accuracy Reporting System (PARS), approved as NC1-412-81-12/33, was transferred to AIRS in 1992. The compliance data is now managed by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance (OECA) and will be scheduled separately.

Program: Radiation

Applicability: Radiation and Indoor Environments National Laboratory (RIENL)

Function: 316 - Applied Research and Science Support

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-07-71/10

Description:
Consists of documentation of EPA employee occupational exposure to ionizing radiation while using radioactive materials or radiation producing devices in research. Includes quarterly employee exposure reports, lists of approved radioactive isotope users, Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) correspondence, policies regarding handling of radiation, questionnaires, requisitions for radioactive materials and inventories of radioactive materials.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Record copy

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-07-71/10a

- Disposable
- Close inactive records at expiration or termination of license.
- Destroy 75 years after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].
Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

If speeches are not added to the databases, the disposition is covered by EPA 0140. Records used to produce outreach materials for the public are covered in EPA 0081.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item b.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

This schedule was previously approved as N1-412-03-9 for the Administrators' and Deputy Administrators' Speeches Database. It has expanded to include final press releases that are kept in the same database.

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

With the implementation of the electronic OPF (eOPF), legacy hard copy OPFs (through August 2008), are to be retired to the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) after they are scanned into the system. Beginning September 2008, hard copy OPFs are to be destroyed one year after they have been imaged and verified. For additional information, see OPM's Guide to Personnel Records at: http://opm.gov/feddata/recguide.pdf and instructions for making requests from NPRC at: http://www.opm.gov/efoia/html/foia_contacts.asp.

Records for employees separated for active military duty who have restoration rights and employees transferred to public international organizations with reemployment rights should be kept until reemployment or expiration of restoration or reemployment rights.

Records for employees reached for reduction in force whose names have been entered on the Reemployment Priority List should be kept until employees names are removed from the Reemployment Priority List.

Records for employees who were involuntarily separated and who appeal their separation should be kept until appeals are resolved.

Records for separated employees for whom records are outstanding or for whom retirement, insurance, or other claims are being adjudicated should be kept for the additional time required to obtain and file the records or to adjudicate claims. Records for separated employees (item a(2)) will be destroyed by the National Personnel Records Center 65 years after separation from federal service.

Where there is a work situation which makes it probable that the same people will be employed repeatedly for short periods of time records should be kept for a maximum period of two years after the date of their last separation.

Records for employees who were involuntarily separated and who are entitled to severance pay under section 550.702 of the Office of Personnel Management regulations should be kept until the former employee is reemployed under an appointment limited to more than one year, after a break of more than three days, or until the severance pay fund is exhausted, whichever comes sooner.

Personnel records for Public Health Service Corps Commissioned Personnel are scheduled as EPA 0554. Appointment Files are covered in EPA 0557. Employee Performance records are scheduled as EPA 0107.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 04/30/2010 version:

- Added guidance about eOPF and retirement and destruction of hard copy records.
The following change was made in the 07/31/2008 version:

- Moved statement about destruction of records for separated employees by National Personnel Records Center from disposition item a(2) to guidance.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

If offer is accepted, file with temporary personnel papers on left side of folder (See EPA 0553, item b). Declined offers for temporary or excepted appointments are filed with the employment applications covered by EPA 0556 for examining and certification records.

Official personnel folders for civilians are covered in EPA 0553 and Public Health Service Corps commissioned personnel in EPA 0554. See EPA 0100 for appointee clearance and vetting files.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Personnel records for civilians are scheduled as EPA 0553 and Public Health Service Corps commissioned personnel as EPA 0554. Records related to employee visits to government health facilities for nonwork-related purposes not covered by this schedule are covered by EPA 0016 - Individual Non-Occupational Health Record Files. See EPA 0023 - Health Unit Control Files for logs or registers of visits to dispensaries, first aid rooms, and other types of health units.

Health care facilities' clinical records for treatment rendered to non-government workers and non-occupational injuries/illnesses are governed by the policy and guidance of the Public Health/Federal Occupational Health Agency (PH/FOH). According to those policies, non-government workers are not eligible for treatment at these centers. However, if an emergency does occur and treatment is rendered, a medical folder is established. The Health Care Provider in charge establishes the retention period for those records. A non-government worker includes AARPs, Stay-In-Schools, contractors, and the general public. For additional information, refer to the Occupational Health Center Services manual.
The NPRC will destroy long-term medical records for separated employees (Item a(2)) 75 years after birth date of employee; 60 years after date of the earliest document in the folder, if the date of birth cannot be ascertained, or 30 years after latest separation, whichever is later.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 08/31/2010 version:

- Corrected reference about NPRC destruction from 60 days to 60 years in guidance.

The following change was made in the 07/31/2008 version:

- Moved statement about destruction of records for separated employees by National Personnel Records Center from disposition item a(2) to guidance.

Conforms to NARA's General Records Schedule 1, item 21.

Title: EPA Payroll System (EPAYS)

Program: Financial Management

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 402 - Financial Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-96-1/28

Description:

The EPA Payroll System (EPAYS) is a major system featuring a standardized nationwide data entry system for time and attendance and payroll and personnel data. The system also contains a labor distribution function for Agency payroll accounting and biweekly production of payroll requirements. Additionally, the system has the ability to distribute personnel management information to meet management and regulatory reporting requirements.

EPAYS has the following components:

- PPRS - A reporting facility providing extensive data extract and report generation capability with a small subsystem to support specialized reporting for the Office of Civil Rights.
- TAPP - Provides on-line data entry and edit facilities for EPAYS processed transactions and supports the collection and edit of all payroll and personnel related data.

Disposition Instructions:

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Records covered by items b and d held in other offices are retained according to the disposition instructions for records they support.

Record copies of source documents are covered by the following schedules: EPA 0276 for time and attendance; EPA 0283 for pay folders; EPA 0553 for official personnel folders (OFP) for civilians; and EPA 0554 for agency personnel folders for Public Health Service Corps commissioned personnel.

A related system, the Integrated Financial Management System is scheduled as EPA 0054 and its predecessor the Financial Management System (FMS) as EPA 0053. The PeoplePlus system is scheduled as EPA 0300.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a and e.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

EPAYS was the primary system used for time and attendance and payroll and personnel data as well as production of reports required by regulations. Input and output records are scheduled separately.

In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].
Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Case files containing recommendations and other records pertaining to the incentive awards program are covered by EPA 0572 - Employee Awards Files.

Reasons for Disposition:

Disposition conforms to the General Records Schedule 1, item 13.

The Grants Information and Control System (GICS) is a national information management system containing administrative, project, and financial data for all EPA's grants, interagency agreements, and cooperative agreements. The system has the following components:

- Municipal construction grants program - Provides information on wastewater treatment grant applications and active construction grant projects.
- State revolving fund (SRF) program - Tracks federal funding provided to the states.
- Non-construction grants program - Contains any program’s nonconstruction grants information, including Superfund, Pesticides, and Research and Development.

Information is entered by headquarters, regions, or states. Input data includes data from automated systems. The system offers a customized data entry module, report writer, look-up tables, batch capabilities, and an online dictionary.

GICS will be replaced by the Integrated Grants Management System (IGMS).

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Administration and Resources Management at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-00-4a
• Disposable
  • Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

• Disposable
  • Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Administration and Resources Management at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-00-4c

• Disposable
  • Maintain individual records at least 7 years after completion of grant or agreement, then delete when no longer needed.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

• Varies
  • File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Administration and Resources Management at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/11a(1)

• Disposable
  • Follow instructions for EPA 0304, item a(1).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

The Grants Administration Division with the assistance of the Enterprise Systems Division of the Office of Administration and Resources Management is responsible for implementing the disposition of items a, c, and e. All related records held in other offices should be destroyed according to instructions for items b and d.

Ad hoc and monthly reports needed to document program management should be included in program management files covered by EPA 0006; otherwise they may be destroyed when no longer needed.

Grant records for programs other than Superfund are scheduled as EPA 0003 and Superfund site specific as EPA 0001. See EPA 0232 for Waste Water Construction and State Revolving Fund Grants.

The replacement system, IGMS, will be a paperless administrative system. Phase 1 includes development and deployment of the modules of the Partnership 2000 (P2000) project to States. Phase 2 includes development and deployment of modules for post award management and closeout, integration with IFMS, and development of a replacement database for GICS. Phase 3 integrates IGMS with the government-wide electronic grant application system, links grants with environmental goals and results, and extends electronic commerce to tribes and other grantees.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 07/31/2008 version:

- Moved statement about destruction of ad hoc and monthly reports from disposition item d to guidance.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for items a, b and e.
- Added applicability to disposition items a, c and e.
- Revised title of disposition item e.
This national system is used by headquarters, regions, and states to administer and monitor grants. It is used for program planning and oversight, project tracking and management, and information reporting. Proposed retention will meet all audit and litigation documentation purposes. The paper records, scheduled separately, are disposable.

Title: Criminal Case Reporting System (CCRS)

Program: Enforcement and Compliance Assurance

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-09-10

Description:

The Criminal Case Reporting System (CCRS) maintains information pertaining to individuals and companies associated with the Criminal Investigation Division's criminal leads and cases, as well as other information related to the conduct of criminal investigations. The information collected in CCRS includes investigative activity reports, investigative summary reports, subject information, and sentencing information. The information is obtained as a result of various investigative activities, including tips, complaints, interviews, surveillance, records review, evidence collection and analysis, and judicial action. The data is used to document the progress and results of criminal investigations.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Criminal Investigation Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-10a

- Disposable
  - Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Input

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/2

- Varies
- Follow instructions for EPA 0171.

Item c: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Criminal Investigation Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-10c

- Permanent
  - Transfer data annually to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time.

Item d: Output and reports

NARA Disposal Authority: Varies

- Varies
  - File with related records and follow instructions for the related records.

Item e: System documentation

This item is to be used only by the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, Criminal Investigation Division.

