

U.S. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
SMALL BUSINESS INNOVATION RESEARCH PROGRAM
FOREIGN DISCLOSURE

Due Diligence for Foreign Influence

The SBIR and STTR Extension Act of 2022 (<https://www.congress.gov/bill/117th-congress/senate-bill/4900/text>) reauthorizes through FY2025 and modifies the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) program.

The bill requires agencies with an SBIR program to assess the security risks presented by offerors with financial ties or obligations to certain foreign countries. The programs may not make awards to businesses with certain connections to foreign entities. To comply with this requirement, the program will require all offerors being considered for award under this solicitation to complete the following disclosure form disclosing ties to the People's Republic of China and other foreign countries prior to award and as needed during the life of the funding agreement.

After completion of the proposal evaluation process, the EPA may request the following information from an offeror being considered for award.

Note this information is not due with the proposal.

Small businesses are encouraged to disclose information related to foreign involvement or investment in response to the standardized disclosures. This disclosure does not independently disqualify an applicant.

1) The following additional information for key personnel (PI and Business Representative).

- Full name
- Date of birth
- Home address and
- Company name and business address

2) A completed foreign disclosure form.
