Right to appeal

You have the right to appeal any final permit decision if you make an official comment during the comment period or participate in the public hearing. A public hearing is not planned at this time. The first appeal must be made to the Environmental Appeals Board.

The U. S. Environmental Protection Agency plans to allow BreitBurn Operating, L.P., (1165 Elkview Drive, P.O. Box 1256, Gaylord, Michigan 49735) to inject fluid underground for enhanced oil recovery by approving the company's application for what EPA calls a Class II injection well permit.

If EPA makes its approval final, BreitBurn Operating, L.P. may inject produced fluids into a rock formation 3405 feet below the surface through a well at SE ¼, Section 29, T25N, R04W, Crawford County. BreitBurn Operating, L.P. has also applied for a permit from the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ).

EPA is accepting comments from the public on this proposed permit approval (see box, left). The public comment period, which ends Monday, December 28, 2015 includes 30 days for comments as required by law, plus an additional three days for any delay caused by mailing.

During the comment period, you may ask EPA – in writing – to hold a formal public hearing (see address, left). Be sure to say specifically what issues you want to raise. EPA will hold a hearing if there is significant interest. If there is a hearing, EPA will publish a notice at least 30 days prior. You will have an opportunity to make oral comments or submit written comments. EPA will consider all comments it receives, and then issue a final decision along with a response to significant comments.

The Safe Drinking Water Act requires EPA to regulate underground injection wells to protect the quality of underground sources of drinking water. Issuing permits is one way EPA does this. You can find the regulations governing underground injection wells at Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 144 and 146.

EPA does not have the authority to change the surface location of the injection well. If you have questions or concerns about the well's location, contact the MDEQ, P.O. Box 30256, Lansing, Michigan 48909 and phone number (517) 241-1515.