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-09-10e

- Permanent
  - Transfer those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates, and outputs data to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Documentation is transferred with the electronic data (item c).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). In addition to 36 CFR
Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

CCRS replaced the Criminal Docket System (CRIMDOCK) in 2006. Criminal enforcement counsel records are scheduled as EPA 0683. See EPA 0208 for criminal investigation records, and EPA 0025 and EPA 0207 for enforcement actions for Superfund site-specific and other programs, respectively. Oil spill site-specific enforcement actions are covered in EPA 0480.

Access to CCRS data is restricted to OECA, Office of Criminal Enforcement, Forensics and Training (OCEFT) employees and Regional Criminal Enforcement Counsels (RCECs).

Collection of CCRS information is inherent to CID's investigative responsibilities as mandated by Title 18 United States Code, Section 3063 (18 USC 3063), enacted under Public Law 100-582.

Reasons for Disposition:

NARA Disposal Authority: N1-412-06-4c(3)

- Disposable
  - Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
  - Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

This schedule covers a unique, program-specific collection used by EPA to produce analytical reports. Copies of aerial photographs maintained in other offices as part of a related series (e.g., Superfund remedial site files), are to be retired according to the disposition requirements of the related series.

Reference copies may be destroyed when no longer needed to support current activities.

Reasons for Disposition:

N1-412-01-4 has been rewritten to account for all versions in any media format of reports, images, and indexes.

The following changes were made in the 02/29/2008 version:

- Divided items a-c into three subitems, a(1)-(3) - c(1)-(3).
- Revised the titles of disposition items a(1)-(3) - c(1)-(3).
- Revised the disposition instruction for item a(3), b(3) and c(3).

The following items were changed 08/09/2006:

- Item c - Image Report Locator database and documentation and item d - Record copy of indexes were combined into item c - Record copy of indexes, including database tracking system(s) with documentation as well as paper map indexes with overlays.
- Item e for electronic copies of reports and indexes created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

Description:
Consists of audiovisual and related records created by or for EPA as well as those acquired in the course of business. Audiovisual records include still images, sound recordings, moving images, and graphic arts. Related records include finding aids and production or similar files documenting the origin, development, acquisition, use, and ownership of the audiovisual records.

Excludes: Audiovisual records related to EPA’s environmental missions that are covered by specific mission-related schedules (e.g., photographs related to Superfund site-specific cleanup activities); and audiovisuals received as contract or other deliverables covered by EPA 0258.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Still photography - Photographs of routine award ceremonies, social events, and activities not related to the mission of the Agency

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/1

- Disposable
- Destroy when 1 year old.

Item b: Still photography - Personnel identification or passport photographs

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/2

- Disposable
- Destroy when 5 years old or when superseded or obsolete, whichever is later.

Item c: Still photography - Internal personnel and administrative training filmstrips and slides of programs that do not reflect the mission of the Agency

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/3

- Disposable
- Destroy 1 year after completion of training program.

Item d: Graphic arts - Viewgraphs

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/5

- Disposable
- Destroy 1 year after use.

Item e: Graphic arts - Routine artwork for handbills, flyers, posters, letterhead, and other graphics

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/6
• Disposable
  • Destroy when no longer needed for publication or reprinting.

Item f: Graphic arts - Line and halftone negatives, screened paper prints and offset lithographic plates used for photomechanical reproduction

  NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/7

• Disposable
  • Destroy when no longer needed for publication or printing.

Item g: Graphic arts - Line copies of graphs and charts

  NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/8

• Disposable
  • Destroy when no longer needed for publication or reprinting.

Item h: Motion pictures - Films acquired from outside sources for personnel and management training

  NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/9

• Disposable
  • Destroy 1 year after completion of training program.

Item i: Motion pictures - Routine surveillance footage

  NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/11

• Disposable
  • Destroy when 6 months old.

Item j: Motion pictures - Routine scientific, medical, or engineering footage

  NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/12

• Disposable
  • Destroy when 2 years old.

Item k: Video recordings - Programs acquired from outside sources for personnel and management training

  NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/14

• Disposable
- Destroy 1 year after completion of training program.

Item l: Video recordings - Rehearsal or practice tapes

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/16

- Disposable
- Destroy immediately.

Item m: Video recordings - Internal personnel and administrative training programs that do not reflect the mission of the Agency

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/17

- Disposable
- Destroy 1 year after completion of training program.

Item n: Video recordings - Routine surveillance recordings

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/18

- Disposable
- Destroy when 6 months old.

Item o: Video recordings - Routine scientific, medical, or engineering recordings

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/19

- Disposable
- Destroy when 2 years old.

Item p: Video recordings - Recordings that document routine meetings and award presentations

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/20

- Disposable
- Destroy when 2 years old.

Item q: Audio recordings - Recordings of meetings made exclusively for note taking or transcription

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/22

- Disposable
- Destroy immediately after use.
Item r: Audio recordings - Dictation belts or tapes

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/23

- Disposable
- Destroy immediately after use.

Item s: Audio recordings - Premix sound elements created during the course of a motion picture, television, or radio production

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/24

- Disposable
- Destroy immediately after use.

Item t: Audio recordings - Daily or spot news recordings available to local radio stations on a call-in basis

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/26

- Disposable
- Destroy when 6 months old.

Item u: Related documentation - Production files or similar files that document origin, development, acquisition, use, and ownership of temporary audiovisual records

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/28

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for related records.

Item v: Related documentation - Finding aids for identification, retrieval, or use of temporary audiovisual records

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 21/29

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for related records.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Audiovisual records are to be managed in accordance to standards in 36 CFR 1228.266 and 1232.

The organization responsible for producing or acquiring the audiovisuals maintains the record copy and implements the disposition. All other copies may be destroyed when no longer needed.

Audiovisuals supporting records related to EPA’s environmental missions (e.g., enforcement actions, site cleanups, etc.) must be linked to the appropriate file (e.g., cross reference sheet in the case file and notation on the audiovisual label) and dispositioned according to the instructions for the records they support. Collections of audiovisuals supporting EPA’s environmental missions and not covered by existing schedules must be scheduled separately.

Reasons for Disposition:

Conforms to NARA’s General Records Schedule 21.

The following EPA schedules were deleted and combined into this schedule:

- EPA 0708 - Routine Photographs and Slides. See item a.
- EPA 0713 - Audiovisual Finding Aids and Related Documentation. See items u and v.
- EPA 0714 - Viewgraphs. See item d.
- EPA 0717 - Routine Surveillance Motion Pictures. See item i.
- EPA 0718 - Routine Scientific, Medical or Engineering Motion Pictures. See item j.
- EPA 0721 - Routine Meeting and Award Presentation Videos. See item p.
- EPA 0723 - Internal Management News or Information Videos. See item p.
- EPA 0726 - Videos Acquired from Outside Sources. See item k.
- EPA 0727 - Sound Recordings of Meetings for Notetaking or Transcription. See item q.
- EPA 0728 - Pre-Mix Sound Recording Elements. See item s.
- EPA 0729 - Daily or Spot News Sound Recordings. See item t.

IGOR is scheduled as EPA 0707 and the other administrative systems are covered by EPA 0090.

Copies of systems documentation (e.g., user manuals) held in offices other than OARM are nonrecords and can be destroyed when no longer needed.

Privacy Act systems of records covered by this schedule include, but are not limited to:

- EPA 10 - EPA Parking Control Office File
- EPA 19 - EPA Identification Card Record
- EPA 35 - EPA Transit and Guaranteed Ride Home Program Files
- EPA 41 - EPA Office of Administrative Services Information System (OASIS)
- EPA 44 - EPA Personnel Emergency Contact Files

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2009 version:

- Revised title of disposition item e.
- Made minor edits to guidance.

The following change was made in the 03/31/2009 version:

- Revised description and cross references.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2008 version:

- Revised title of disposition item a.
- Revised the disposition instructions for items b and e.

The purpose of this system is to centralize a number of legacy systems under common control to comply with EPA’s Enterprise Architecture. The retention of the data conforms to General Records Schedule (GRS) 20/3b(1) and the retention of the input conforms to GRS 20/1 and 2.

Title: Enterprise Content Management System (ECMS)

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 404 - Technology Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- Varies

Description:

The Enterprise Content Management System (ECMS) is a software application used to capture, categorize, store, retrieve and disposition EPA's unstructured information. The software is commercial off-the-shelf (COTS), customized to meet the Agency's business needs. The first phase of implementation, currently underway, is the management of e-mail records. Future phases of implementation include the management of other records, Web content, documents and workflows.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

The Office of Environmental Information, Collection Strategies Division at Headquarters is responsible for the disposition of this item.

- Disposable
  - Destroy when no longer needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period.

Item b: Source data

The office entering the data is responsible for the disposition of this item.

The ECMS project management office in the Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Collection, Collection Strategies Division is responsible for maintaining the software application. The National Records Management Program manages the retention policies and Agency-wide file structure, and creates records holds on records subject to litigation. Records Liaison Officers manage event-based retentions, implement records holds and maintain their organizational file structures.

Records related to operation of the system are covered by EPA 0136 for IT operations. See EPA 0142 for IT customer service files such as help desk logs and reports. ECMS retains and dispositions RLO reports (both auto-generated and manually run); copies that are exported from the system may be destroyed when no longer needed.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 11/30/2008 version:

- Changed program and applicability to All Programs, Agency-wide.

The following change was made in the 04/30/2008 version:

Title: Beach Advisory and Closing On-line Notification (BEACON)

Program: Water

Applicability: Agency-wide, with exceptions

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-18

Description:

The Beach Advisory and Closing On-line Notification (BEACON) is an electronic system that receives and displays nonrecord copies of state beach water quality and swimming advisory data. The Beaches Environmental Assessment and Coastal Health Act of 2000 requires EPA to collect, store and maintain a public right-to-know pollution occurrence database on state designated coastal recreation waters. These record copies are stored in the Program Tracking, Advisories, Water Quality Standards, and Nutrients (PRAWN) database.

