

2025 Brownfields Federal Programs Guide

Many federal agencies can support brownfields redevelopment through:

- Grants
- Loans or loan guarantees
- Technical assistance
- Tax credits
- Other resources

Featured in the Brownfields Federal Programs Guide

- Department of Agriculture
 - Rural Development
 - U.S. Forest Service
- Department of Commerce
 - Economic Development Administration
 - National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
- Department of Defense: U .S . Army Corps of Engineers
- Department of Energy
- Department of Health and Human Services
 - Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry
 - National Institute OF Environmental Health Sciences
 - Office of Community Services
- Department of Housing and Urban Development
- Department of the Interior
 - National Park Service
 - Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement
- Department of Labor
- Department of Transportation
 - Federal Highway Administration
 - Federal Transit Administration
 - Office of the Secretary
- Environmental Protection Agency
- Federal Housing Finance Agency
- General Services Administration
- National Endowment for the Arts
- Small Business Administration

Department of Agriculture

Supports business development & expansion, infrastructure, commercial, and industrial brownfields redevelopment projects in small towns and rural areas.

Provides:

- Loans, loan guarantees, and technical assistance for small/rural businesses;
- Grants for rural business development and to accelerate job creation in rural communities.

Supports integrating natural infrastructure, afforestation & ecological restoration in urban and rural communities.

Provides:

- Grants for tree planting & maintenance
- Technical assistance for tree planting & maintenance

Department of Commerce

Supports public works and infrastructure enhancements, as well as economic development planning to economically distressed areas.

Provides:

- Grants for infrastructure, public works, and economic development.
- Technical assistance for economic development planning.

Supports local economies and improved quality of life in coastal communities.

Provides:

- Matching funds to state/local governments to purchase threatened coastal and estuarine lands.
- Technical assistance for coastal area restoration.

Department of Defense

US Army Corps of Engineers

Supports state and local governments with civil works water resource projects for ecosystem restoration, inland and coastal navigation, and flood and storm damage reduction.

Provides:

- Grants for planning assistance in states.
- Technical assistance for watershed and ecosystem. planning, and water- and land-related engineering.
- Technical expertise for preserving historic buildings and structures.
- Projects that protect or restore the Great Lakes ecosystem, or other water resource civic works projects mandated by Congress.

Department of Energy

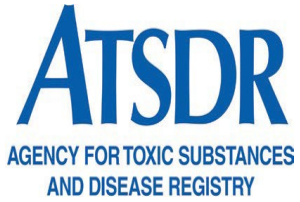

Supports evaluation of brownfield properties as potential sites for renewable energy technologies.

Provides:

- Grants for energy efficiency and renewable energy projects.
- Technical assistance for environmental cleanup and stabilization.

Department of Health and Human Services

Supports populations exposed to hazardous substances from and enforces institutional controls to prevent human exposure.

Provides:

- Grants to assess health issues associated with redevelopment plans.
- Technical Assistance to public health agencies.

National Institutes
of Health

Supports Environmental Career Worker Training Program to foster economic and environmental restoration of brownfields.

Provides:

- Grants to develop health and safety training programs.
- Technical Assistance in training workers handling hazardous materials.

Supports community development corporations and projects related to water and wastewater.

Provides:

- Grants for job training programs
- Technical assistance for rural water facilities

Department of Housing and Urban Development

Supports affordable housing needs in developed areas and transportation, housing and redevelopment planning

Provides:

- Grants for:
 - state and local governments for revitalizing communities and meeting affordable housing needs in developed areas.
 - community development in Indian and Alaska Native communities.
 - lead-based paint hazard reduction.
- Loan guarantees for community development.
- Technical assistance to support community revitalization and assess and control lead-based paint and other home health hazards.

Department of the Interior

Helps communities create new parks and recreation areas by transferring federal land to local governments, and assisting in conservation of open spaces.

Provides:

- Technical assistance for conservation and recreation projects.
- Land transfer where available to create parks.

Supports local governments in the assessment, reclamation, and redevelopment of abandoned mine lands

Provides:

- Grants to:
 - reclaim streams affected by acid mine drainage.
 - states and tribes to reclaim abandoned mine lands.
- Technical Assistance for watershed development.

Department of Labor

Supports local redevelopment efforts that require workers who are trained and skilled to handle environmental cleanup and sustainable redevelopment of brownfields.

Provides:

- Grants for:
 - job training programs
 - community colleges to develop career training programs
- Technical assistance to states, localities and community organizations on workforce development.

Department of Transportation

Federal Highway
Administration

Supports state and local transportation agencies and communities as they consider how to use federal-aid highway funds to meet their program goals.

Provides:

- Grants for transportation projects and planning, air quality improvement and congestion mitigation.
- Technical Assistance for long-range transportation planning.

Supports metropolitan planning organizations that conduct transportation investment programs.

Provides:

- Grants for public transportation capital projects.

Supports larger transportation infrastructure projects.

Provides:

- Grants, loans, and credit assistance to invest in innovative road, rail, transit, and port projects that incorporate livability and sustainability principles.

Federal Transit Administration

Office of the Secretary

Environmental Protection Agency

Supports land revitalization through various resources to help communities address contaminated sites and safely reuse properties.

Provides:

- Grants for:
 - brownfields inventory, assessment, planning, and cleanup; and to capitalize revolving loan funds for brownfields cleanup.
 - brownfields job training programs.
 - states and tribes to enhance response and brownfields programs.
 - projects to restore local urban water quality.
- Loans for water quality improvement projects, including drinking water.
- Technical assistance to:
 - support safe reuse of brownfields.
 - build capacity-building to implement sustainable and equitable development strategies.

Federal Housing Finance Agency

Supports community development programs including the Affordable Housing Program, the Community Investment Program, and the Community Investment Cash Advances program.

Provides:

- Loans for:
 - housing and economic development that benefit low- and moderate-income families.
 - Affordable housing.
- Grants for affordable housing.

General Services Administration

Supports states and communities interested in innovative federal land disposal methods and options for privatizing remediation.

Provides:

- Technical Assistance to match underused federal properties and surplus federally owned brownfields with local revitalization objectives.

National Endowment for the Arts

Supports livability by addressing community priorities such as public safety, health, blight and vacancy, environment, job creation, equity, local business development, civic participation, and community cohesion.

Provides:

- Grants for:
 - placemaking projects with art at their core.
 - public art projects.

Small Business Administration

Supports small businesses interested in locating on revitalized brownfields.

Provides:

- Loans to small businesses:
 - to invest in major fixed assets, such as land and buildings.
 - for general business purposes.
- Technical assistance for small business development.