

Important Resources for Safe Drinking Water

1. Steps to Reduce Lead in Drinking Water Learn about the simple steps you can take to minimize lead exposure in your drinking water. This guide provides practical advice on actions you can implement right away to protect your family's health.
2. Consumer Tool for Identifying POU Filters Certified to Remove Lead Use this tool to find point-of-use (POU) drinking water filters that are certified to reduce lead. Ensure the safety of your drinking water with filters that meet EPA standards.
3. How to Clean Aerators: Lead in Drinking Water Outreach Resources Regular cleaning of faucet aerators is an effective way to maintain water quality and prevent the buildup of lead particles. Discover the best practices for cleaning aerators in your home.
4. How to Identify Lead Free Certification Marks for Drinking Water System and Plumbing Products It's crucial to use products that are lead-free certified for your drinking water system and plumbing. This resource helps you identify the certification marks to look for when purchasing products.

For more information and updates on drinking water safety in the USVI, please visit the EPA's website.