State agencies send beach data via EPA's Central Data Exchange (CDX). Input for the system flows through the Electronic Beaches Environmental Assessment and Coastal Health (eBeaches) system and includes: (1) monitoring and station location information from the Water Quality Exchange (WQX) and STORET; (2) notification data flows from the Program tracking, Beach Advisory, Water quality standard, and Nutrient database (PRAWN); and, (3) beach location data from the Reach Address Database (RAD). BEACON was formerly known as the National Health Beach Survey (NHBS).

Excludes: STORET (including WQX) scheduled as EPA 400, Reach (including RAD) which is the responsibility of the United States Geological Survey, and PRAWN which is scheduled separately.

Title: Stationary Source Audit Program (SSAP)

Program: Air

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-3

Description:

The Stationary Source Audit Program (SSAP) is a database that allows federal, state and local regulatory agencies to order audit samples for compliance testing and report their results to EPA. The regulatory agencies key the data into the system and can get pass/fail results as well as print a variety of reports. The database was created in 2000 and includes data from 1984 to the present.

Title: RACT/BACT/LAER Clearinghouse (RBLC)

Program: Air

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-09-2

Description:

The RACT (Reasonably Available Control Technology)/BACT (Best Available Control Technology)/LAER (Lowest Achievable Emission Rate) Clearinghouse (RBLC) helps permit applicants and reviewers make pollution prevention and control technology decisions for stationary air pollution sources. RBLC contains summary information from state and local air pollution control permits issued in the U.S. since 1982. Data includes facilities that apply for construction permits; the basis for emission limits for each facility; pertinent source operating parameters such as process types, pollutant emission rates, pollution prevention techniques, add-on control equipment or other technology; permitting agency contacts; and scheduling data. A regulation database contains data about federal regulations governing air pollutant emissions. State and local air pollution control agency personnel submit data to EPA or directly enter data via EPA's Web site.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 20/11a(1)

- Disposable
  - Follow instructions for EPA 0304, item a(1).

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR
1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Specific legal citations include, but are not limited to:

- Clean Air Act, as amended, Sections 173(d) and 108(h)

NARA Disposal Authority:
- N1-412-09-14

Description:

The Water Quality Standards Database (WQSDB) provides Internet accessible water quality standards (WQS) and criteria by waterbody in text, table and map format for the 86 jurisdictions currently with EPA approved WQS. Some of the information in the WQSDB is extracted from EPA approved versions of state WQS documents stored in the Water Quality Standards Data Repository (WQSDR). The WQSDR is a collection of Web pages and files that is managed as part of the Office of Science and Technology Web site.

WQSDB reports include information on designated uses, waterbody names, state numeric water quality criteria, and EPA recommended numeric water quality criteria and the information can be compared across the nation. The data in both the WQSDB and WQSDR are used by decision-makers and the general public for program administration, watershed planning and other actions that could affect maintaining or achieving water quality goals.

Specific legal citations include, but are not limited to:

- Clean Water Act, Â§303(c)(2)(A)
- 40 CFR Â§131.6

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made to the 06/30/2009 version:

- Revised file closure instructions for items b, c, d and f.
- Revised disposition instructions for items c, d and f.
- Revised disposition for items e and f.
• Added reasons for disposition.

The retention meets EPA's business needs. As part of EPA's business process, when EPA has to approve or disapprove a state WQS, it may need to research the prior water quality and uses made of a particular water body -- back to December 28, 1975 (40 CFR Â§131.3(e)). November 28, 1975 is the date EPA promulgated the initial Federal water quality standards regulations related to existing uses [cite: 40 CFR Â§55334 (Nov. 28, 1975)]; and 40 CFR Â§131.10(g)].

Program: Water

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- N1-412-09-15

Description:

The Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (DWSRF) National Information Management System (DWNIMS) is EPA's information system for national management of the DWSRF program. The purpose is to report the status and progress of the DWSRF program. The data are also used for oversight purposes and financial analysis. Results from the data collections are presented at the Council of Infrastructure Financing Authorities (CIFA) annual conferences. All current DWSRF strategic goals are measured and updated with data from DWNIMS.

Current and proposed measures include number of loans, number of projects initiating operations, the Return on Federal Investments, the Fund Utilization Rate, and number of out-of-compliance systems brought into compliance with health-based standards. Input data is received from states and entered into the database either through a Web-portal or a spreadsheet. Output includes national, regional and state reports. Data is currently available for state fiscal years (July-June) beginning 1997.

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program, formerly item a, is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition.

Input - For disposition of input, formerly item b, follow the instructions in EPA 0171, item b (GRS 20/2b).

Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives - The electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives, formerly item d, are nonrecords and can be deleted after the transfer is successful.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports, formerly item e, refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, formerly item f, refers to those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data. System documentation is transferred to the National Archives along with the electronic data. Disposition of system documentation conforms to EPA 0304, item a(2) and GRS 20/11a(2) which provide direction to follow the disposition instructions for the electronic data.

The Beach Advisory and Closing On-line Notification (BEACON) system is scheduled as EPA 0744.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2012 version:
Moved from development status to final.
Added NARA disposal authority number and approval date.
Deleted items a - electronic software program, b - input, d - electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives, e - output and reports, and f - system documentation and moved them to guidance since they are covered by other schedules.
Moved item c - electronic data to item a.
Moved disposition statement about the copy of the data while the system is in operation to the disposition instructions instead of the file closure instructions.

The retention meets EPA's business needs.

Title: Underground Injection Control National Database (UIC DB)

Program: Water

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- DAA-0412-2013-0003-0001 (Item a)
- DAA-0412-2013-0003-0002 (Item b)

Description:

The UIC National Database (UIC DB) supports the EPA oversight and management of the Underground Injection Control (UIC) programs directly implemented by the EPA Regions, State and tribal governments to regulate the owners and operators of underground injection wells (UIC) in order to prevent endangerment of underground sources of drinking water. EPA has awarded selected States with primary enforcement authority (primacy) to implement federal requirements and has assumed direct implementation authority (DI) for all State and Tribal programs without primacy.

The UIC DB, initially deployed in 2007, is a relational database management system composed of UIC facility and well inventory permit, inspection, violation and enforcement data. The UIC DB flows data from the 69 UIC programs (57 states, 2 Tribal and 10 Regional DI). The source data received from the primacy states and Regional DI programs are submitted through the Central Data Exchange (CDX), validated and then parsed and loaded into the preproduction version of the UIC DB. Once reviewed and accepted by EPA, the preproduction version is imported into the production version of the UIC DB. Submitted data replace the previous data files on a quarterly basis. The UIC data in the production version of the UIC DB will be used to support the Agency's response to any queries, including from the public. Both versions of the UIC DB are on an Oracle application server at the National Computer Center (NCC). This database is maintained by the headquarters Office of Water.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic data

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0003-0001
- Permanent
  - Close when program is discontinued or system is terminated.
  - When system is in operation, transfer a copy of the data from the production version of the UIC DB every 5 years to the National Archives, as specified in 36 CFR 1235.44-1235.50 or standards applicable at the time. Transfer final data to the National Archives 6 months after system is closed.

Item b: Input

Includes input from primacy states and Regional DI programs.

- Disposable
  - Close when data have been entered into the master file or database and verified, or when no longer required to support reconstruction of, or serve as backup to, a master file or database, whichever is later.
  - Destroy immediately after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Until a primacy state or regional DI program transitions to the UIC database as its data of record, all official UIC reporting to EPA from a primacy state and regional DI program continues to be done at a summary level through the 7520s or the Performance Accountable Measures. Full implementation of the UIC National Database for all UIC programs is projected to be 2013. The regional DI databases will continue in operation after its other reporting transitions to use of the UIC database.
EPA regional offices maintain separate databases for the State and Tribal programs they directly implement containing detailed information on wells including well operators, ownership, nature and type of wells, operating status, and permits. Implementation varies from region to region. Some information from these regional systems is extracted and sent to EPA headquarters for the UIC Program Summary System. Regional systems may include additional fields not reported in the UIC DB, but deemed to be important by the offices. In the EPA regional office in Chicago, for example, a tribal code is entered to designate which reservation the well is located within.

UIC permits are covered by EPA 0205. See EPA 0207 for enforcement action files and EPA 0211 for compliance files. The Underground Injection Control (UIC) Program Summary System maintained by headquarters is covered by EPA 0432.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program will be covered by EPA 1012, Information and Technology Management, which is in development.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation consisting of file specifications for relational tables, code books, record layouts, and other records necessary to describe the data transferred to the National Archives is permanent and is covered by EPA 0304, item a(2) and GRS 20/11a(2) which provide direction to follow the disposition instructions for the electronic data. System documentation consisting of those records necessary to document how the system captures, manipulates and outputs data while in operation at EPA is disposable and is covered by EPA 0125, item b(1) and GRS 24/3b(1).

System development documentation - System development documentation, including but not limited to implementation plans, flow status, milestones, target completion dates, and business rules for data validation, is maintained in EPA's Central Data Exchange (CDX) and covered by EPA 0097, item c.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 05/31/2013 version:

- Revised item a disposition instructions to transfer the data every five years.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2013 version:

- Revised item a disposition instructions to identify which version of system is transferred.
• Updated contact information.

The UIC National Database was developed in response to a growing need for consistent well related information for use in decision making, regulatory activities and reporting to Congress. The data in the regional databases was previously approved as permanent (N1-412-06-31).

Title: Labor and Employee Relations Information System (LERIS)

Program: Personnel

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 403 - Human Resources Management

NARA Disposal Authority:
- DAA-0412-2015-0002

Description:

The Labor and Employee Relations Information System (LERIS) is a case management and tracking system. The system contains a variety of information pertaining to union activity (grievances, unfair labor practices (ULPs)), and employee disciplinary/adverse actions (suspensions, removals, etc.). LERIS can produce various data reports and analyze comparable cases from across the Agency. Common searches are for (1) comparable cases, i.e., searching for cases involving similar offenses in order to compare the penalties given; and, (2) linking labor relations (LR) and employee relations (ER) cases, i.e., disciplinary actions and subsequent appeals. Specific types of information contained in LERIS include: disciplinary, adverse and performance-based actions; negotiated grievances (i.e., union-affiliated); administrative grievances (for non-bargaining unit employees); unfair labor practices; negotiations and predecisional involvement (PDI) activities; formal meetings/discussions; counseling, including leave restriction; performance assistance plans and performance improvement plans; union information requests; and unit clarification petitions.

In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by EPA 1012, Information and Technology Management, item e.

Input - Input is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

Related schedules - See schedule 0107 for employee performance file system; schedule 0561 for personnel correspondence and forms files relating to individual employees; schedule 0563 for performance rating appeals; schedule 0564 for administrative grievance, disciplinary, and adverse action files; and schedule 0577 for labor management relations records.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 02/28/2015 version:
• Added types of information contained in LERIS to the description.
• Revised wording of disposition instructions.
• Added related schedules to guidance.

The following changes were made in the 12/31/2014 version:

• Moved from development to draft status.
• Added NARA disposal authority number and EPA approval date.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2014 version:

• Revised the disposition instructions.
• Updated contact information.

LERIS helps EPA more effectively track, manage and report on labor and employee relations cases throughout the Agency, and to respond to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) landmark decision referred to as the "Douglas Factors." The legal authority for this system is the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute (5 USC Chapter 71) and Merit Systems Protection Board decision Douglas vs. Veterans Administration, 5 MSPR 280.

Title: Emergency Management Portal (EMP)

Program: Emergency Prevention, Preparedness and Response

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 108 - Environmental Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- DAA-0412-2015-0003

Description:

The Emergency Management Portal (EMP) serves as a gateway to various emergency preparedness, prevention and emergency response applications. Currently, EMP is the portal to five applications listed below.

Field Readiness (FR) provides a single source for all training records and serves as the central source for skill and expertise tracking for emergency response personnel (Response Support Corps (RSC)) across the Agency.

Equipment Tracking (ETM) allows the emergency response community to track the location, status and maintenance of all equipment and parts and supplies within emergency response warehouses, using standardized vocabularies such as model names and status terms.

Oil Database (Oil DB) serves as a central, nationally-consistent platform for the Agency's Oil Spill Pollution Prevention Program tracking and measurement reporting. It enables users to search for and add facilities, generate reports, and store critical information such as inspection data, discharge history, and compliance data. The EMP Oil Application serves as the official database for the program.

Sampling-Monitoring and Analysis (SMA) is used only during incidents of national significance to collate regional sampling and monitoring information, present it to the office subject matter expert for review, and make it available for public dissemination.

The Local Government Reimbursement (LGR) database is used to manage local government applications for grants. It is a database of documents and notes from reviewers and allows generation of final payment documents and letters.
The system also contains an administrative module (EMP-Admin) which functions as the administration module for various applications, and the Emergency Management Business Intelligence (EMBI) tool which allows for both standardized and ad hoc reporting of the data from several of the EMP applications.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic data

This item is to be used only by the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response, Office of Emergency Management.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2015-0003-0001

- Disposable
- Close individual records after completion of action.
- Destroy 5 years after file closure or when no longer needed for current Agency business, whichever is longer.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see â€œBasic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPAâ€• on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic software program - The electronic software program is to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. The electronic software program is covered by EPA 1012, Information and Technology Management, item e.
Input - Input is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

Output and reports - For disposition of output and reports refer to the records schedule for the activity supported by the output and reports. Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule item. If more than one records schedule or item applies, follow the disposition instructions with the later dates.

System documentation - System documentation, including system development documentation, is covered by EPA 1012, item e.

Related schedules - See schedule 0054 for Compass Financials, schedule 0096 for FRS, and schedule 0027 for ICIS.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 09/30/2015 version:

- Moved from draft to final status.
- Added NARA approval date.

The following change was made in the 07/31/2015 version:

- Revised disposition instructions.

The following changes were made in the 03/31/2015 version:

- Moved from development to draft status.
- Added NARA disposal authority number and EPA approval date.

The following changes were made in the 02/28/2015 version:

- Revised the description, disposition instructions, guidance and contacts.

EMP was developed in response to a growing need across the Agency for a consistent collection and management of data documenting the prevention, preparedness and response information associated with disaster and other catastrophic events. The legal authorities include the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act (EPCRA), the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA), the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (CERCLA), the Oil Pollution Act (OPA), and the Clean Water Act (CWA) Section 311.

Title: Personal Papers

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: N/A - not applicable

NARA Disposal Authority:
- Not applicable

Description:

Personal papers are documentary materials, or any reasonably segregable portion thereof, of a private or nonpublic character that do not relate to, or have an effect upon, the conduct of Agency business. Personal papers are excluded from the definition of records in 44 U.S.C. Section 3301 and are not owned by the Agency.

Examples of personal papers include: (1) Materials accumulated by an official before joining government service that are not used subsequently in the transaction of government business; (2) Materials relating solely to an individual's private affairs, such as outside business pursuits, professional affiliations, or private political associations that do not relate to Agency business; and, (3) Diaries, journals, personal correspondence, or other personal notes that are not prepared or used for, or circulated or communicated in the course of, transacting government business.

Disposition Instructions:
- Disposable
- Destroy or remove at the discretion of the owner.

Guidance:

If information about private matters and Agency business appears in the same document, the document should be copied at the time of receipt, with the personal information deleted, and treated as a federal record.

Personal papers must be clearly designated as such and at all times be maintained separately from the Agency's records. The use of a label such as "personal," "confidential," "private," or similar designation, is not sufficient to determine that materials are personal papers. Even though they may have designations such as "personal," the materials are federal records subject to the provisions of pertinent laws and regulations (1) if they are created or received by the Agency to conduct government business and (2) if they are preserved or appropriate for preservation because they document the Agency's organization, functions, and activities or contain information on the persons, places, things, or matters dealt with by the Agency.

For Nonrecords, see EPA 0008.

Reasons for Disposition:

Personal papers are identified in 36 CFR Section 1222.36. NARA guidance states "...personal papers may be destroyed or removed at the owner's discretion."

Title: Safety and Health

Program: Safety and Health

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 401 - Administrative Management

NARA Disposal Authority:

- DAA-0412-2012-0002-0001 (Item a)
- DAA-0412-2012-0002-0002 (Item b)

Description:

This schedule covers records related to the activities to establish and develop internal safety, health, and environmental management program policies, management and administrative systems, program models, and operating policies that address the mission-oriented activities throughout the Agency at Agency offices, laboratories, field sites, research vessels, and diving operations. Includes records related to the evaluation of working conditions and resolving occupational and environmental risks and hazards, including strategies to reduce the Agency’s internal use of chemicals and its volume of hazardous waste. Also includes records related to on-site investigations, audits, and program evaluations of current space as well as new construction, renovation, lease and closure plans to determine compliance with statutory and regulatory mandates; development and monitoring of corrective actions; and managing the wellness center, health unit, and activities of the labor/management inspection team.

Excludes: records contained in the employee medical folder and medical monitoring records.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Property safety inspections

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Reports of surveys and inspections of government-owned facilities conducted to ensure adequacy of protective and preventive measures taken against hazards of fire, explosion, and accidents; and
- Safety inspections for EPA real and personal property.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0002-0001
- Disposable
  - Close after sale, release, or disposal of property.
  - Destroy 7 years after file closure.

Item b: Other safety and health records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Health and safety training;
- Industrial hygiene files;
- Reports and related records concerning investigations of fires, explosions and accidents, consisting of retained copies when the original reports are submitted for review and filing in other agencies or organizational elements, and reports and related records concerning occurrences of such a minor nature that they are settled locally without referral to other organizational elements; and
- Safety standards and practices, including safe location design, layout, equipment, and construction of Agency facilities and other areas requiring safety standards.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0002-0002

- Disposable
  - Close at end of calendar year, or when superseded or obsolete.
  - Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. - Disposable
  - Close upon closeout of the agreement or when action is completed.
  - Destroy 10 years after file closure.

Item c: Unsuccessful grant applications

Includes: unsuccessful grant application files, including applications, proposals, correspondence, and other records related to unsuccessful (e.g., rejected, withdrawn, not selected for award under a competition) applications and unsolicited proposals that are not accepted for award.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-GRS-2013-0008-0006

- Disposable
  - Close after rejection or withdrawal.
  - Destroy 3 years after file closure.

Guidance:
Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Agreement closeout - Agreement closeout is when EPA determines all administrative actions and required work is completed (submission of the final expenditure report) or when the agreement is terminated or annulled and any disputes settled. Final closeout documentation may consist of an internal EPA memo. In the case of treatment works which are privatized (Executive Order 12803, dated April 30, 1992), documentation needs to be maintained until grant money is repaid or it is determined that no repayment is due.

Record copies:

- The Grants Administrator (also called the Grants Management Officer), Grant Project Officer, and Financial Management Officer are responsible for the record copies of grant records and implementing the disposition. Records may include unique program files maintained by the grant project officer or client or technical representative and documentation relating to the assistance agreement competitions. All other copies may be destroyed when no longer needed.
- Examples of records kept by the Grants Management Officer (Grants Specialist) include: applications; reviews and amendments related to the application; administrative review checklist; certifications; agreements and any amendments; award documentation including documentation supporting the decision to make an award; requests for deviations; stop work orders; documentation relating to termination actions; disputes and appeals, annulments and audits; legal opinions; increases and decreases; correspondence; and other related documents.
- Examples of records kept by the Program Office (Project Officer) include: documents used for day-to-day technical assistance for the grant or interagency agreement such as draft and final products and deliverables; work plans and progress reports; draft documents and comments provided or other records of technical direction; copies of applications, awards, amendments and other administrative and financial documents; documentation related to the competition of assistance agreements including announcements, correspondence with applicants, evaluation and selection documentation, and other documents related to the selection or non-selection of applications for award of an agreement; and documents related to requests and justifications for the non-competitive award of assistance agreements and disputes.

