

David Stillman

T-2: Implement the VTA Visionary Transit Network

Project Manager, City of Cupertino, Silicon Valley Hopper Microtransit Program

David is a dynamic professional with a proven track record in strategic planning, management, supervision, and coordination. He is skilled in overseeing the operational activities of the Transportation Division within the Public Works Department for the City of Cupertino. He has a demonstrated ability to optimize resources, streamline processes, and drive efficiency in transportation operations. David is an effective communicator and team leader committed to achieving organizational objectives while ensuring adherence to regulatory standards and safety protocols.

EXPERIENCE

Transportation Manager

City of Cupertino: 01/2006 -Present
Cupertino, CA

Transportation Engineer

City of Palo Alto: 01/2001 -01/2006
Palo Alto, CA

Associate Engineer

City of Carlsbad: 01/2000 -01/2001
Carlsbad, CA

Engineer

Degenkolb Engineers: 01/1995 -01/2000
San Francisco, CA

REGISTRATIONS

Professional Engineer

California #C58661

Institute of Transportation Engineers

Associate Member

EDUCATION

University of California at Berkeley

Master of Science in Structural Engineering, Mechanics of Materials

University of California at Berkeley

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering