

Joseph Murtagh- Director. Alternative Fuels & New Technology Integration at NJ Transit

Having joined NJ TRANSIT IN 2019, Joe brings 36 years of automotive industry experience to NJ TRANSIT, having worked for vehicle manufacturers Rolls-Royce, Ford, and Jaguar Land Rover and has served in various technical and senior management positions. Responsibilities included the following functional areas, Field Service Engineering, Product Quality, Service Diagnostics, and Technical Service Operations. Currently, Joe is the Director of Alternative Fuels and New Technology Integration in Bus Maintenance, responsible for overseeing the deployment and ongoing support of alternative fuel programs such as compressed natural gas, hybrid, full battery electric buses, and future technologies such as hydrogen fuel cell. Joe attended Brookdale College & Fairleigh Dickinson University.