- Examples of records kept by the Financial Management Officer include: reimbursement requests, payment vouchers, payment files, federal cash transaction reports; copies of financial status report and other related documents.
- Grants Specialists and Grants Management Officers should maintain a record of all evaluative on-site visits and/or desk review protocols and reports in the official project files.
- The GMOs receive final certification of project completion from project officers. The GMOs are responsible for requesting final audits, if applicable and required for closeout.
- The office issuing the decision on a grant appeal is the office responsible for maintaining the record copy.

EPA Policy on Compliance, Review and Monitoring - See EPA Order 5700.6 - Policy on Compliance, Review and Monitoring for additional information on EPA's post-award grant policies and procedures.

Audits, appeals, and other kinds of legal actions - Grants and agreements that are being audited, appealed, or in any other kind of legal action cannot be destroyed until the case is closed.

Superfund, Brownfields, and oil spill site-specific grants - Superfund, Brownfields, and oil spill site-specific grants and other program support agreements are covered by schedule 1036.

Final deliverables and reports - See EPA 1035 for final deliverables and reports for grants related to EPA's environmental missions, except for Superfund, Brownfields, and oil site-specific final deliverables and reports which are covered by EPA 1036. See EPA 1006 for final deliverables and reports for nonenvironmental grants.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 05/31/2015 version:

- Added "with exceptions" to Program, and added exceptions to item b.

The following change was made in the 12/31/2014 version:

- Updated disposition authority number for item c to conform to revised General Records Schedule.

This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.

Guidance:
Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

FAIR records - FAIR records maintained by offices other than the Office of Administration and Resources Management are covered by schedule 1006.

Successful bids and proposals - Successful bids and proposals are filed with the related contract records and follow the disposition instructions for the related contracts.

Solicited and unsolicited unsuccessful bids and proposals for large purchases - If solicited and unsolicited unsuccessful bids and proposals for large purchases are filed with the contract files, follow the disposition instructions for the related contracts.

Purchase cards - Employees making purchases using the U.S. Government Purchase Card system are responsible for maintaining the documentation according to the disposition instructions for item d.

Site-specific acquisitions and contracts - Records related to Superfund, Brownfields, and oil spill site-specific funding or payment require special handling and are covered by schedule 1036. Contracts that are not site specific are covered by this schedule. The contract-level COR is responsible for determining whether the contract is covered by this schedule or the site-specific schedule.

Final deliverables and reports - See schedule 1035 for final deliverables and reports for contracts related to EPA’s environmental missions, except for Superfund, Brownfields, and oil spill site-specific final deliverables and reports which are covered by schedule 1036. See schedule 1006 for final deliverables and reports for nonenvironmental contracts.

Unopened bids for canceled solicitations - Unopened bids for canceled solicitations (formerly item f) should be returned to the bidder.
Contracting officers and CORs - Contracting officers and CORs should work together to determine who is responsible for maintaining specific documents to minimize duplication while still providing an adequate audit trail. The following are general guidelines:

- Contracting Officer (CO) - Record copy of RFPs; successful bids and proposals; contract and modifications; copies of financial and payment documents; contract specifications, drawings or manuals incorporated into the contract by reference; performance evaluations; technical and financial progress reports; statements of work (SOWs) and level of effort (LOE) documents; COR designations; notices to proceed, stop work or correct deficiencies; and related documents.
- Contract-level COR - Supporting documentation of performance evaluations, technical and financial progress reports, invoices and invoice approvals.
- Other CORs - Record copy of documents used for day-to-day technical direction of the task order or work assignment. Documents include work plans and schedules, amendments and/or modifications, draft deliverables submitted by the contractor, comments provided to the contractor or other records of technical direction, contract monitoring logs and communication records, cost estimates, meeting records and notes, evaluation forms, supporting documentation for statements of work (SOWs) and level of effort (LOE) documents, amendments and modifications, invoices and invoice approvals.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 03/31/2015 version:

- Added guidelines for records maintenance by COs and CORs.

The following change was made in the 01/31/2015 version:

- Deleted item f for unopened bids for canceled solicitations due to revision of NARA’s General Records Schedule, transmittal 23.

The following change was made in the 01/31/2014 version:

- Revised wording for simplified acquisition threshold and construction contracts in items b and d.

This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.

Guidance:

Media neutral â€“ This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].
Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Leave application files - Leave application files, formerly covered by schedule 0279 items a(1) and a(2) (GRS 2/6a and 6b), are supporting documentation for time and attendance records and covered by item f of this schedule. Leave records prepared upon transfer or separation, formerly covered by schedule 0279 item b(1) (GRS 2/9a) are filed on the right side of the official personnel folder (OPF). Leave records maintained by the creating office, formerly covered by schedule 0279b(2) (GRS 2/9b), are covered by schedule 1006, item b. The record copy of electronic leave forms submitted for approval via the WebForms system or similar systems (covered by schedule 0004) do not need to be printed and can be maintained electronically according to the disposition instructions for item f.

The EPA Payroll System (EPAYS) is scheduled as EPA 0573, and PeoplePlus as EPA 0300. The record copy of the annual budget submitted to the Administrator, OMB, and the President is covered by schedule 0299, item c(1).

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 01/31/2015 version:

- Updated GRS disposal authority numbers for items g and h due to revision of NARA’s General Records Schedule, transmittal 23.

This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.

- DAA-0412-2013-0011-0004 (Item d)
- General Records Schedule 23/7 (Item e)

Description:
This schedule covers records related to the day-to-day management and maintenance of the internal infrastructure. Includes records accumulated by individual offices that relate to the internal administration or housekeeping activities of the office rather than the functions for which the office exists, such as general correspondence, controlled correspondence and calendars for employees other than senior officials; committee and internal staff meeting records; EPA form development records; final deliverables and reports for administrative activities; routine mission and operational program management records, such as activity and progress reports, statistical and workload reports, records management documentation, workload and timekeeping records maintained by timekeepers and other employees; reading files; mailing lists; reminders to take action; and similar records.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Controlled and major correspondence for employees other than senior officials

Senior officials include Presidential appointees, Deputies (e.g., Principal, Assistant, etc.) and Special Counsels or Trusted Advisors of Presidential appointees, and Senior Executive Service (SES) employees as identified in the EPA Senior Leaders Directory.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0011-0001

- Disposable
- Close at end of calendar year or when no longer needed for current agency business.
• Destroy 10 years after file closure.

Item b: Other administrative management records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Calendars, schedules, and logs of daily activities containing substantive information regarding daily activities for federal employees other than senior officials;
- Committee and internal staff meeting records, including agendas, meeting arrangements and minutes, final reports and related records created by or documenting the accomplishments of intra-agency and internal committees and workgroups;
- Copies and background materials related to Circular No. A-76 maintained by offices other than the office having primary responsibility;
- EPA forms and supporting materials showing inception, scope and purpose;
- Final deliverables and reports related to administrative activities;
- General correspondence files, including non-controlled correspondence relating to work assignments, personnel needs, and other routine activities of the office;
- Program management files maintained by other than senior officials related to the ongoing management of mission and operational programs and projects, including correspondence, staff meeting records, routine office procedures, reports related to general policy and program matters (e.g., Superfund Comprehensive Accomplishment Plan (SCAP) reports), oversight reviews, interagency activities, routine management of environmental management systems (EMS), and project files showing assignments, progress, and completion of projects;
- Records management documentation, including records inventories, records disposal, requests for disposition authority, transfer authorizations;
- Routine office management records, including activity, progress, statistical, and workload reports, office staffing, procedures, routine training materials, communications, services (e.g., printing, post office, private mail, delivery, transportation and freight companies), supplies and equipment, expenditure and disbursement of funds (e.g., employee transportation subsidies), budget papers; and
- Time and attendance source and leave records maintained by timekeepers, including time and attendance records such as time or sign-in sheets, flextime records (e.g., biweekly maxiflex schedules), leave applications for jury and military duty, authorizations for premium pay or overtime, supervisor time sheet certifications, and related documents.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0011-0002

Disposable

• Close when discontinued, superseded, or canceled, or when no longer needed for current agency business.
• Destroy 6 years after file closure.

Item c: Reading files

Includes reading or "chron" files used for convenience of reference.
Item d: Short-term administrative management records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Ad hoc printouts that do not contain substantive information, such as substantive annotations, that are not included in the electronic records;
- Contact and mailing list source records such as correspondence and request forms;
- Time and attendance convenience copies held by employees; and
- Word processing files, spreadsheets, and electronic mail after the record copy is placed into a recordkeeping system.

Item e: Transitory files

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Routine requests for information or publications and copies of replies which require no administrative action, no policy decision, and no special compilation or research for reply;
- Originating office copies of letters of transmittal that do not add any information to that contained in the transmitted material, and receiving office copy if filed separately from transmitted material;
- Quasi-official notices, including memoranda and other records that do not serve as the basis of official actions, such as notices of holidays or charity and welfare fund appeals, bond campaigns, and similar records;
- Records documenting routine activities containing no substantive information, such as routine notifications of meetings, scheduling of work-related trips and visits, and other scheduling related activities; and
- Suspense and tickler files or "to-do" and task lists that serve as a reminder that an action is required on a given date or that a reply to action is expected, and if not received, should be traced on a given date.
• Close when no longer needed for current agency business.
• Destroy 180 days after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Senior officials - Records of senior officials are covered by schedule 1051. The senior official's role is defined by position and not by the person holding the position. If someone is acting in a senior leader's position as identified in the EPA Senior Leaders Directory, and is not an SES employee, the records are permanent and covered by schedule 1051 item a.

Calendars - Portions of calendars that do not pertain to official Agency business may be personal papers. Personal items may be redacted prior to submittal. For instructions on determining whether a specific item is a record or a personal paper, see Agency and federal guidance. If the record copy of a calendar is maintained in paper format, the Lotus Notes "calendar list" or the "print detailed agenda calendar" option in Outlook is recommended for printing. Instructions for capturing electronic calendars maintained in Lotus Notes or Outlook and saving them as records in EZ Email can be found at http://intranet.epa.gov/ecms/guides. Calendars for senior officials are covered by schedule 1051.

