

Lindsay is a dynamic Regional Planner who leads MetroCOG's Climate Pollution Reduction Grant activities. She applies over ten years of visual storytelling and creative project management experience to co-creating inspired community engagement, developing short- and long-range plans, and solving complex urban and regional challenges.

Affiliations/Certifications

Certified Planner, American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP)

Education

Master of Arts, Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning, Tufts University

Bachelor of Arts, Architecture, Lehigh University

Lindsay Naughton

(she/her/hers)

Regional Planner

MetroCOG

Relevant Experience

SW Connecticut PCAP, CPRG (US EPA)

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Project Manager for agency development and implementation of Climate Action Planning to reduce GHG emissions for the Bridgeport-Stamford- Norwalk MSA

Climate Resiliency Design Guidelines

NYC DOT, 2021-2022

- Worked with the Capital Planning and Resiliency units to develop an interactive tool, which applies Climate Resiliency Design Guidelines to DOT's capital portfolio.

Sustainability Consulting Business

Development Lead

Gensler, 2017-2020

- Played a key role in scaling the Climate Action practice. Worked alongside studio co-leads to transform strategic plans into toolkits for integrating sustainability services across the firm's vast portfolio.