Affiliate Networking: It's all about building connections

November 18, 2021

Covering today

-  The role of the SmartWay Affiliate
-  Benefits and building connections
-  Introduction of EPA Regional Staff
-  Open discussion

SmartWay Affiliates' role

-  Affiliates are organizations that agree to support their members' efforts to improve freight transportation efficiency and sustainability
-  SmartWay Affiliates can do this by:
 - Conducting educational webinars, distributing SmartWay resources on best practices, strategies and technologies
 - Helping local businesses learn how their freight supply chain can be efficient and sustainable

By participating you can:

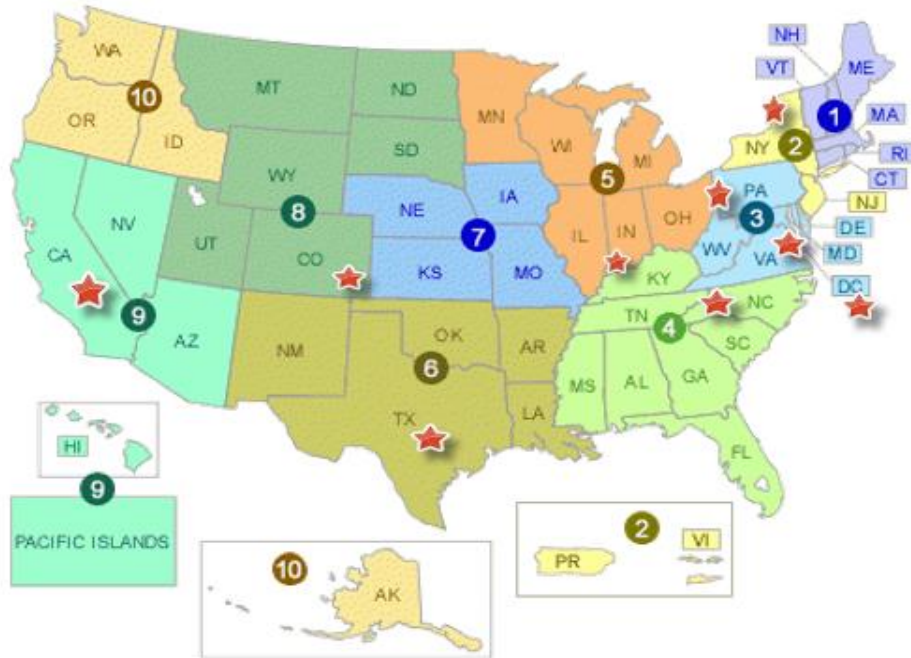

-  Access an Account Manager who provides education on pollution prevention and market-based environmental programs
-  Access credible materials and resources that will allow you to provide convincing outreach, backed by data, to inform your members
-  Bring value to businesses belonging to your organization by sharing SmartWay Partner best practices
-  Show businesses their efficiency can make a difference and improve air quality impacts from goods movement
-  Be recognized by EPA for your commitment to raising awareness and transforming the freight sector

Build connections by:

-  Identifying and working with organizations sharing your goals and interests
 - your project/event has added impact, advances your goals

-  Exchanging contact information, you're gaining people who will give you fresh ideas, expand your knowledge base

-  Connecting with staff at EPA Regional Offices
 - They will have information on local and regional air quality concerns and climate impacts, and an enhanced understanding of environmental and health-related issues at the community level