Committees - The committee chair designates the records custodian who maintains the official copy of committee records and applies the disposition instructions. Records maintained by the sponsor or secretariat of advisory commissions, committees, councils, boards, and other groups established under the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) are covered by schedule 1035. Records for international committees held by the U.S. member or representative, when the U.S. is not the sponsor or secretariat, must be scheduled separately.
Correspondence - If the record copy of controlled and major correspondence is placed in the Correspondence Management System (CMS), the paper may be destroyed after the completion of quality assurance. Since CMS interfaces with EPA's electronic recordkeeping system, retention in CMS is managed via the electronic recordkeeping system. CMS is covered by schedule 0077.

Finding aids and indexes - Indexes, lists, registers, and other finding aids used only to provide access to records authorized for destruction are to be filed with their related records, and retained according to the disposition instructions for the records they support.

Forms - The Forms Officer in the Office of Administration and Resources Management, Office of Administrative Services, Facilities Management and Services Division (OARM/OAS/FDMS) is responsible for the disposition of the record copy of internal Agency-wide forms. The Forms Officer in the Office of Environmental Information, Office of Information Collection, Information Strategies Branch (OEI/OIC/ISB) is responsible for external forms, e.g., Information Collection Request (ICR) forms. Maintenance and disposition of forms and supporting materials developed by individual programs or offices that are not used Agency-wide is the responsibility of the program or office Forms Owner.

Forms, mailing lists, indexes and ad hoc printouts needed to provide documentation of specific activities or transactions are to be filed with their related records, and retained according to the disposition instructions for the records they support.

Email - Information on electronic mail (email) systems which is necessary to document Agency activities and meets the definition of a record must be moved or copied onto another medium (e.g., electronic or paper recordkeeping system) and filed or maintained in organized files. Copies of email maintained in other files (e.g., controlled and major correspondence) are to be disposed of in accordance with the disposition instructions for the related records. Additional guidance on email records can be found at: http://www.epa.gov/records/faqs/email.htm.

Time and attendance and leave records - Time and attendance source records maintained by Payroll Management and Outreach Staff (PMOS) are covered by schedule 1005. Time and attendance records and leave records maintained by timekeepers and other staff in any format are covered by item b of this schedule. The record copy of electronic leave forms submitted for approval via WebForms or similar electronic forms systems (covered by schedule 0004) do not need to be printed and can be maintained electronically according to the disposition instructions for item b, with the exception of "mass approvals" of time and attendance which must be printed and filed in the recordkeeping system.

Federal Activities Inventory Reform (FAIR) Act records - FAIR records documenting the implementation of Circular No. A-76 maintained by OARM are covered by schedule 1004. Other copies are covered by item b of this schedule.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2015 version:
• Moved from draft to final status.
• Added NARA approval date.

The following change was made in the 08/31/2015 version:

• Added information about senior officials to guidance.

The following changes were made in the 04/30/2015 version:

• Added the definition of a senior official to item a.
• Moved items from GRS 23/7 from item d to a new item e with a 180 day retention.

The following change was made in the 05/31/2014 version:

• Added guidance on saving calendars in electronic format.

- Disposable
- Close when case completed, or after final entry, or last action.
- Destroy according to the investigating agency’s instructions.

Item e: Classified information nondisclosure agreements if maintained separately from the official personnel folder (OPF)

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 18/25a

- Disposable
- Close after form is accepted by the federal security signatory.
- Destroy 70 years after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Security of data and information systems - Security of data and information systems is covered by schedule 1012.

Examples of forms - Examples of forms covered by this schedule include, but are not limited to, the following: EPA 7740-6, EPA 7740-16, EPA 7740-17, EPA 7740-18, EPA 7740-25, EPA 7740-27, EPA 7740-28, EPA 8580-8, FBI FD 258, SF 86, SF 312, SF 701, SF 702.
Contracts for guard services - Contracts for guard services, formerly covered by schedule item 0625a, are covered by schedule 1004.

Classified information nondisclosure agreements - If classified information nondisclosure agreements are filed in the individual's OPF, follow the disposition instructions for the OPF, schedule 0553 or 0554.

Prior to retirement to the Federal Records Center, any material having a Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) security classification under the authority of 44 CFR 8 must be reviewed for declassification. Requests for declassification must be submitted to FEMA as directed in 44 CFR 8.4.

Description:

This schedule covers records related to the acquisition and management of motor vehicles, equipment, and other personal property, including selection, lease, purchase or ownership agreements, maintenance agreements, licensing, and other requirements.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Vehicle accident records

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 10/5

- Disposable
  - Close when case is settled or terminated.
  - Destroy 6 years after file closure.

Item b: Vehicle lease and release records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Transfers, sales, donations, or exchanges of vehicles; and
- Vehicle leases.

NARA Disposal Authority: General Records Schedule 10/6
• Disposable
  • Close when vehicle leaves EPA custody.
  • Destroy 4 years after file closure.

Item c: Vehicle and equipment maintenance records

Includes, but is not limited to:

• Gas and oil consumption, dispatching, scheduling, service and repair; and
• Operation of and maintenance for motor vehicles, boats, generators, trailers, and miscellaneous accountable property such as grouters, geo-probes, forklifts, frontend loaders, and similar equipment.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0006-0001

• Disposable
  • Close at end of calendar year, or after vehicle or equipment leaves EPA custody.
  • Destroy 1 year after file closure.

Item d: Other vehicle records

Includes, but is not limited to:

• Individual employee use of government-owned vehicles (excluding accidents which are scheduled above), including driver tests and authorization to use; and
• Motor vehicle cost data.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0006-0002

• Disposable
  • Close at end of calendar year, or after separation of employee.
  • Destroy 3 years after file closure.

Item e: Surplus personal property records

Includes, but is not limited to: sales of surplus personal property, including invitations, bids, acceptances, lists of materials, evidence of sales, and related correspondence.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0006-0003

• Disposable
  • Close when final payment is made.
  • Destroy 6 years after file closure.

Item f: Other personal property records
Includes, but is not limited to:

- Excess personal property reports; and
- Personal property accountability such as property custodian records, property registers and inventories, and reports of lost or stolen property.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0006-0004

- Disposable
  - Close at end of calendar year, or after life of the equipment.
  - Destroy 3 years after file closure.

- DAA-0412-2012-0007-0002 (Item b)
- DAA-0412-2012-0007-0003 (Item c)

Description:

This schedule covers records related to activities associated with planning, preparing, and monitoring business-related travel for EPA employees.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Travel records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- International, third-party, and invitational travel plans and reports; and
- Travel authorizations and expenses, including original receipts (excluding Superfund site-specific travel records which are scheduled separately).

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0007-0001

- Disposable
  - Close at end of fiscal or calendar year.
  - Destroy 6 years and 3 months after file closure.

Item b: Passport application records

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0007-0002

- Disposable
- Close when employee separates or transfers, or at end of calendar year, whichever is sooner.
- Destroy 3 years after file closure.

Item c: Passports

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2012-0007-0003

- Disposable
  - Close when employee separates or transfers.
  - Transfer to new agency or return to the Department of State.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Electronic travel system - This schedule covers the electronic travel system, GovTrip, and any successor systems. The electronic software program is a nonrecord and covered by schedule 0008, item a. The software documentation and electronic signature and verification data are covered by schedule 1012, item e.

Travel receipts - If original receipts are scanned into the electronic travel system, the originals are considered convenience copies and are destroyed when no longer needed. If the receipts are not scanned into the electronic travel system, the original receipts need to be maintained to validate claims. If the original receipts are maintained as paper, it is recommended that they be maintained by a designated custodian in each organization, and a copy of the travel voucher be printed and attached to the receipts, or the travel voucher number written on the receipts so they can be easily matched back to the electronic transaction. Employees leaving the Agency must ensure the program office that funded the trip has their receipts if the records have not been scanned into the electronic travel system. Original receipts for Superfund site-specific travel are scanned into the Superfund Cost Organization Recovery Package Imaging Online System (SCORPIOS) (schedule 0052), and filed in the appropriate site file and retained with cost recovery records and covered by schedule 1036, item c.

Annual reports related to passports - Annual reports related to passports, previously item b of schedule 0393 (GRS 9/5b) has been deleted because EPA does not submit annual reports. Passport registers, previously item c of schedule 0393, is covered by schedule 0090, item b.

International travel reports - Item a of this schedule covers international trip reports maintained by the Office of International and Tribal Affairs. International travel reports maintained by other offices are filed with the related records and retained according to the disposition instructions for the related records.

- DAA-0412-2013-0009-0004 (Item d)
- DAA-0412-2013-0009-0005 (Item e)

Description:
This schedule covers records related to the coordination of information and technology (IT) resources and systems required to support or provide a service. Includes: system development activities associated with the design and development of software applications; life cycle and change management processes; system maintenance activities for software applications; IT infrastructure maintenance to support automated needs (i.e., platforms, networks, servers, printers, etc.); information systems security functions to protect information and information systems, as well as the creation and implementation of security policies, procedures, and controls.

Excludes: individual IT systems (e.g., AQS, CERCLIS), which must be scheduled separately.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Historically significant IT management records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Input and source documents used to create, update, or modify permanent electronic records if they are hard copy documents that NARA has specifically designated as permanent records that must be transferred to NARA in hard copy format, and hard copy records previously approved as permanent that are converted to electronic records and do not meet NARA’s transfer standards in effect at the time of conversion;
Quality and Information Council (QIC) (formerly called the EPA Steering Committee) records related to the development of EPA information technology and information management policy and procedures consisting of meeting records, including agendas, talking papers, reports, summaries or minutes of meetings, and related records; and

System documentation for permanent electronic records, consisting of data system specifications, file specifications, codebooks, record layouts, user guides, output specifications, and final reports relating to a master file, database, or other electronic records that are scheduled for permanent retention.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0009-0001

Permanent
- Close input and source documents and system documentation when system data is transferred to the National Archives, and QIC records at the end of the calendar year.
- Transfer system documentation to the National Archives with the related electronic file. Transfer other electronic records to the National Archives 5 years after file closure. Transfer non-electronic records to the National Archives 15 years after file closure.

