What Is EPA's Brownfields Program?

North Berwick Woolen Mill (before)

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Brownfields and Land Revitalization Program provides funds to empower states, Tribal Nations, communities, and other stakeholders to work together to prevent, assess, safely clean up, and sustainably reuse brownfield sites. EPA provides financial and technical assistance for brownfields activities protect human health and the environment, encourage sustainable reuse, promote partnerships, strengthen local economies, and create jobs. By providing funds and technical assistance to assess, cleanup, and plan for site reuse, EPA enables communities to overcome the environmental, legal, and fiscal challenges associated with brownfield properties.

EPA's investments in communities across the country help local leaders eliminate uncertainties, clean up contaminated properties, and transform brownfield sites into community assets.

A brownfield is defined as: real property, the expansion, redevelopment, or reuse of which may be complicated by the presence or potential presence of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant. The Brownfields Law further defines the term to include a site that is: "contaminated by a controlled substance; contaminated by petroleum or a petroleum product excluded from the definition of 'hazardous substance'; or mine-scarred land."

What Are Multipurpose Grants?

Multipurpose Grants provide funding to carry out a range of eligible assessment and cleanup activities with a proposed target area, such as a neighborhood, a number of neighboring towns, a district, a corridor, a shared planning area or a census tract.

A Multipurpose Grant applicant should have a capacity to conduct a range of eligible activities, for example:

- ✓ Developing inventories of brownfield sites;
- ✓ Prioritizing sites;
- ✓ Conducting community involvement activities;
- ✓ Conducting environmental site assessments;
- ✓ Developing cleanup plans and reuse plans related to brownfield sites;
- ✓ Carry out cleanup activities on brownfield sites owned by the applicant; and
- ✓ Developing an overall plan for revitalization.

How Much Funding Is Available?

- ✓ Applicants can apply for up to $800,000 to carry out eligible grant activities.
- ✓ An applicant may request grant funds to carry out at least:
 - one Phase II environmental site assessment;
 - one brownfield site cleanup; and
 - an overall plan for revitalization that includes a feasible reuse strategy of one or more brownfield sites, if there is not already a plan in place.

Where Do I Find The Application Guidelines?

Copies of the Application Guidelines can be obtained from EPA's Brownfields Program website at www.epa.gov/brownfields or from www.grants.gov.

How Do I Apply For An MP Grant?

Applicants submit an application through www.grants.gov. Applications should be concise and well organized, and must provide the information requested in the guidelines. Applicants must demonstrate that they meet threshold criteria requirements and must respond to ranking criteria. Factual information about the proposed project and community must be provided.

What Is The Evaluation/Selection Process?

Responses to threshold criteria are evaluated on a pass/fail basis. If the application does not meet the threshold criteria, the application will not be evaluated. In some circumstances, EPA may seek to clarify information.

Brownfields Grants are awarded on a competitive basis. Evaluation panels consisting of EPA staff and other federal agency representatives assess how well the applications meet the threshold and ranking criteria outlined in the Application Guidelines. The Office of Brownfields and Land Revitalization will provide to the Selection Official a ranking list of applicants to select based on the application's final score, availability of funds, and as appropriate, the other factors described in the Application Guidelines.

Is Pre-Application Assistance Available?

If resources permit, EPA Regions may conduct open meetings with potential applicants. Check with your regional office for date and location information. Your regional Brownfields Program contacts can be found at www.epa.gov/brownfields/brownfields-contacts-epa-regional-offices.

EPA can respond to questions from applicants about threshold criteria, including site eligibility and ownership. EPA staff cannot meet with applicants to discuss draft applications or provide assistance in responding to ranking criteria.
