Dear Mr. Sumcad:

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has reviewed your request to modify the name of the previously verified SmartWay Elite Aerodynamic combination, Wabash AeroSkirt MAX & Wake Convergence Device (WCD). No additional modifications are made at this time; the table below details the updated verification listing.

Original Name	New Name	Verification Category (Fuel Savings)
Wabash AeroSkirt MAX & Wake Convergence Device (WCD)	Wabash Ventix DRS & Wabash AeroFin	SmartWay Elite (9% savings or higher)

If you have any questions regarding your verification or the program, please feel free to contact our aerodynamic technology staff person, Julie Hawkins, at hawkins.julie@epa.gov. Thank you for your interest in EPA's Technology Verification Program.

Sincerely,

Karl Simon, Director
Transportation and Climate Division