Item b: IT implementation and compliance records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Chief Information Officer (CIO) committee records consisting of records maintained by committees, boards, task forces, conferences, or other IT advisory, governing, or policy bodies for which the CIO has designed sponsorship, leadership, or recordkeeping responsibilities (excluding the QIC), and including meeting minutes, summaries, agendas, transcripts, reports, studies, publications, membership records, correspondence, and related records;
- Enterprise architecture records, consisting of records identifying the IT systems and networks required to perform the Agency's mission and the transitional processes required to implement comprehensive programs to support that mission, including technical reference manuals, diagrams, graphics, and narratives that describe the Agency's baseline architecture, target architecture, and related sequencing plans;
- IT capital investment records documenting the IT investments with Agency-wide strategic planning, budgeting, procurement, and management, including routine and periodic reports on IT capital investments, capital asset plans, business cases for major investments identified in the Agency's capital investment portfolio, and clearance and review records;
- IT infrastructure design and implementation files for projects that are implemented;
- IT program planning records related to the development of Agency IT programs, including Agency-wide IT goals, specific milestones to be achieved, performance measures for the IT portfolio, strategic and tactical plans documenting the implementation and maintenance of IT systems in support of the Agency mission;
- Records documenting compliance with federal information resources management (IRM) laws and regulations (e.g., Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act), mandates of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), General Accountability Office (GAO), and other federal information management oversight agencies, EPA IT policies, directives and plans, including performance measurements and benchmarks, certification and accreditation of equipment, quality assurance reviews and reports, reports on implementation of plans, compliance reviews, and data measuring or estimating impact and compliance;

- System development records for systems that are implemented, including project proposals, feasibility studies, cost analyses, requirements documents, and documentation of planning, decision making, designing, programming, testing, evaluation, and problem solving (excluding system development records for environmental models and systems used for regulatory decision making); and
- User identification, profiles, authorizations and password files for systems containing information that may be needed for audit or investigative purposes and those that contain classified records.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0009-0002

- Disposable
  - Close at end of calendar year, or when superseded by a new iteration, or no longer needed for investigative or security purposes, whichever is later; or when system is terminated, defunded, removed from public access, or otherwise does not serve the original purpose.
  - Destroy 7 years after file closure.

Item c: Routine IT management records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Computer security incidents, reporting and follow-up activities, including reports of Web site defacement, security hacks, break-ins and failures, improper usage by staff, and virus threats;
- Facility, site management and equipment support services, files identifying IT facilities and sites, site visit reports, trouble reports, equipment service histories, reports of follow-up actions;
- Financing of IT resources and services, including agreements formalizing performance criteria for quantity and quality of service, files related to managing third-party services, identification and allocation of charges and tracking of payments for computer usage, data processing, and other IT services;
- General files related to communications and telecommunications, equipment requests for installation, changes and service, telephone use or call detail records;
- Installation and testing records;
- IT maintenance, asset management, performance and capacity management, system management, configuration and change management, planning, follow-up, and impact assessment of operational networks and systems, routine maintenance on the network infrastructure documenting preventative, corrective, adaptive and perfective (enhancement) maintenance actions, including requests for service, work orders, service histories;
• Reports on operations, including benchmarks, performance indicators, critical success factors, and exception reporting, self-assessments, performance monitoring, and management reports; and
• System development records for systems that are not implemented, including project proposals, feasibility studies, cost analyses, and requirements documents.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0009-0003

• Disposable
• Close when activity or project completed, or when superseded or obsolete.
• Destroy 3 years after file closure.

Item d: Short-term IT management records

Includes, but is not limited to:

• IT infrastructure design and implementation files for projects that are not implemented:
• IT system implementation and change management, including performance and capacity management, system management, configuration and change management, planning, follow-up, and impact assessment of operational networks and systems;
• Short-term asset and configuration records, including inventories of IT assets, network circuits, and building or circuitry diagrams;
• Short-term IT operations records, including workload schedules, run reports, schedules of maintenance and support activities, problem reports, customer service files, help desk logs and reports, telecommunications statistical reports;
• System security plans and disaster recovery plans, risk assessments, actions to mitigate risks, test files and data; and
• Telecommunications operational files, such as message registers and logs, performance reports, daily load reports.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0009-0004

• Disposable
• Close when superseded, updated, replaced, or no longer needed for current agency business.
• Destroy 1 year after file closure.

Item e: Transitory IT management records

Includes, but is not limited to:

• Data files consisting of summarized or aggregated information and data files consisting of records extracted from a single database that are approved as disposable;
• Derived data that provide user access in lieu of hard copy reports that are authorized for disposal, and metadata or reference data, such as format, range or domain specifications;
- Downloaded and copied data, including derived data used for ad hoc or one-time inspection, analysis or review if the derived data is not needed to support the results of the inspection, analysis or review;
- Electronic files or records created solely to test and monitor system performance, including log-in files, password files, audit trail files, system usage files;
- Electronic files or records used to create or update a database or master file;
- Electronic software programs (excluding electronic software programs scheduled for permanent retention in the General Records Schedule (GRS) or in a NARA-approved agency schedule);
- Input and source records in electronic format entered into a system during an update process and not required for audit and legal purposes and electronic records received from another agency and used as input/source records by EPA (excluding records produced by another agency and used as input/source records by EPA (excluding records produced by another agency under the terms of an interagency agreement, records created by another agency in response to the specific information needs of the receiving agency), input and source records in hard copy format not covered elsewhere in this schedule, computer files or records containing uncalibrated and unvalidated digital or analog data collected during observation or measurement activities or research and development programs and used as input for digital master file or database;
- Print files extracted from a database without changing it and used solely to produce hard copy;
- System and security backups and tape library records;
- System documentation for electronic records that are scheduled for destruction in the GRS or in a NARA-approved agency schedule, including data systems specifications, file specifications, codebooks, record layouts, user guides, output specifications, and final reports relating to a master file, database, or other electronic records (excluding system documentation for electronic records that are scheduled for permanent retention);
- Technical reformat files of data copied from a complete or partial master file or database made for the specific purpose of information interchange and written with varying technical specifications (excluding files created for transfer to the National Archives; and
- User identification, profiles, authorizations and passwords for routine systems.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0009-0005

- Disposable
  - Close when superseded, updated, replaced, or no longer needed for current agency business.
  - Destroy immediately after file closure.

Guidance:

This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

IT infrastructure - IT infrastructure refers to the basic systems and services used to supply staff with access to computers and data telecommunications. Components include hardware such as printers, computers, network and Web servers, routers, hubs, and network cabling, as well as software such as operating systems (e.g., Microsoft Windows and Novell NetWare) and shared applications (e.g., electronic mail, word processing, and database programs). The services necessary to design, implement, test, validate, and maintain components are also considered part of the IT structure. Records related to specific electronic systems that support or document mission goals (e.g., schedule 0027 ICIS) are covered by the individual schedules for those systems.

Electronic software programs - Electronic software programs are to be kept as long as needed to ensure access to, and use of, the electronic records throughout the authorized retention period to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. NARA regulations require that electronic records be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct agency business and meet NARA-approved disposition. Examples of software covered by this schedule include Air Explorer Tool (AirExplorer), eDiscovery Service, Tier2 Submit, and EPA Dashboard formerly covered by EPA 0179 and GRS 20/10.

System development records - System development records for environmental models and systems used for regulatory decision making may warrant permanent preservation and should follow the records schedule for the activity supported by the system (e.g., schedule 1023 for rulemaking records).

Electronic system data - The electronic data for an electronic system is covered by the system-specific records schedule (e.g., schedule 0027 ICIS) or one of the generic or "big bucket" system schedules (e.g., schedule 0063 electronic models and expert systems).

Input for electronic systems - Input and source records for an electronic system that is produced by another agency under the terms of an interagency agreement, or records created by another agency in response to the specific information needs of EPA, must be included in the disposition instructions for the specific system schedule. In cases where hard copy documents that contain information that is not or cannot be captured in the electronic version of the records (e.g., certain handwritten annotations), including those scanned into an electronic recordkeeping system, follow the records schedule for the activity supported by the system.

Output and reports for electronic systems - Output and reports for electronic systems are covered by the applicable records schedule for the activity supported by the input and reports.

Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives - The copy of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives (previously scheduled as schedule 0188a(3)) maintained by the submitting office until they are notified by NARA that the transfer is successful is a nonrecord (schedule 0008, item a) and can be deleted when no longer needed.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 10/31/2014 version:

- Moved from draft to final status and added NARA approval date.

The following changes were made in the 06/30/2014 version:

- Revised disposition instructions for item a.
- Revised title of disposition item e.

This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.

Description:

This schedule covers records related to operations and programs of the EPA and its external business partners that ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations and prevent waste, fraud, and abuse. Includes: corrective action and the enforcement of activities to remedy internal or external programs that have been found noncompliant with a given law, regulation, or policy; program evaluation and the analysis of internal and external program effectiveness and the determination of corrective actions as necessary; criminal, civil, and administrative investigative files that document major criminal investigations as well as investigations of known or alleged fraud, abuse, irregularities, and violations of laws and regulations involving EPA personnel, programs, or operations administered or financed by EPA, including contractors and others having a relationship with EPA; and program monitoring and the data gathering activities required to determine the effectiveness of internal and external programs and the extent to which they comply with related laws, regulations, and policies.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Historically significant controls and oversight records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Audit Resolution Board case files;
- Inspector General (IG) investigative case files for cases that document major violations of criminal law or ethical standards by EPA officials and others;
- IG semiannual reports prepared for submission to Congress; and
- Unusually significant IG case files such as those that result in national media attention, congressional investigation, or substantive changes in Agency policy and procedure.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0015-0001

- Permanent
  - Close when audit resolution is completed, when investigation is closed, or when report is sent to Congress.
  - Transfer electronic records to the National Archives 5 years after file closure. Transfer non-electronic records to the National Archives 15 years after file closure.

