BEIS References

These references cover publications after 1992. This is a sample and other references may be available. Note that Fehsenfeld et al. (1992) provide a nice overview of research up until about 1992.

Pierce, T., B. Lamb, and A. Van Meter (1990), Development of a biogenic emissions inventory system for regional scale air pollution models, Proceedings 83rd Air and Waste Management Association Annual Meeting, Pittsburgh, PA.
