

Matthew works closely with MetroCOG's Chief Elective Officials and municipal staff to direct federal, state, and local programs for transportation, land use, environmental and natural hazard mitigation, brownfields assessment and remediation, economic development, shared services, and Geographic Information Systems (GIS).

Affiliations/Certifications

- Practitioner in Residence, University of New Haven
- Board Member, Sustainable CT

Education

- Master of Environmental Science & Management (MESM), University of California Santa Barbara
- Bachelor of Arts, Geography, Central Connecticut State University.

Matthew Fulda

(he/him/his)

Executive Director

MetroCOG

Relevant Experience

Harbor Station Unit 5, Bridgeport, CT

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Master Planning and Redevelopment Study for a decommissioned coal plant in Bridgeport's South End

SW Connecticut Priority Climate Action Plan, CPRG program (US EPA)

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Oversee agency development and implementation of Climate Action Planning to reduce GHG emissions for the Bridgeport-Stamford- Norwalk MSA

Resilient Bridgeport

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Major infrastructure project in the South End of Bridgeport to mitigate flooding and increase resilience throughout a vulnerable community that has been subject to significant climate related hazards

Johnsons Creek Resilience Project

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Providing shoreline access and resilience to an underserved community in Bridgeport that has been historically disconnected from the coast