

Script Name	RY 2015 Log in to TRI-MEweb
Script ID	TRI-07
Script Synopsis	This script tests the TRI-MEweb login process.
Prerequisites	A user should have an active CDX user ID and password and access to TRI-MEweb program in TEST environment. https://test.epacdx.net
Tests Performed	Requirements Reference	Page	Steps
TRI-07.1 Log in to TRI-MEweb	N/A	2	4

Test Name Log in to TRI-MEweb

Test ID TRI-01

Synopsis This test will verify a successful login. Users should be prompted correct TRI-MEweb pages.

Prerequisites A user should have an active CDX user ID and password and access to TRI-MEweb program in TEST environment

Processing Steps	Expected Results	Actual Results	Notes	Issue Number
1. Click the below hyperlink https://test.epacdx.net to navigate to CDX test environment.	The EPA Central Data Exchange screen is displayed.		Figure 7.1
2. Enter the CDX user ID and password and click Log In.	The "My CDX" page is displayed with TRI-MEweb link.		Figure 7.2
3. Click on the TRI-MEweb link.	The TRI-MEweb "Welcome" page is displayed with a 'Welcome to TRI-MEweb!!' pop up. Note: This pop-up appears only if there are unsigned TRIFID signature agreements for the user.		Figure 7.3
4. Click Cancel on the pop up.	The TRI-MEweb "Welcome" page is displayed with the Help area expanded.		Figure 7.4

TRI 07 Screenshot

Figure 7.1: CDX Log In page

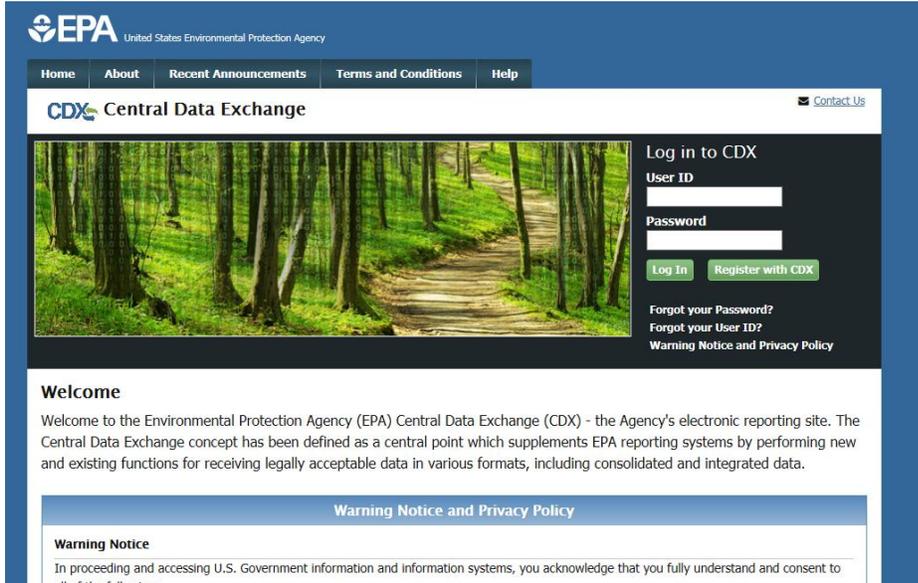

Figure 7.2: My CDX page

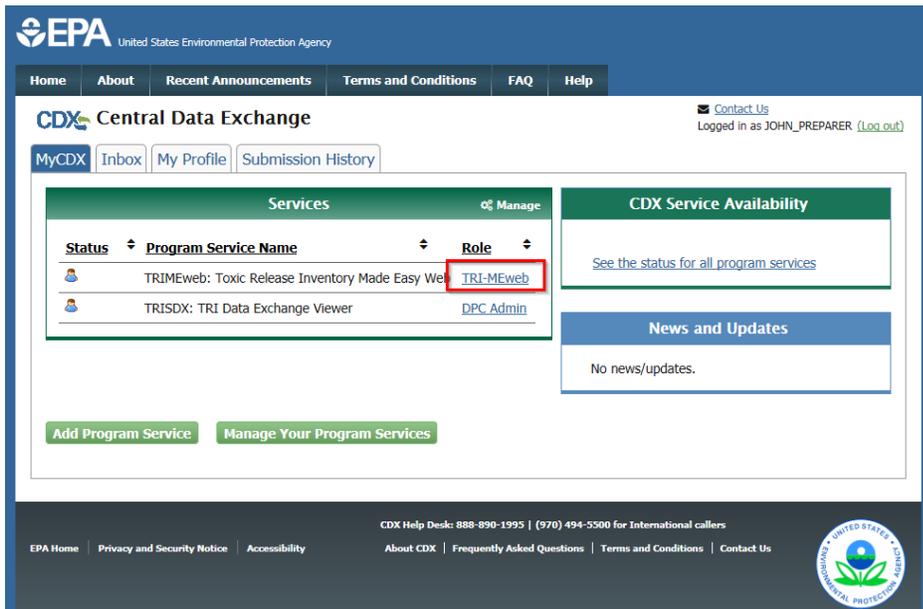

Figure 7.3: TRI-MEweb 'Welcome' page displaying pop-up

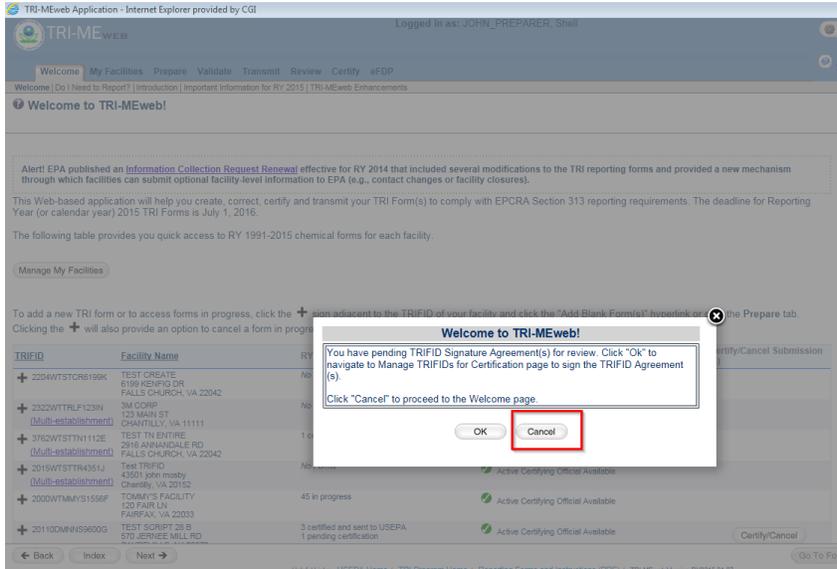

Figure 7.4: TRI-MEweb "Welcome" page displaying Help area

