

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY CHARTER

Farm, Ranch, and Rural Communities Advisory Committee

1. Committee's Official Designation (Title):

Farm, Ranch, and Rural Communities Advisory Committee

2. Authority:

This charter renews the Farm, Ranch, and Rural Communities Advisory Committee (FRRCC) was established January 22, 2008, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), 5 U.S.C. 10. The FRRCC is in the public interest and supports EPA in performing its duties and responsibilities.

3. Objectives and Scope of Activities:

The FRRCC is a policy-oriented committee that will provide policy advice, information, and recommendations to the Administrator on a range of environmental issues and policies that are of importance to agriculture and rural communities.

4. Description of Duties:

The duties of the FRRCC are solely to provide advice to EPA. It is intended that the members of the committee will address specific topics of unique relevance to agriculture as identified by the Agriculture Advisor to the Administrator, in such a way as to provide thoughtful advice and useful insights to the Agency as it crafts environmental policies and programs that affect and engage agriculture and rural communities.

5. Agency or Official to Whom the Committee Reports:

The FRRCC will report its policy advice and recommendations to the EPA Administrator through the Agriculture Advisor.

6. Support:

EPA's Office of the Administrator will be responsible for financial and administrative support. EPA may pay travel and per diem expenses when determined necessary and appropriate.

7. Estimated Annual Operating Costs and Staff Years:

The estimated annual operating cost of the FRRCC is $700,000 which includes 3.0 staff years of annual support.

8. Designated Federal Officer:

A full-time or permanent part-time employee of EPA will be appointed as the Designated Federal Officer (DFO). The DFO or an alternate will be present at all the meetings of the advisory committee and subcommittees. Each meeting will be conducted in accordance with an agenda approved in advance by the DFO. The DFO is authorized to adjourn any meeting when he or she determines it is in the public interest to do so and will chair meetings when directed to do so by the official to whom the committee reports.

9. Estimated Number and Frequency of Meetings:

FRRCC expects to meet approximately two (2) to four (4) times per calendar year. Meetings may occur semi-annually or as needed and approved by the DFO. Meetings will be held in Washington, DC and the EPA Regions. Members serve on the Committee in a voluntary capacity.

As required by FACA, the FRRCC will hold open meetings unless the Administrator determines that a meeting or a portion of a meeting may be closed to the public in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552b(c). Interested persons may attend meetings, appear before the committee as time permits, and file comments with the FRRCC.

10. Duration:

The duration of FRRCC is continuing, subject to the Termination section below.

11. Termination:

This charter will be in effect for two years from the date it is filed with Congress. After this two-year period, the charter may be renewed as authorized in accordance with Section 14 of FACA.

12. Membership and Designation:

The FRRCC will be composed of approximately 20-30 members. Members will generally serve as Representative members of non-federal interests. If needed, members may be appointed to serve as Regular Government Employees (RGEs) or Special Government Employees (SGEs). Representative members are selected to represent the points of view held by specific organizations, associations, or classes of individuals. Individuals who are actively engaged in farming or ranching will be encouraged to apply. In selecting members, EPA will consider candidates from academia, industry (e.g., farm groups and allied industries), non-governmental organizations, and state, local, and tribal governments.

In accordance with Executive Order 14035 (June 25, 2021) and consistent with law, EPA values and welcomes opportunities to increase diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility on its federal advisory committees. EPA's federal advisory committees have a workforce that reflects the diversity of the American people.

13. Subcommittees:

EPA, or the FRRCC with EPA's approval, may form subcommittees or workgroups for any purpose consistent with this charter. Such subcommittees or workgroups may not work independently of the chartered committee and must report their recommendations and advice to the chartered committee for full deliberation and discussion. Subcommittees or workgroups have no authority to make decisions on behalf of the chartered committee nor can they report directly to the EPA.

14. Recordkeeping:

The records of the committee, formally and informally established subcommittees, or other subgroups of the committee, will be handled in accordance with NARA General Records Schedule 6.2 and EPA Records Schedule 1024 or other approved agency records disposition schedule. Subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, these records will be available for public inspection and copying, in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act.
