

Title VI- What You Need to Know: Laws, Regulations, Executive Orders
Badar Tareen

Originally from North Dakota, Badar Tareen has been a Civil Rights Analyst for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights since January of 2014. A 2012 graduate of the Presidential Management Fellowship (PMF) Program, he previously worked at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Disaster Recovery and Special Issues Division. Badar worked on civil rights matters at HUD and at the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) Civil Rights Division. While at the DOJ for a PMF attorney rotation, he worked on a statewide Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 investigation and preliminary inquiry as well as other civil rights projects. Badar received his law degree from the University of North Carolina School of Law in Chapel Hill and his bachelor's degree from Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota as a trumpet performance scholar. Prior to law school, Badar served as a Press Assistant to U.S. Senator Kent Conrad and as Press Secretary and Legislative Assistant to U.S. Congressman Dale Kildee. During his free time, Badar works on pro bono legal cases, makes short films, performs stand-up comedy, and acts in productions of the South Asian Performing Arts Network (SAPAN).
