

Anne E. Spaulding

City of Rochester, 30 Church St. Room 300B, Rochester, NY 14614 | 585-428-7474 | anne.spaulding@cityofrochester.gov

Summary

Environmental sustainability professional with over 25 years experience in municipal environmental stewardship management.

Experience

MANAGER OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY | CITY OF ROCHESTER | JULY 2017-PRESENT

- Manages and oversees the Division of Environmental Quality, including the Office of Energy and Sustainability, the Office of Environmental Remediation and the Office of Environmental Compliance
- Prepares capital and operational budget planning for the City's environmental and sustainability, brownfield redevelopment, stormwater management and city facility environmental compliance programs
- Plans and oversees City facility energy management programs, including energy efficiency improvements, renewable energy, alternative fuel vehicles and energy studies
- Develops greenhouse gas emissions inventories for municipal and community, and plans implementation activities for climate change mitigation strategies as well as climate adaptation strategies
- Oversees the implementation of the City of Rochester USEPA Brownfield Job Training program

ENERGY AND SUSTAINABILITY MANAGER | CITY OF ROCHESTER | JULY 2011-JULY 2017

- Created and lead the City of Rochester Office of Energy and Sustainability
- Provided management and oversight of the City of Rochester's environmental sustainability program
- Developed the City of Rochester greenhouse gas inventory
- Developed the City of Rochester municipal and community-wide climate action plans
- Worked with the New York Power Authority to create the City of Rochester Energy Plan
- Planned and executed projects and initiatives that resulted in the reduction of energy usage in City operations, including alternative fuels, renewable energy and energy efficiency projects
- Coordinated internal sustainability activities to prioritize projects, grants requests and capital program plans
- Managed the procurement and development of a 2MW solar field on a former City landfill through a solar power purchase agreement

SENIOR ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE SPECIALIST | CITY OF ROCHESTER | OCTOBER 1993-JULY 2011

- Researched and obtained grant funding for the City's new energy and sustainability program
- Formed the City of Rochester's Green Team
- Maintained compliance with federal and state environmental regulations at City facilities
- Managed solid and hazardous wastes generated by the City of Rochester at City facilities and City development projects
- Developed and oversaw the City of Rochester Asbestos Management Plan
- Provided oversight of the City of Rochester petroleum and chemical bulk storage program

- Developed and implemented the City of Rochester Environmental Compliance and Pollution Prevention program

ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYST | MARCOR ENVIRONMENTAL | JULY 1991-OCTOBER 1993

- Responsible for hazardous waste project management and environmental compliance for large environmental remediation corporation

CORPORATE ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYST | JONES CHEMICALS, INC. | MAY 1990-JULY 1991

- Responsible for maintaining environmental regulatory compliance for Jones Chemicals, Inc. facilities throughout the United States

TECHNICAL COORDINATOR | CHEMICAL WASTE MANAGEMENT, INC | JULY 1986-JULY 2017

- Responsible for coordinating hazardous waste management for Chemical Waste Management's Technical Services Mid-Atlantic Division in the Washington, D.C., Richmond, VA, and Norfolk, VA regions.

Education

NAZARETH COLLEGE OF ROCHESTER, ROCHESTER, NY

- M.S. Management
- B.S. Biology

Professional Affiliations

- President, Board of Directors, Greater Rochester Clean Cities, 2011 – present
- Board of Directors, Center for Environmental Initiatives/Genesee River Watch, 2018-present
- Board of Directors, National Association of Local Government Environmental Professionals, 1996-2010