

Tijuana River Watershed Task Force

Co-Chair Dave Gibson

Executive Officer

San Diego Regional Water Quality
Control Board

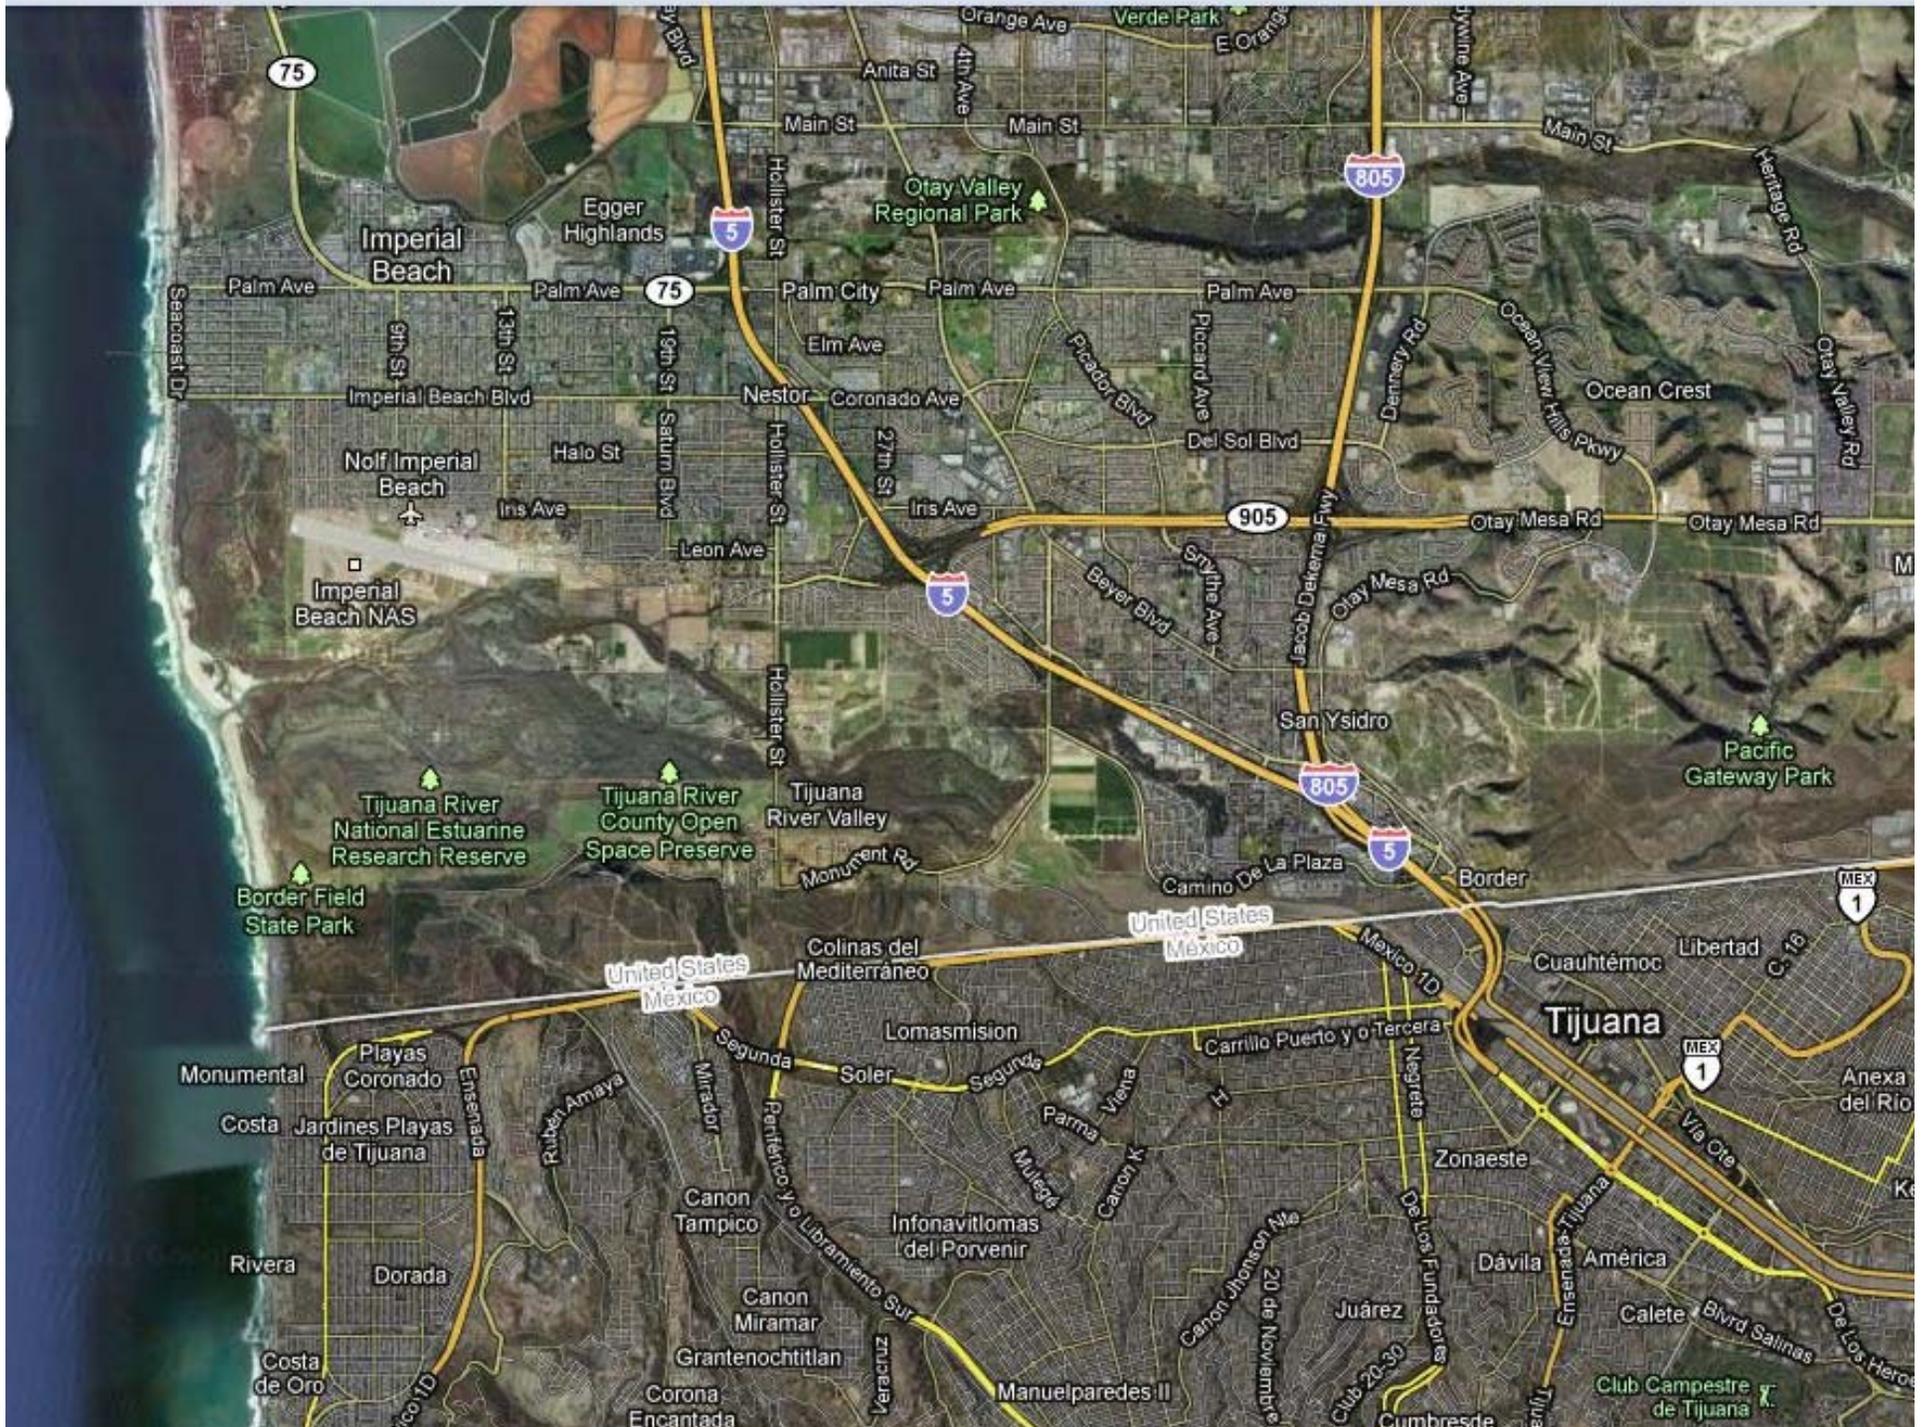

Tijuana River Watershed

Trash and Tires

January 2015

Flooding and Sediment

Water Quality

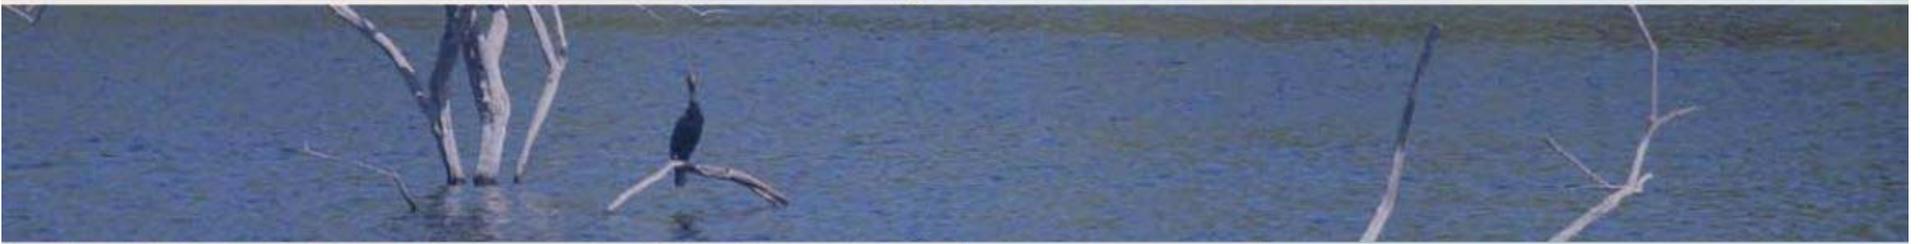

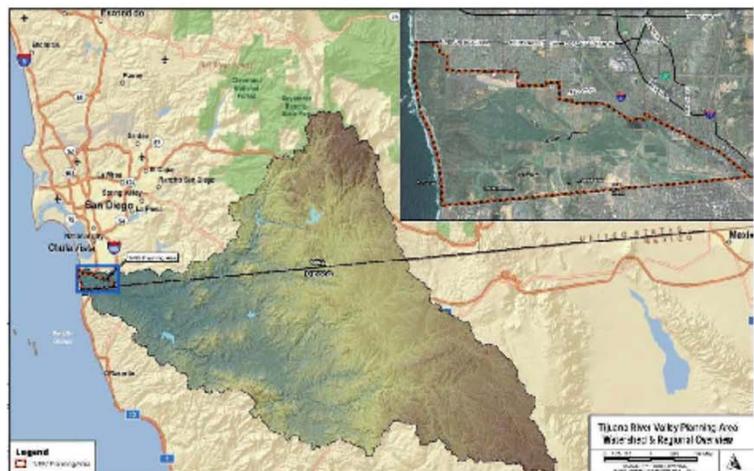

Tijuana River Valley Recovery Team

RECOVERY STRATEGY

Living with the Water

JANUARY 2012

Tijuana River Valley Recovery Team Five-Year Action Plan March 2015

Tier 1 Projects

Five-Year Action Plan

1. Nelson Sloan Quarry
2. Brown Property
3. Sediment management plan
4. Mission Support services, including property acquisition agreement
5. Trash removal

Clean Up and Abatement Account Support Request

1. Nelson Sloan Quarry – $500,000

- Update environmental documents

2. Brown Property – $300,000

- Prepare hydrology study, feasibility study, and environmental documents

3. Sediment management plan – $300,000

- Prepare comprehensive sediment management plan for Valley

4. Support services, including property acquisition agreement – $300,000

- Administrative services, facilitation, translation, website enhancements, mapping
- Develop/implement interagency agreement for property acquisition

5. Trash removal – $150,000

- Trash clean-ups allowing small vehicles or draft horses to be used for larger, heavier debris (two years)

2015 Projects

- Enhanced Clean Ups – TRAM
- Tire/Trash Interceptors
 - Smugglers Gulch
 - Stewarts Drain
 - Goat Canyon
- Hydrology and Hydraulics Study

