

Patrick Carleton

(he/him/his)

Deputy Director
MetroCOG

As Deputy Director, Patrick oversees legal and financial aspects of the agency while directing grant applications and planning studies. Works closely with federal, state, and local officials to coordinate planning for transportation, environmental and natural hazard mitigation, brownfields assessment and remediation programs.

Affiliations/Certifications

Certified Planner, American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP)

Education

Master of Public Administration,

University of New Haven

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science

University of Connecticut

Relevant Experience

Harbor Station Unit 5, Bridgeport, CT

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Master Planning and Redevelopment Study for decommissioned coal plant in Bridgeport's South End neighborhood

SW Connecticut Priority Climate Action Plan, CPRG program (US EPA)

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Oversees agency development and implementation of Climate Action Planning to reduce GHG emissions for the Bridgeport-Stamford- Norwalk MSA

Brownfields

MetroCOG, Ongoing

- Directs MetroCOG's brownfield remediation programs which includes applying for grants, administering them, and sub-awarding.