

David D. Wallace, P.E.
Utilities Engineering Manager
City of Cedar Rapids
1111 Shaver Road NE, Cedar Rapids, Iowa 52402
Phone: 319-286-5913 Email: d.wallace@cedar-rapids.org

(A) Education

Name of institution	Location	Major	Degree year
The University of Iowa	Iowa City, IA	Civil Engineering	B.S. 1987

(B) Work Experience

2021 to Present: Utilities Engineering Manager, Utilities Department, City of Cedar Rapids, IA

- Responsible for development, management, and implementation of the capital improvement program for water supply, treatment, storage, and distribution
- Responsible for development, management, and implementation of the capital improvement program for the wastewater treatment facilities
- Oversee the management of the engineering division and water distribution division of the Utilities Department.

2013 to 2021: Sewer Utilities Program Manager, Public Works Department, City of Cedar Rapids, IA

- Responsible for the development, management and implementation of the stormwater and sanitary sewer capital improvement program
- Responsible for development of the Stormwater Master Plan and Sanitary Sewer Master Plan
- Oversaw engineering consultant contracts for studies and design of capital improvement projects.
- Oversaw various funding sources for capital improvement projects including Community Development Block grants and FEMA disaster recovery funds.

2000 to 2013: Project Engineer II, Public Works Department, City of Cedar Rapids, IA

- Responsible for the development, management, and implementation of the sanitary sewer capital improvement program
- Oversaw engineering consultant contracts for studies and design of capital improvement projects.
- Led 2008 Flood disaster recovery effort for the sanitary sewer collection system

1987 to 2000: Staff Engineer and Project Manager, HR Green Company, various office location in Iowa

- Involved in and/or responsible for studies, design and project management of a variety of infrastructures projects including streets, sanitary sewers, infiltration and inflow reduction, water distribution, storm sewer, wastewater facilities, wetlands and public water supply wells.

(C) Relevant experience accomplishments

1. Member of American Water Works Association, Water Environment Federation and Iowa Association of Water Agencies.
2. Co-Presented the Cedar Rapids Sanitary Sewer Master Plan at the 2017 Water Environment Collections System Conference in Omaha, Nebraska.
3. Received Outstanding Government Civil Engineer Award in 2016 from the Iowa Section of American Society of Civil Engineers.
4. Licensed Professional Engineer in the State of Iowa since 1991.

(D) Relevant experience accomplishments

Over 36 years of civil engineering experience in a wide variety of municipal projects. Experience with administering various local, state and federal funding sources including State Revolving Fund Loans, Community Development Block Grants and FEMA Disaster Recovery funds. Oversee the Engineering Division and Water Distribution Division of the Cedar Rapids Utilities Department.