Item b: Long-term controls and oversight records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Disposable
  - Close when case is completed or closed.
  - Destroy 1 year after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

FMFIA documentation - Program offices are responsible for retaining the record copy of FMFIA documentation according to the disposition instructions for item c. Internal control coordinators are not responsible for keeping the documentation, only a certification that it exists. All other copies may be destroyed as nonrecords (schedule 0008, item a) when no longer needed.

Responses to evaluations and audits - Responding offices are responsible for retaining the responses to evaluations and audits, including records of Agency directives and guidance created by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and other offices, according to the disposition instructions for item c. Copies provided to internal control coordinators and audit liaisons should be kept as reference material and can be destroyed as nonrecords (schedule 0008, item a) when superseded.

Oversight records - The headquarters or regional office responsible for oversight of states or other entities is responsible for retaining the record copy according to the disposition instructions for item c. The headquarters office responsible for conducting oversight of regional activities is responsible for retaining the record copy according to the disposition instructions for item d. All other copies can be destroyed as nonrecords (schedule 0008, item a) when superseded or no longer needed. Congressional correspondence related to congressional oversight of EPA activities is covered by schedule 1051.

Ombudsman records - The record copy of ombudsman records is retained by the Ombudsman office or the office performing the ombudsman function. Ombudsman referrals to specific site or facility files are to be filed in the community relations files specific to the site or facility (e.g., 1035 for Superfund site-specific records) and are covered by the disposition instructions for the site-specific files.

Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives - The copy of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives (previously scheduled as schedule 0658a(3), 0701a(3)) maintained by the submitting office until they are notified by NARA that the transfer is successful is a nonrecord (schedule 0008, item a) and can be deleted when no longer needed.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made to the 07/31/2015 version:

- Moved from draft to final.
- Added NARA approval date.

The following changes were made to the 09/30/2014 version:

- Moved suspension and debarment records from item c to item d.
- Added animal welfare records to item d.
This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.

Title: Legislative Relations

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 303 - Legislative Relations

NARA Disposal Authority:

- DAA-0412-2013-0005-0001 (Item a)
- DAA-0412-2013-0005-0002 (Item b)
- DAA-0412-2013-0005-0003 (Item c)

Description:

This schedule covers records related to the development, tracking, and amendment of public laws through the legislative branch of the federal government. Includes: legislative tracking to monitor legislation from introduction to enactment; legislative testimony or evidence in support of, or opposition to, legislation; drafting proposed legislation that creates or amends laws subject to congressional action; and activities that support the relationship between EPA and the U.S. Congress.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Historically significant legislative relations records

Includes, but is not limited to:

- Congressional data transfer of grants made to states, municipalities, counties, interstate groups, and institutions within the states;
- Final reports to Congress or the President prepared according to the mandates of all environmental legislation;
- Legislative history file maintained by the Office of Legislative Affairs at Headquarters; and
- Significant congressional correspondence not included in the controlled correspondence system (Correspondence Management System (CMS)).

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0005-0001

- Permanent
• Close at end of congressional session, end of calendar year, or when no longer needed for current agency business.
• Transfer electronic records to the National Archives 5 years after file closure. Transfer non-electronic records to the National Archives 15 years after file closure.

Item b: Legislation

Includes, but is not limited to: legislation formulated and proposed by EPA and other government agencies and executive units circulated within EPA for evaluation and comment, and held in offices other than the Office of Legislative Affairs at Headquarters.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0005-0002

• Disposable
  • Close upon final action on legislation.
  • Destroy 10 years after file closure.

Item c: Other legislative relations records

Includes, but is not limited to:

• Congressional committee records related to their makeup, character, status, mission, and activities;
• Congressional correspondence consisting of routine inquiries not included in CMS;
• Weekly legislative reports related to major provisions, issues, status, and expectation of EPA bills, and non-EPA bills with environmental impact and scheduled for congressional action; and
• Work files for reports to Congress or the President.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0005-0003

• Disposable
  • Close upon transmission of final report, end of congressional session, or when no longer needed for current agency business.
  • Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Guidance:

Media neutral - This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Congressional correspondence - Significant congressional correspondence entered into the controlled correspondence system is covered by schedule 1051, item a, for senior officials. If significant congressional correspondence is maintained separately from the controlled correspondence system, use item a of this schedule for significant correspondence and item c for routine correspondence. Significant congressional correspondence is major correspondence that significantly documents program activities and may be processed under special handling control procedures because of the importance of the letters or time requirements of replies. Records related to the operation of CMS are covered by schedule 0077.

Legislative history file - Enrolled bill reports submitted by the Office of Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs are transferred to the legislative history file (item a) at the end of each month. EPA congressional hearing testimony maintained by the Office of Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs is transferred to the legislative history file (item a) after presentation to the congressional committee.

Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives - The copy of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives (previously scheduled as schedule 0155a(3), 0527a(3) and 0528a(3)) maintained by the submitting office until they are notified by NARA that the transfer is successful is a nonrecord (schedule 0008, item a) and can be deleted when no longer needed.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following change was made in the 04/30/2014 version:

- Added definition of significant congressional correspondence to guidance.

This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.

Guidance:

Media neutral â€“ This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Board of Contract Appeals and GAO contract bid protest case files - Case files maintained by the Office of General Counsel (OGC) in Cincinnati and RTP are also covered by this schedule.

Contract source selection information - Restrictions related to source selection information can be found in the Federal Acquisition Regulations, FAR 3.104.

ADR held by EPA staff other than Agency employees serving as an ADR neutral - Records related to an EPA action that uses ADR held by EPA staff other than Agency employees serving as an ADR neutral are retained according to the disposition instructions for the records of the actions they support, e.g., permits, enforcement cases, grants, etc. See schedule 1016 for ombudsman and citizen complaint files, and schedule 0051 for ADR files related to employee relations.
Other related records schedules - EPA enforcement actions (not defensive cases) are covered by schedule 1044, except for Superfund, Brownfields, and oil site-specific cases which are covered by schedule 1036.

Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives - The copy of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives (previously scheduled as schedule 0674a(3)) maintained by the submitting office until they are notified by NARA that the transfer is successful is a nonrecord (schedule 0008, item a) and can be deleted when no longer needed.

- UIC Class V survey forms where the facilities have responded that there is no shallow well on their property and do not require a permit, or businesses change ownership or go bankrupt.

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0018-0003

- Disposable
  - Close when administrative record is issued, or permit is renewed or terminated, or when no longer needed for current agency business.
  - Destroy 10 years after file closure.

Item d: Dredging and fill permits (except the 404 program under Section 404 of the Clean Water Act (CWA) covered by schedule 1035).

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0018-0004

- Disposable
  - Close when permit is renewed or terminated (revocation or expiration), or at end of calendar year, or when no longer needed for current agency business.
  - Destroy 5 years after file closure.

Item e: Financial and state assurance documents

NARA Disposal Authority: DAA-0412-2013-0018-0005

- Disposable
  - Close when related records are destroyed or transferred to the National Archives.
  - Destroy after file closure or return to submitter.
Media neutral “This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral). However, if the format (e.g., electronic) of permanent records is specified in a records schedule approved by NARA, the records are to be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. If the record copy is created in electronic format or digitized (e.g., imaged) and maintained electronically (e.g., Data on Aquatic Resources Tracking for Effective Regulation (DARTER) maintained in the Office of Water), the electronic records must be retrievable and usable for as long as needed to conduct Agency business and to meet NARA-approved disposition to comply with 36 CFR Sections 1236.10, 1236.12, 1236.14, and 1236.20. Retention and disposition requirements for the various components of electronic systems (e.g., software, input, output, system documentation) are covered in schedule 1012, Information and Technology Management. In addition to 36 CFR 1236, see “Basic Requirements of an Electronic Recordkeeping System at EPA” on the EPA records internet site [http://www.epa.gov/records/tools/erks.htm].

Sensitive information - When records are due for destruction according to the disposition instructions, records containing sensitive information (e.g., confidential business information (CBI), personally identifiable information (PII)) must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Recordkeeping requirements for authorized states “If authorized states maintain disposable records for the retention periods identified above, the program office may decide to review the records in the state offices rather than maintain copies in regional offices and destroy the copies it receives. If recordkeeping requirements (e.g., what records to keep and how long to keep them) for authorized states are not covered in EPA’s regulations, they should be established in a memorandum of understanding or agreement.

Draft permits and working papers “Draft permits and working papers may be destroyed after approval of the final permit.

Notification forms “Notification forms that have been withdrawn or canceled prior to issuance of a permit and TSDs that have not gone through the permitting process are subject to the same retention as the permits. Regional offices may determine the appropriate file closure for notification and other files for which a permit is not issued.

Land disposal permits “If land disposal permits are included or combined with other permits, they may be separated, if practical and volume warrants.

Financial assurance documents “Financial assurance documents are “ability to pay” documents, and negotiable instruments such as letters of credit and stock certificates. Original negotiable instruments must be protected and kept in fireproof, locked containers such as a safe. Copies of the negotiable instruments may be kept in the related files.

Related records - Compliance and enforcement records are covered by schedule 1044. Clean Water Act, Section 404 records are covered by EPA 1035.
Copies of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives - The copy of permanent electronic records transferred to the National Archives (previously scheduled as schedule 0205a(3) and 0478a(3)) maintained by the submitting office until they are notified by NARA that the transfer is successful is a nonrecord (schedule 0008, item a) and can be deleted when no longer needed.

Regional Off-Site Contact (ROC) records - Regional Off-Site Contact (ROC) records related to facilities approved to receive Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) wastes are currently under review for retention purposes and are not to be destroyed until the retention is approved.

Reasons for Disposition:

The following changes were made in the 08/31/2015 version:

- Moved from draft status to final.
- Added NARA approval date.

The following changes were made in the 05/31/2015 version:

- Revised the file closure instructions for RCRA records covered by item a.
- Deleted Regional Off-Site Contact (ROC) records covered by item c due to re-evaluation of retention.

This schedule combines and consolidates previously approved EPA and GRS schedule items.
